EVENTS IN THE WEST.

A Record of Occurrences in Neighboring States and Territories.

SURVEY TO DEATH IN SAN FRANCISCO.

Military Hospital Cases Before the Brigadier-General—New Military Road—Passengers to Nome Stranded.

[illegible]

[illegible] at Casper: A. V. Quinn, J. H. Ward, W. A. Roberts, J. A. Hopkins, Matthew Murray, F. E. Herrick, H. H. Mathews, Wm. Illingsworth, John C. Nelson, C. J. Goodyear, Roger Prince, James Smith, J. M. Graff, Frank Miles, James Brown. The convention then adjourned, the 8th of September, to meet at Douglas, when the convention for the nomination of county officers.

Matthew E. Ashbrook, of New York, has arrived in Denver and has received from the Ashcroft trust his report and talked with the press about the conclusions he has reached in his investigation of the affairs of the Ashcroft. Report now or two parties who took it upon earlier the more or less sensational statements made by Mr. Ashbrook were that the investigation of the Ashcroft trust, which was called in the Ashcroft bankruptcy, in which the gold-seekers are in.

A full room and a large crowd in the South Pueblo Alliance on a Friday night, July 22, was addressed by Governor Montana will address the following delegates to the convention: Governor Waite, Governor Pennoyer, Governor Lewelling, Governor Joseph K. Toole, members of the State Alliance Lecture Bureau, Chairman Kelly, of the Kansas State Agricultural Society, representatives of organizations in Colorado, Kansas, Nebraska, Iowa, Illinois, Indiana, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Maryland, Delaware, Massachusetts, Rhode Island, Connecticut, Vermont, New York, New Jersey, Michigan, Wisconsin, Minnesota, Dakota, Montana, Idaho, Oregon, California, Nevada, Utah, Arizona, New Mexico, Indian Territory, Oklahoma, Texas, Louisiana, Mississippi, Alabama, Georgia, Tennessee, Kentucky, Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Florida, Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont, Massachusetts, Rhode Island, Connecticut