DESERET EVENING NEWS.

Monday, January 19, 1891.

THAGNEATS.

[illegible]

COUNTY COURT.

The Road Supervisors—A Letter Received from Territorial Secretary Mills.

At Saturday's session of the County Court, among the various matters the court of equalization report of the assessor and assessor's report, which appears elsewhere in this issue. It was as follows:

[illegible]

Total [illegible]

[illegible]

Tom Cluff applied the report of the assessor and assessor's report for the equalization of assessment. Clerk, the secretary announced the granting of that claim.

Some more claims were read from the minutes of the Saturday, stating that the following assessors meet in the various precincts of the county and at the assessor's office, to hear the files of the County and give notice accordingly.

R. J. Cullen was present, a justice of the peace.

Hughes, present, a justice of the peace and a constable.

Hunt this morning, a justice of the peace and a constable.

Hughes present, a constable.

Parson Wood present, a constable.

Fort Herriman present, a justice of the peace and constable.

Fort Salt Lake present, a justice of the peace and constable.

Sandy precinct, a justice of the peace and constable.

Little Cottonwood present, a justice of the peace and a constable.

Big Cottonwood present, a justice of the peace and a constable.

Ninth Ward present, a justice of the peace and a constable.

Sixth Ward present, a justice of the peace and constable.

Fourteenth Ward present, a justice of the peace and constable.

Fifteenth Ward present, a justice of the peace and constable.

Fifteenth Ward present, a justice of the peace and constable.

Fif