A Request by the Indians to Suspend Hostilities-Doings at the A gencies.

CHICAGO, 6.-The Commissioner of Indian affairs received a dispatch last evening from the Indian agent at the Cheyenne agency, saying that the Indians at that place re-quest the United States to suspend hostile operations against the Sioux for eight weeks, in order that the Cheyennes and Sioux may visit the hostile Indians and arrange for peace. General Sherman is out of town, and has not seen the dispatch, but it is not likely the request will be granted. The report published a week ago that the Indians at the Red Cloud and Spotted Tail agencies had been turned over Peters and others, always to the military authorities, is not true. The Commissioner of Indian affairs found it desirable to remove the agents at those points on acties, and as it was thought wise not to delay the removals until other agents could be stated, the War Department was required to detail a military officer to take temporary charge of the property and perform the duties of Indian agents until the vacancies can be filled; meanwhile, the Protestant Episcopal church has been requested to select new agents, and as soon as this is done and the nominations approved by the President the army officers will be removed. All the agents on the Sloux reservations have been directed to assist the military in arresting the Sioux warriors as they return to the reservation. These men are placed in the hands of the military as prisoners of war. WESTERN. Dividend-The Race-Silver.
