RABBIT'S FOOT IN ORE.

Four Feet of Mineral Encountered in a Drift from the 350-Foot Level.

ORE LOOKS LIKE THE SWANSEA PRODUCT

Business on the Exchange, of Service Value—The Fight in Great Mine of the Bingham-ville District.

"Bill" Griffiths, who made a hurried trip to Tintic last evening, returned this morning, come back with the report that in the drift from the bottom level of the Rabbit's Foot, a four-foot body of gold-bearing ore has been encountered, the same being the appearance of the Dewdrop product. Mr. Griffiths says that drifting has been pushed a distance of 125 feet from the shaft, and he believes the main ore body has been discovered. For a good while past, says he, the company has been crosscut with bad air, making development work quite difficult, but this has now been overcome and progress in exploration promises to be more marked from this time on. The mine has looked well for a good while, and it is the belief of many that the Rabbit's Foot is destined to prove itself a pure winner.

BUSINESS OF NARROW VOLUME.

Mammoth and South Swansea Do the Business in the Pit Today—Figures Form.

Business in the pit today was of narrow volume, only two stocks participating in the transfers. Shares of Mammoth and South Swansea, both of which gave evidence of forming strong bids yesterday, changed at $1.36 and $1.31, and the latter being a taker of a hundred shares at $1.32. Both maintained a good, firm tone, and had the time of the call and could readily have done more business, but bidders not disposed to relinquish around the figures quoted.

There was no marked change in the condition of the market. Stocks generally held good figures and some few appeared to be in demand, judging from the favorable recognition received. Bullion-Beck was among this number and had a bid of $1.15 with no offerings under $1.17, though Crown had a bid of $1.17½, but could not be had under $1. Despite the existing demand for the stock, Alpha could not be good bid, as did also Ontario and Silver King, these stocks giving evidence of greater strength than recent days.

There was no offer to get Omaha at 41 cents but it dismally failed, as buyers demanded 38 cents. Point Lookout, a new place with a bid of $1.01½, while Swansea scored another advance and could not be had under $1.02½ and $1.03½. For Vasco the bid was 31 cents and Lower Mammoth had one in cents, but neither seemed easy sellers nor did others than South Swansea in this category. Young America of Nevada and Alice of Montana had bids of 55 and 6 cents respectively.

The closing figures were as follows:

THE FIGHT IS OVER.

Stock Exchange Declares the Office of Secretary Vacant—President to Appoint.

With a determination to see the thing through, Harry Joseph again appeared on the surface this morning, and after the roll of listed stocks in the pit, neared for a vote on his motion to take the notice of the governing board removing Secretary Hudson.

Henry Peery arose to enter a demurrer to any interference in the premises, but before he could thoroughly explain himself, Mr. Hudson was granted the floor and in a quiet, well-chosen words introduced an amendment to Mr. Joseph's motion the same being to effect that the members of the exchange declare the office of secretary thereof vacant, and that the president be authorized to appoint a secretary, the appointment to take place Sept. 2nd.

The amendment was accepted by Mr. Joseph, and as Mr. Hudson stated it is known that he was not a candidate for the position, a vote was taken, and the amendment carried unanimously. E. E. Vigue and Judge Colton, former incumbents, are being spoken of for the MINES OF HORNSBYVILLE.

Developments in a District Where Salt Lake Capital is Invested.

Mr. D. W. Cromer, who has just returned from an extensive trip through the Hornsbyville district, speaks very highly of that country and predicts a bright future for it, says the Salem City Republican.

Speaking of a general way he said that a large force of men was working on the Red Rock, and that they would start the new 30-stamp mill in about two weeks. Mr. Cromer is the county deputy and is showing up in fine shape. The tunnel is 70 feet in, feet and he will prospect the showing further before.

On the Dock the tunnel has been driven in 300 feet, besides which a cross tunnel of 200 feet has been driven, to tap the main lodge. The showing in this mine is very satisfactory, and the owners have cause to be proud of their property.

On the Golden Eagle, one mile below the Don Juan, a tunnel is being run to strike the main lodge. The indications on this property are very promising and the prospects for the mine look very bright.

Nothing is being done on the Don Juan at present, but it is understood that operations will be begun very shortly. The Don Juan is a good property and will justify any expenditures that are made on it.

"The gem Independence district," said Mr. Cromer, "is in excellent shape, and gives promise of taking front rank with the best of them."

It is understood that Mr. Cromer has interested capital in this district, and that some improvements will be made that is looked for in the near future.

Looking For a Brother.

2422 Madison Avenue, Ogden, Utah, Aug. 27, 1898.

To the EDITOR:

Having been interested to write to you in regard to my brother, Avery Rice McKinley, I will now give you the facts concerning our separation, which I hope you will see fit to print.

My mother left our home in Mahoning Co., Kentucky, seventeen years ago with the intention of coming to Salt Lake to become a Mormon. I have never seen or heard from her. Having now become a Mormon myself and come to Utah, I have hoped to find some trace of him, the eldest of eight children, if he is living, whether alive or dead.

MARINDA C. RILEY.

PAIN'S BATTLE OF MANILA.

The Fine Pictures to be Presented at Saltair for the Rough Riders' Monument.

"What is this Pain's Battle of Manila?" is a question which was asked many times today and yesterday. Here is the answer:

Henry C. Pain is the American fireworks king. He has endeavored, with remarkable results, to reproduce in mimic form for the aid of pyrotechnics, Rear Admiral George Dewey's great naval victory in the harbor of Manila. He presented it first and for sixty nights at Manhattan beach, New York. He employed a thousand people in the construction of the Maine and a magnificent display of fireworks. The success of the enterprise was tremendous, and in order to show that he was a willing contributor to any patriotic movement, he donated to the entire proceeds of the Decoration Day entertainment to the fund which W. R. Hearst is raising for a national monument to the memory of the War and the Martyrs of the Maine. On that day over $1,000 people paid to see the pyrotechnic pageant.

Since then Mr. Hearst and Mr. Pain entered into an agreement for a tour of the country, and it came to Salt Lake. The terms of the agreement were that the show should independently in Salt Lake, Ogden and Provo, and that all the profits should go to the national monument fund.

Among those who witnessed the gorgous fire pictures in San Francisco were Presidents Woodruff and George Q. Cannon, both gentlemen being highly pleased and entertained.

In the minds' war a fire picture of wonderful merit will be first and lightest. Then a tableau representing the Maine will be presented and the conflict takes place in full view of the audience, the battleships maneuvering in the harbor at the bay and firing their guns until the Stars and Stripes is seen and the triumphant Olympia carries to her masthead the order "Cease firing." The pyrotechnic display includes war motions, portraits of Dewey and others, magnificent fire pieces, bombs, rockets and all manner of beautiful and wonderful devices in fireworks.

The Women's Club of Utah, which intended to have its annual gathering at Saltair on Tuesday, has graciously and patriotically given way to this pyrotechnic display, and so will celebrate on Wednesday instead.
