LAWSON SPILLED IN LAP RACE

Exciting Finish With Accidents Galore Causes Thrills.

KRAMER AN EASY WINNER. FINALS SET FOR LABOR DAY.

Leads Samuelson Home as Easy as He Trimmed Downing, Without A Sprint

There were thrills for everybody at the Salt Palace saucer last night. The good ald game of bike riding was going its hest, and as if the finishes were not keen acough, a set of sensational spills with Iver Lawson as the hero, were added. Lawson was entered in the regular professional events. When it came to the ave mile lap race he found a hard time working to the front, as McFarland, his team mate punctured early in the race, and that left him only Pyc to drag for position. Samuelson and Hollister were in position. Samuelson and Hollister were in the going ahead of Lawson and he tried to pass the team but Hollister who was up the bank from Samuelson stretched out his arm and held Sammy steady on the pole position. Lawson, cutting through below was crowded onto the cement and ended his effort in a large dive to the grass plot.

Just before this mispap Williams collided with Mitten, whom he had pursued to catch in the act of stealing laps, and in the shakeup. Mitten got very little damage while Williams received a severe fall and had to be carried to his dressing room.

AN EXCITING FINISH.

AN EXCITING FINISH.

With McFarland out from an exploded fire, Williams on the ground in agony Lawson lying prone on the grass from his smash, excitement in the last few moments of the race grew exciting. Heady Hardy Downing, bold, bad pirate that he is, seized his opportunity and made a sneak for home coming in after Hollister, who was disqualified for shoving Sammy. This gave the lonesome pirate first place, and Sammy raised a howl to the judges. Almost simultaneously a fresh pedestrain walked into Downing as he tried to dismount, and spilled him, sending his fire straight up to G. No one was damaged by the commotion, and Hardy got the money under protest from Hollister and Sam.

KRAMER AN EASY WINNER

KRAMER AN EASY WINNER.

KRAMER AN EASY WINNER.

Samuelon had honors heaped upon him, however, last night. He joined Downing in the distinction of having Kramer ride around him. As in every other race, including his effort against liver Lawson, the champlon failed to produce a sprint or a jump, but simply rodicated the cought to keep a lead on his opponent, and laugh at him over his shoulder. If Kramer has a jump in him, and that wonderful whirlwind finish it will require to defeat Lawson the local public is getting anxious to see it.

The mile open brought Lawson to the tape for first money, in a finish with McFarland and fighting him in. Lawson and Mac got the lead a lap from nome anish a lap away Lawson came out from behind to bet his old team mate and relend to the tape.

Hume got his in the pursuit race. In fighting it out with Holliday he found he couldn't cutride him, so he outsprinted him, so he outsprinted him and in a four-lap finishing run for home he passed his man, winning first place.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years docters pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven eatarth to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Chency & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it falls to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

TENNIS TOURNEY BEGAN TODAY

Players Met for Preliminaries of Intermountain Championship Series.

It is Hoped to Finish Preliminary Rounds in Time for Holiday Crowd at Last Games.

The second annual tournament began today to decide the tennis championship of the intermountain west. The tourney is a sanctioned one and the only way a tennis man of Wyoming, Colorado, Idaho or Montana, can claim championship possibilities is for him to try out in the Salt

To the city the tourney has a larger significance still. It is that Salt Lake s growing fast, and in this one direction has become the headquarters it ought to be, of intermountain sports, as well as of intermountain commerce, education and recreations. Not many men play tennis outside of the big cities, and there are more men playing here than elsewhere in the region embraced by the tournament. However, the years will rapidly remedy this condition, and the second annual tourney may be rated as one of the first opening wedges in a sport declined to be very popular through the western mountains, with its headquarters always in Salt Lake.

Play today began at the Miller courts and at the Country club courts. After the preliminaries are played off it is hoped to hold the finals on Labor day. No admission fee is charged to any of the games, and it is the intention to keep it so, as tennis is essentially a gentleman's game for recreation, and all over the country is played for its own sake rather than by "professionals" for the coin there is in it. The honor of winning the Newhouse trophy cup is the chief incentive to play. has become the headquarters it ought to National Tennis Championships Go to Suit the Crowd at Newport.

Newport, R. I. Aug. 24.—Favorites, with perhaps one exception, won today in the national lawn tennis championship tournament at the Casino. The I. C. Wright Robert Leroy contest was long and hard fought. Wright's rally in the third set after Leroy had won the first two and had the games 3 to 2 on the third, was the feature of the day, and, in fact, of the tournament thus far. The other winners were: E. W. Leonard of Boston, J. D. E. Jones of Providence, F. B. Alexander of New York, W. J. Clothier of Philadelphia, R. H. Behr of Yale, R. D. Little and H. H. Hackett, both of New York. The pairings tomorrow in the fifth round will be:

Leonard and Jones, Alexander and Clothier, Behr and Wright, Little and Hackett.

Two other matches went to extra sets. E. W. Leonard of Boston had some difficulty in putting out W. E. Putnam, Jr., his club mate from Longwood, while H. H. Hackett found a hard opponent in A. Stillman, also of Longwood. Newport, H. L. Aug. 24.-Payorites, with
