FRAUDULENT.

THE Fourth Judicial district of Idaho was most fraudulently carried for the Free Silver Democratic candidate for Congress, Mr. Dubois, at the late election. The regular election of the Third district of Idaho, which is the portion of Idaho which is not polygamy ridden, was held on the same day as the Fourth district, and in the same manner. The Democratic candidate for Congress in the Third district, Mr. Hunt, was defeated by a majority of about 1,500 votes. The Fourth district, which is the polygamy ridden district, was carried for Dubois, the Free Silver Democratic candidate, by a majority of about 1,500 votes. The Third district returns were made in the regular way, and were not questioned by anyone. The Fourth district returns were made in a fraudulent manner, and were contested by the Republicans on the ground that they were fraudulent. The Democrats admitted that they were fraudulent, but claimed that they were made so by the Mormons, who, they said, had stuffed the ballot boxes in favor of the Republicans. The Democrats claimed that they had carried the district for Dubois, and that the Mormons had stuffed the ballot boxes in favor of the Republican candidate, Mr. Shoup, and that they had done so because Dubois was a Gentile and Shoup was a Mormon. The Republicans claimed that the Mormons had not stuffed the ballot boxes in favor of Shoup, but that the Democrats had done so in favor of Dubois, and that they had done so because Dubois was a Mormon and Shoup was a Gentile. The Republicans claimed that the Democrats had stuffed the ballot boxes in favor of Dubois because they had discovered that Dubois was a polygamist, and that they had stuffed the ballot boxes in favor of Dubois because he was a polygamist.
