WANTS MAY ENJOINED.

Citizens Grant Objects to the $11,000 Liquor Payment.

He Says the City Does Not Owe the Commissioners Any Money and Must Therefore Not Pay.

A. M. Orbell filed suit today in the third district court against John L. May and F. C. Kelsey, defendants, praying that a temporary restraining order be issued to prevent the payment of the $11,000 appropriation made by the City Council to the above mentioned. The plaintiff alleges:

"1. That plaintiff is a resident and a taxpayer of Salt Lake City and county and State of Utah.

"2. That Salt Lake City is a municipal corporation organized under the laws of the State of Utah.

"3. That the defendant, John L. May, is the duly elected, qualified and acting city treasurer of said Salt Lake City.

"4. That the defendant, F. C. Kelsey, is the duly appointed, qualified and acting city engineer of said Salt Lake City.

"5. That on or about March 30, 1896, the City Council of said Salt Lake City made a series of appropriations in lump of $11,000 to the defendants herein named, to be used in the following manner:

[illegible]

"6. That the said defendant, F. C. Kelsey, is claiming with indications of intending to issue warrants, or warrants in force or said claims, to such persons, or any persons or parties entitling by, through or under them, that the City of Salt Lake City, by treasurer, be enjoined from paying any warrants or orders which may be issued to said $11,000 appropriation or any part thereof. That the temporary restraining order or writ herein prayed for issue and that upon hearing the same the same be made permanent and that the plaintiff have such other and further relief as may be just and equitable in the premises.

FROM FLORIDA.

A Deseret Newspaper Reporter on the Surroundings and Reports the Editor Left in.

JACKSONVILLE, FLA., April 17, 1896.

To the Editor:

The place I am at is the city of Jacksonville, a city of 20,000 people and school, a town surrounded by beauty and a warm friend to the Saints. I was there one week at 101 Ann West Second Street, and I can say the people. My last letter should be "Now day be free." The weather the first time we meeting, whenever the Elders Not a Waiting and, but we now are with stopping the other good new friends.

We are not a lot to work if we stay and wait to be work. Still there let no make waiting so long as Elders John Walls and Wm. Cronin, who, in conjunction with Elder W. H. Summerhays and I organized a tract in Sept. last twelve months, in which we have the honor of being present at the meetings numerous occasions, during which time the tract grew very rapidly.

The president, Calvin A. West, of the church with the exception of the part of the Saints, is a very, middle income man, a true gospel. The Saints in Jacksonville are very, very poor. Some of them are, strictly speaking, the poorest people I have met in the Gospel. Yet they are, strictly speaking, the most faithful people I have met in the Gospel. Yet they are, strictly speaking, the most faithful people I have met in the Gospel. Yet they are, strictly speaking, the most faithful
