12 PAGES.

DESERET EVENING NEWS.

5 O'clock ~EDITION.~

TRUTH AND LIBERTY.

NO. 280. SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 11, 1893. SALT LAKE CITY, UTAH. VOL. XXVI

GRAND JURY REPORT

Twenty-one Indictments Against County Officers in Montana.

NOT TO BE MADE A CARNIVAL

A Train Held Up on the Illinois Central.—The Robbers Secure $1100 and Other Treasure.

HELENA, Mont., Nov. 11.—The grand jury has made a final report so far as is at this time the doings of the county officers. Six indictments are returned against Sheriff Dwyer for embezzlement and perjury, two against Clerk Sweeny for embezzlement, three against Assessor Graves for embezzlement and malfeasance, two against Jailer McKown for embezzlement and malfeasance in allowing prisoners to escape and eight against the county commissioners for malfeasance in office in allowing claims on bills in excess of the amount that should have been paid. The finding of the jury caused a great sensation.

Professor Shamp Dead.

DUBUQUE, Ia., Nov. 11.—Professor W. A. Shamp, leader of Shamp's troupe of bicycle and fat lady prominent in public school affairs of this city and state, died this morning. He was the author of several text books.

The Olympics.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 11.—The new cinder cyclopedia at Recreation park continues its position as queen of the city. Five mile is a maximum speed of 22 and 23 minutes (21.29) mile, and averaged slightly under 21 mile as a run of 65 laps, with a heavy sea and strong wind. The cyclists believe the can be made to go 22 mile and the winds give the Cuban Iris worth a house of $400,000 for extra speed.

Can't Vote.

LANSING, Mich., Nov. 11.—The supreme court has handed down a decision holding that an inmate of the Soldier's home at Grand Rapids is not entitled to vote in that township. It is held, however, he can vote in his place of residence if he goes to his home before the proper time on election day the ballot must be received.

HELD UP THE TRAIN.

Not Bilde's Gang Much for Their Daring Feat.

CAIRO, Ill., Nov. 11.—The Illinois Central train, due here at 1:35 this morning, was held up at Mansfield bridge, Ky., eight miles south of here, by five masked men, but are supposed to have boarded the train at Fulton. The robbers entered the express car, and secured a small amount of cash and a valuable package, the contents of which is unknown. The miners then jumped from the train and made for the woods, followed by several pistol shots from the express messengers and conductor but without effect. No clue.

Later accounts say that the stolen package contained about $1400. The thieves also robbed the passengers, though getting but little booty. Blood hounds have been sent from Paducah, Ky., to track the robbers.

Fatalities to Remember.

BOISE, Nov. 11.—A report is circulated by the Populist Journal of Oakley, to the effect that ex-Gov. Hale is to make a candidate. It is universally originated in the report circulated in the United States some months ago. The Associated Press is authorized to state that the announcement of the Oakley Journal is quite premature. The gov. never intends to remain in the United States till his mission is completely ended.

Government Representation.

NEW YORK, Nov. 11.—It is announced authoritatively that it has been decided on the part of the government to ask the court today to appoint J. W. Doane, of Chicago, and Frederick R. Coudert, of New York, to be assistant receivers of the Union Pacific. This will give the government three representatives. Receiver Clark will be placed in charge of the operating department, and Receiver Mack of the accounts in the department. It is understood that additional receivers are likely to be appointed to represent other security holders of the Union Pacific.

Silver Workers.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 11.—The treasury department has advices from London saying silver is weaker at 32½ pence, a falling off of ⅛ since yesterday.

Gone to Australia.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 11.—Martin Heller, a contractor and builder engaged in government work between Duquesne and with a large amount of money belonging to the government and subcontractors. It is believed he has gone to Australia.

Fighting Desperadoes.

PARIS, Ky., Nov. 11.—Last night eight strangers came into North Middletown, 10 in number, and treated Marshal Scott to rub the bank. They went at every person on the street and mortally wounded Curt Morris, an old negro. One citizen opened fire on the desperadoes who answered with a volley from their pistols. The desperadoes left, but returned an hour later and were charged upon by the citizens and driven out of town. Three of the robbers were badly wounded but were carried off by the others.

ARAGON, THE ANARCHIST.

He was a Friend of Pallas, the Noted Anarchist.

BARCELONA, Nov. 11.—Aragon, the French anarchist and nephew of the man arrested on suspicion of being connected with the outrage at the Liceum theater, is found to have been a friend of Pallas, the anarchist executed for attempting the life of Capt. Gen. Martinez Campos. The lodgings of the French anarchist were searched shortly after his arrest, and Index to This Paper.

PAGE 1—Grand Jury and Assassination Gangs.
PAGE 2—Sleeping & Death.
PAGE 3—Telegraphic News.
PAGE 4—Editorial.
PAGE 5—General News.
PAGE 6—Sports of the Week.
PAGE 7—Local News.
PAGE 8—Business in Brief.
PAGE 9—Miscellaneous Advertisements.
PAGE 10—Miscellaneous Advertisements.
PAGE 11—Miscellaneous Advertisements.
PAGE 12—Miscellaneous Advertisements.

plates of the Chicago anarchists and other incendiary papers were found on the prisoner, who was taken unawares when first found by the police. Aragon is a young man of 25 years of age, and is a native of Barcelona. He is a tailor by trade, and is said to be a friend of Pallas, the anarchist executed for the attempt on the life of Capt. Gen. Martinez Campos. The lodgings of the French anarchist were searched shortly after his arrest, and

THE SLEEP OF DEATH

A. S. Johnson Suddenly Succumbs at the Collins Hotel.

TWO BOTTLES OF LAUDANUM.

A Diary of Whisky and Dirty-Eye Cases Found in Bed With Him.

There was another case of suicide at the Collins hotel late last night or early this morning, and one that has fact to prove more mysterious than any to be similar before it was.

The victim is A. S. Johnson, a man whose identity comes to us with a name to the city. On the 5th he registered at the Collins as being from Nashville, Tennessee. He paid his bill for twenty-one hours in advance and requested not to be called upon to the use of his room for another day.

The bellboy reading he left the hotel late last night informed visitors and bell boy attendant of the same habits, a bell boy was interrupted by the clerk point of his room this morning. Peeping over the transom the bellboy observed Johnson lie a half dress and sack lying across with one stockings on over his head.

The bellboy ran, right from and gained eye and succeeded in a point with his head inclined in his mouth he found a quart of whisky and a pint. He immediately hastened to Night Clerk Lee, who notified Coroner Taylor. That officer was soon on the spot and an inquest was soon commenced. Johnson is a half dress and sack lying across with one stockings on over his head.

The bellboy ran, right from and gained eye and succeeded in a point with his head inclined in his mouth he found a quart of whisky and a pint. He immediately hastened to Night Clerk Lee, who notified Coroner Taylor. That officer was soon on the spot and an inquest was