JOSEPH MORRIS SUICIDES.

His Head Almost Severed With a Razor.

Joseph Morris, a stonemason, committed suicide yesterday by cutting his throat with a razor. His body was found about 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon on an unused piece of ground on Ninth South street, between Tenth and Eleventh East, lying face downward in a pool of blood. Beside him was a razor, with which his head had nearly almost severed from his body. Coroner Officinach was notified and the body was removed to Evans's undertaking parlors.

Morris came to this city from Gilmore about four years ago, and after working in this city some time went to Park City. He afterwards returned to this city and has been employed at Lawson's cigar factory until a few days ago. He resided at Wright's, off Fourth street, between East Temple and State streets, with his wife and five children, the eldest being about eight years of age. He left home yesterday morning after eating a light breakfast, saying that he would return in a short time. He had appeared despondent for some time owing to his business reverses, and his death is attributed to this and drink.

An inquest was held over the body this morning at the coroner's office, and a verdict was returned in accordance with the above facts. Morris was a Jew, and a member of the Cigarmakers' union.

The One Mile Board.

The trouble which occurred between Mrs. Nellie Dartnell and Mrs. Alice G. Hess, at the Bessie Vilas school a few days ago was investigated by Commissioner Jennings yesterday afternoon so far as the charge of assault and battery against Mrs. Hess was concerned. The defendant was acquitted. Now will come the hearing of Mrs. Dartnell before Commissioner Greeman, on the cross complaint of Mrs. Hess.

Sim Duggins.

A motion for a new trial in the case of Sim Duggins, of Provo, recently convicted in the Third district court of robbery, was partially argued before Judge Hurich late yesterday afternoon, and both sides desired to file briefs.

Ryan Charged with Assault.

A warrant was laid evening issued for the arrest of H. M. Ryan, charged with committing an assault upon James M. Kennedy. The latter is confined to his bed from the effects of injuries said to have been inflicted by Ryan, who is now in hiding, awaiting the trial of a subpoena. The alleged assault was committed about 5 o'clock last Saturday evening in the Dallas hotel bar room, when Ryan struck Kennedy, knocking him down. Both men are prominent in mining circles.

A Broken Leg.

Mrs. Sophia Christenson, aged 65 years, had her left leg broken in two places while in the act of stepping from a carriage shop last night. Dr. Wright dressed the wounds and the unfortunate woman was removed to her home, near the corner of South Temple and First West streets.

THE NEW ZEALAND MISSION.

Labors in Auckland—Conference Meetings—Elders Appointments.

AUCKLAND, New Zealand,
February 19th, 1895.

Editor Deseret News.

The many readers of your valuable paper may be interested to hear a few lines from this far-off land.

More than six months ago Elders were called to reopen a Gospel hall in the city of Auckland. For seven or eight years but occasional meetings had been held there and they were never of a public character. There was now a branch of the Church there consisting of sixty or seventy members, presided over by a local Elder, under the direct presidency of Mr. Elder John Eccles. Most of these Saints have since emigrated to Utah so that now there are but about twenty left who were belonging to the mission and they are widely scattered.

The first letter of the Elders was to find them in Auckland. In this we succeeded fairly well and now regular meetings are held with the Saints and every Sunday evening with the public. Though at first there was strong spirit of prejudice against the unpopular sect, through the teachings of Jesuitism much of this has been allayed and the brethren have many good friends in the city. With their limited means they have rented vacant lots, and seeking to be placed in positions so often they have begun. Those who would come to them, the Gospel of the Lord Jesus. Trading with the people and distributing tracts has caused much good to come thus. Their letters have not been the contrary in Auckland, but small towns in the country were also been visited and the gospel proclaimed taught to the people. It has been a season of conversion. Some of the seed, we trust, has fallen in productive soil, the harvest of which are long we shall reap.

On the night of February 2, 1895, after all nature was hushed in the stillness of night, four humble Saints, accompanied by one whose experience and related in a thousand ways convinced of the truthfulness of Mormonism, wended their way to the lonely mount. There they knelt with the sun and implored the approval of Jehovah on the second ordinance they were about to perform. The writer then led the candidate into the water deep and in the name of the Father, Son and Holy Ghost immersed him for the remission of his sins. When arose out of the flood their hearts to the Lord exclaimed, "Thank God, it is done!" Immediately after the confirmation, they gathered round their brother and President Gardner was moved to confirm his as a member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, and seating upon him the gifts of the Holy Ghost. Thus saw at the white zone of that was added to the Kingdom of God, and they felt in their hearts that it was approved of Heaven. If they may be allowed to judge by the spirit manifested by most, they have more cause to believe that a work will soon follow.

The health of the brethren has generally been good, and they have been in the spirit of supplication to God and blessed them. We are diligent in our work and sowing their efforts with success.

For the past few months they have been looking forward with considerable anticipation to the arrival of Elder Rowe when the mission was opened in the spring of the year. Would he come? Would Heavy Rowe, Sayd of Israel, A Hal (Hallelujah) in Christendom? Would he come to the Eccles, Unmoved with it are friendly greetings and cheerful greetings. O the sweetness long gone, for the spirit of brotherly love is strong, and we feel that we are one happiness every strange being and a seeming long acquaintance is soon formed. What heartfelt handshakes! How the expressions come with joy when they cling for joy to our hearts!

On the evening of February 4, a company of us, including President Gardner, boarded the steamship Wellington and at 11 o'clock left for Hamilton. The sea was rolling high and motion generally put us to bed before we got out. Almost the boys were seized upon and we after another spell of sickness, and finally reached our destination. Some of us were met by friends, by phone and others waiting. All were glad that we had come. On the morrow we held our first meeting in the Hall of Science, which we had secured for the occasion. Some twenty people were present and we felt the Spirit of God was with us. Elder Eccles and President Gardner, Elders Hill and Harmon will go south to attend to April Conference. The President contemplates visiting two branch conferences on the way.

Elder T. S. Browning will continue the work in Auckland, holding meetings with the Saints and the people.

Your Brother,
JOHN JOHNSON.

FROM INDIAN TERRITORY.

Observations and Experiences in Preaching Among the Lamanites.

Elder E. L. Swensen, of the Tooele Ward of this city, in a letter written from Mazard, Indian Territory, says:

Six months have passed since I left Salt Lake City to go and labor among the Lamanites. There is good work being performed in this part of the Lord's vineyard. There are five tribes (more or less) in this district, namely the Cherokees, Creeks, Choctaws and Chickasaws. My labors have been among the Cherokees and Choctaws. Since my arrival I have helped to organize two branches, this being the second office of that kind in the nation. There are now about 15 members.

I was sent out as a young elder to preach the principles of the Gospel, that when the time comes for them to take notice they will be prepared to meet all obstacles that lie in their way, and that they may be able to a testimony for themselves, so that when the time comes that the Lord will come on judgments upon the ungodly the Saints may stand firm and enjoy the blessings the Lord has reserved for those who love Him and keep His commandments.
