SIDES OF WELL COLLAPSED ON HIM

Enoch Blood Killed at American Fork This Morning.

Young Man Neglects to Shore Up the Excavation With Timbers, His Life the Forfeit.

[SPECIAL TO THE "NEWS."]

American Fork, Sept. 10.—A shocking fatality occurred here at 10 o'clock this morning in which Enoch Blood lost his life by the caving in of a well upon which he was working.

Mr. Blood has been repairing a number of wells in this city for some months past, and has the reputation of being a careful man. This morning he proceeded to start to work upon the well of Mr. James Barrett of this city. Prior to commencing operations Mr. Barrett cautioned him and suggested that he shore the excavation with timbers before he set to work. However, Mr. Geo. Weiland went down first and stated that in his opinion there was no danger, which remark was corroborated by Blood, who proceeded to trim the sides. He had hardly been working a couple of hours before the dirt caved in on him, burying the unfortunate man under ten feet of gravel and soil. The alarm was instantly raised and willing hands started to work to dig out the hapless victim. The body was eventually reached and raised to the surface at 11:50 a. m., when life was found to be extinct.

Enoch Blood was a well known young man of this city, having been born and reared here. He is a son of George Blood; was unmarried and his age was 22 years.

SWITCHMAN LOSES A LEG.

Misfortune of C. W. Wright at the Rio Grande Yards.

Charles W. Wright, of No. 812 West North Temple street, was the victim of a most serious accident at the Rio Grande Western yards today. Mr. Wright, about half past twelve o'clock, was engaged at has work when, by some means, he was thrown under the wheels where his left leg was horribly mangled from the foot to the knee. He was immediately taken to St. Mark's hospital where the limb was amputated just above the knee. Mr. Wright was doing as well as possible at a late hour this afternoon and he will, without doubt, recover.

JUDGE TIMMONY'S COURT.

When John Sorenson was told that the charge against him was drunkenness and asked if he was drunk, John said: "Let me see; was I? Well, yes, I think that's about right." The court thought so too, and John was given the choice of paying $3 or doing three days in the canyon.

The case against Annie Robinson, accused of the larceny of Mrs. Haddock's collarette was continued until tomorrow on motion of Diehl.

D. C. Reese, a plain Saturday drunk, was charged $3, but not having the necessary coin he will do three days up the canyon.

James Ryan, who confessed that he begged money or tried to beg money from a Herald reporter, was fined $50 for his folly.

I. Drenskred was convicted of begging on the streets and the court fined him $15 or fifteen days.

Jim Casey said he had just come from the road, got a little drunk. It was a Sunday drunk, and the customary fine of $5 was imposed.

Richard Bramley and Fred Cameron were accused of fighting. The latter said it was all his fault and the former said he was trying to get away from Cameron when arrested. He couldn't get away, said he, because he couldn't run fast enough. Bramley was discharged, while Cameron was assessed $20.

The case against Claus P. Madsen, accused of exhibiting a deadly weapon in a threatening manner, was continued until Thursday to allow the defendant time to hunt witnesses.

REMARKABLE ATTENDANCE.

Regiments of Children Take Possession of the Schools Today.

TEACHERS OVERWHELMED.

New Training School With All of Its Extra Room is Crowded to the Last Seat—At the Others.

Up to 4 o'clock this afternoon but one school in the thirty odd in this city—the Grant—had reported its enrollment during this, the opening day, to the office of Superintendent Cooper. This, however, told an eloquent story of the almost phenomenal interest taken. The registration there showed that 829 pupils had entered the school for the ensuing year. These figures will, it is known, be largely augmented tomorrow. The Washington school which is in the extreme northern section of the city about two miles distant from the Grant had an opening attendance today of 619. This is an extraordinary attendance when the fact is considered that last year's enrollment was but 983. One hundred and fifteen beginners were entered at this school alone.

But it remained for the new training school on the University grounds above the city to be completely overwhelmed. The figures of the attendances there had not been compelled at a late hour owing to the big crush of children who came as well as under the guidance of parents or guardians sought admission to its portals. It was feared a few days ago that owing to its remoteness from the center of the city that it would not be heavily patronized, but results today plainly showed how pleasing a mistake had been made in this particular. The heavy attendance is an unqualified endorsement of the effort to establish manual training, domestic science and nature study as branches of the regular course prescribed by the school authorities. It is a matter of general regret that many ambitious pupils will have to be denied entrance to this splendid institution of learning.

The principals of the various schools will this evening make report to Superintendent Cooper of today's enrollment immediately after which the returns will be tabulated and made ready for publication tomorrow.

PRIMARIES TONIGHT.

Republicans Will Assemble in Eighty-eight Districts to Name Delegates.

Salt Lake City and county Republicans are very much alive today preparatory to their primaries which will be held in the fifty-two districts of the city and the thirty-six of the county tonight, at which delegates will be chosen to the county convention which meets in the Salt Lake Theater on the 13th inst.

Precinct Conventions.

The Republican precinct conventions will be held in the city tomorrow evening for the purpose of nominating candidates for justices of the peace and constable. The conventions will be held at the following places:

First precinct—Annex Ninth ward meeting house.

Second precinct—Sixth ward meeting house.

Third precinct—Plymouth Congregational church.

Fourth precinct—Taggart's hall.

Fifth precinct—Republican county headquarters.

POLITICAL POINTERS.

As foreshadowed in Saturday evening's "News," Judge John W. Burton accepted the chairmanship of the State Democratic committee.

L. M. Earl of the efire department is actively at work to capture the county recordership nomination from the Republican convention.

The Republican primary for the Thirty-ninth district will be held at the residence of J. O. Nystrom, 180 C street, and not 180 Sixth street, as previously announced.

State Senator Aquila Nebeker, who was a candidate before the State Democratic convention for governor, was a caller at his party's headquarters this afternoon. The object of Mr. Nebeker's visit was to announce to Secretary Cohen that from this time on to election the committee could command his services as a speaker in any part of the State it desired.

John Davis, a well known Vernal Republican and mayor of that city, was a caller at the Republican State committee headquarters today.

Hon. Frank J. Cannon, visited the State Democratic headquarters yesterday afternoon and held a brief consultation with the Democratic leaders at which a brief outline of campaign work was considered. Senator Cannon returned to his home in Ogden last evening.

License Inspector John Halverson, who for the past two years has been employed in the office of City Treasurer Morris, says he has received many assurances of support for the nomination of assessor on the Democratic ticket and believes that he will carry off the plum.

Chairman Callister, of the Republican State committee, today announced meetings for J. Ellen Foster as follows: Kaysville, tomorrow evening; Salt Lake Theater with Senator Fairbanks, Wednesday evening; and Bountiful on Thursday evening.

MR. KEARNS ON NEW COAST ROAD

Tells the "News" What is Wanted from Salt Lake City.

PIONEER SQUARE FOR DEPOT

Five Hundred Thousand Dollars Will be Subscribed by Salt Lake Citizens—Big Meeting Soon.

For the third time within the past ten years a railroad company, that is to be organized with the intention of building through to Los Angeles, will ask the City Council to grant it the privilege of a franchise of right of way into this city and terminal facilities in the from the Old Fort Square on Third South. This time nothing further, it is said, will be asked of the city to secure the immediate construction of the proposed line from Salt Lake to southern California.

This news was brought to this city by Mr. Thomas Kearns on his return from the scene of the conference at Los Angeles, at which he was present. Mr. Kearns returned from Los Angeles on Saturday evening, and when seen today talked in an interesting strain in regard to the policy of the vast enterprise with which he is identified. Mr. Kearns is to be a resident director of the company which is to be formed.

He states that the new company will not be identified with any other company in southern Utah but will build right into the city over its own right of way without making connections in any shape or form with those lines that extend towards the Arizona line. Beyond this emphatic statement there is nothing particularly new upon the subject beyond that which has been already published. In the matter of the route to be taken nothing definite has as yet been decided. Mr. Kearns personally favors a line from Salt Lake southwest to Lincoln county and thence to Los Angeles. There are said to be nearly half a dozen routes under discussion, but that matter will be decided later when Senator W. A. Clark, Hon. R. C. Kerens, J. Ross Clark, T. E. Gibbon and others interested arrive in this city, which will be about the 18th inst.

THROUGH ST. GEORGE.

The route which is favored by Mr. Kearns is that which is known as the old Tiernan route which takes in the iron and coal districts of southern Utah, through St. George and down across the corners of Nevada and Arizona, into southern California. While this would be somewhat longer than the others under consideration (720 miles) it would tap the most important sources of supply and open up that rich and prolific mining district in southern Utah.

As soon as those immediately interested in the project arrive in this city the matter will be fully and finally canvassed and the big company duly floated and incorporated under the laws of Utah with a capital of $20,000,000, which is the estimated cost of the construction of the road, its terminals and equipment. The citizens of Los Angeles will be given the opportunity to subscribe for $1,000,000 of the securities While Salt Lake will be offered $500,000 of the same, but in no sense is this obligatory upon their part. There is no fear, however, of this amount not being subscribed for as it is understood that twice that amount could be secured here providing the public became satisfied that the project would be pushed to an issue without delay.

MR. KEARNS TALKS.

When seen this morning at his office Mr. Kearns stated that in order to accomplish this purpose quick action would be necessary and in the face of the short time that would be at the disposal of the people to make up their minds he thought it due to the public that they should be made acquainted with the full facts of the case as it now stood. He said:

"It is now up to the people of Salt Lake whether they will have their city for the terminus of this road through to the coast or let it give them the go by and go on to Ogden. If the Los Angeles & Salt Lake terminates in this city it will undoubtedly have the effect of bringing the Southern Pacific and other lines here and making it the railroad center of the West. We are working independent of any other road and those roads that are interested in the traffic of the coast will fight us tooth and nail. All we ask is that we get a right of way into this city, and a site near the heart of town, where we can erect our depots and put in our yards. If we have to be content with a proposition out in the suburbs we may build on to Ogden, but we want the terminus of the line to be right here in Salt Lake City.

We shall ask for three years in which to complete the line, but I have no hesitancy in stating that it will be finished in two years after the franchise which will be asked is granted. As a meeting of the incorporators will be held in this city on or about the 18th of this month, we would like to fully get the sentiment of the people upon the matter before that date in order that it will be in shape for presentation at the meeting. At the present time Senator Clark is upon the ocean on his way to New York, and just as soon as he lands no time will be lost and he will arrive in this city just as soon as steam can bring him."

In response to further questions Mr. Kearns stated that the enthusiasm in regard to the line was of a decidedly marked character in Los Angeles and he was surprised to find that as yet it had not been displayed in a similar degree in Salt Lake.

When questioned as to the amount of stock that would be required to be taken up in this city, he stated that nothing was asked beyond the terminal facilities and the franchise to approach the same. "Of course there will be some stock owned by parties in this city," he added as an afterthought, "but I am not prepared to state who will participate in it at the present time." When it was suggested that perhaps he would hold the major portion of the same he smiled and said "Well, I will hold a great big bunch for a little man like me."

The Los Angeles & Salt Lake road will enter Los Angeles over the rails of the Los Angeles Terminal railway, which already has 55 miles of line built, with eight locomotives and 171 cars in operation. This line runs south from Los Angeles to San Pedro, the harbor of southern California. It also has a forked line running north from Los Angeles, one to Verdugo and one to Attadena. The line from San Pedro to Los Angeles will form the first link in the road to Salt Lake and the line from Los Angeles to Pasadena the second. It can thus readily be seen that there are in the neighborhood of thirty-eight miles of the road now in operation.

For terminal facilities the Los Angeles end of the road has already sixty acres of land in that city, with forty acres of water front in San Pedro.

MORMONS ARE FAVORABLE.

Will Have an Authorized Representative at the Meeting This Month.

Mr. Kearns had a conference with a number of leading Mormons this afternoon and received assurances of substantial assistance in the enterprise. He was further informed that the Mormon people would have a duly authorized representative at the meeting that will be held on or about the 18th of this month to crystalize the big movement into an actuality and at which steps will be taken to incorporate under the laws of this State. There can be no question as to the genuine interest and support of Salt Lake citizens in the building of this road.

AMUSEMENTS.

Henry Miller and his company closed their immensely successful season here Saturday afternoon to a fair audience and Saturday night to an overflowing one. The receipts for the three engagements were close to $2,800. Mr. Miller left Salt Lake feeling very much depressd to spirits as his physician here, Dr. Lindsay, told him that it was extremely doubtful if his voice ever entirely recovered. It has been in its present condition for nearly ten weeks and the trouble is no doubt due to the strain put upon it by continuous playing in summer as well as winter. Mr. Miller is booked for five weeks more of "The Only Way," but it will not be surprising if he ends his engagement before the expiration of that time. His many friends here will be deeply interested to learn the outcome of the trouble.

NOTE.—325 prizes of Greenbacks and Gold will be paid for truthful letters regarding experience in coffee drinking. See statement in this paper Oct. 3, headed "More Boxes of Gold."

RIO GRANDES TOOK BOTH GAMES.

Defeated the Short Lines 12 to 4 Saturday, 14 to 4 Yesterday.

COULD NOT HIT THE BALL.

Tex Gierhart Fooled Them Saturday, and Dud Risley Kept Them Guessing Yesterday.

The Short Lines were unable to make much of a showing in Saturday's game with the Rio Grandes at Walker's field. The reason is accounted for by the fact that Tex Gierhart, although suffering from a very sore arm, pitched a superb game and Jimmy Clippinger's boys were unable to make connections with the ball. Tex did not pitch with any great speed but when the ball came sailing along and to the Short Liner at the bat, looked like a good one, he would smash at it and miss it about a foot. The next man up would hit the ball in the same place. Gierhart's work was so good that he even surprised himself.

Ed Kidder had an off day. He was speedy but some how he couldn't fool the Rios and the result was that eighteen hits stand to their credit. Kidder's support might have been much better. Tex Gierhart's support was A. 1. all the way through. While he gave a number of passes they counted for naught.

Risley and Shannon, the former at short, made a couple of pretty double plays. Ramey's work as umpire was very faulty at times and caused considerable disputation.

THE GAME YESTERDAY.

Clippingerites Fielding Was Ragged—Rio's Hit and Fielded Well.

When the Short Lines went into yesterday's game it was soon discovered by Pitcher Dan Taylor that it was Taylor vs the Rio Grandes. He had it all to do. His support was worse than no support. For five innings Taylor murmured not and then Kimerer took his place.

Risley pitched for the Rios and his work was better than he has done for many moons. The Shorts couldn't hit him a little bit, only eight were scored against him, while twice that number were got off Taylor and Kimerer. Here is the score in detail:

LOST ON AN ERROR.

Lobsters Won Second Game from Indians in the Ninth Inning.

It was a peculiar game at Pocatello Yesterday. The Indians had the game practically won in the ninth inning, when Harmon threw the ball wild to first, and the visitors scored three runs, changing the score from thirteen to ten in favor of the Pockies, to fourteen to thirteen the other way.

Cochrane, Ogden's new twirler, was battered all over the field, and the red men made eighteen hits. Here is the score:

Ogden	14	9	6
Pocatello	13	18	12

The Ogden baseball team feel sure of winning the championship of the Utah-Idaho league, and some of the members are already looking forward to a big celebration. The team now leads with a big percentage, and it is doubtful if they will ever be hauled down. Saturday and yesterday they defeated the Pocatellos. The Rio Grandes hold second place by defeating the Short Lines in two games.

LOBSTERS DOWN POKIES.

Score of Eleven to One Tells the Story.

The baseball team at Ogden, known as Lobsters, went to Pocatello Saturday and gave the nine that holds forth in that town a most unmerciful licking. They bunched hits on Lillies for six innings, while up to that time Hansford had allowed but few and those far between. At the end of the fray, however, hits were even.

Pocatello seemed to suffer the fate of the Short Lines in the matter of batting, and their base running was also very poor. Following is the score:

	R.	H.	E.
Ogden	11	12	2
Pocatello	1	12	7

Batteries—Hansford and Henry; Lillis and Kuran. Umpire—Higson.

The new men from the East expected by Manager Clippinger, of the Short Lines, will be here the latter part of this week.

Some of the U. of U. students are anxious to organize their football team immediately and not delay until school starts as they would then be a month behind, and that means a good deal of practice lost.

C. J. McFadden will very likely manage the High school Football team this season as he has decided not to go East. He is the choice of all the boys and as he understands football thoroughly, he may be depended upon to make the High school team one of the strongest in the city.

Tomorrow night there will be a meeting in the Y. M. C. A. rooms for the purpose of organizing football teams. C. S. Wilkes is at bottom of the movement and if a league can be organized he offers to award the best team a silver cup. If Ogden, Logan and Provo send representatives a State league may be organized.

McGinnity, Jones and Sheckard, three of the star players on the Brooklyn team, are considering permanently retiring from baseball next year. Hanlon has heard of their intention, but has not been notified by the players and looks askance upon the report. The loss of three such men is not to the liking of the manager of the champions. McGinnity says he is losing money in baseball, and will turn his attention next year to his iron interests at McAlester, I. T. Jones is a civil engineer and surveyor by profession, and will return to that work, while Shekard is anxious to study dentistry.
