discover them were ineffectual.

tongue and bided his time.

octagon-shaped china snuff-b x, ornamented the test of your reason and common sense. with ten minatures by Clinchste I, set in gold and rubies. No one knew its value so well as the jeweller, for it was one which had been Brolen from himself shortly before Prince Garagrin's visit Moreover, he knew, what few others did, that it had a secret spring by means of which all the minatures could be taken out of their sittings and their reve ses style peculiar to the reign of Louis XV. the box at 50,000 tranes, which was much greater then M. Teron expected. The jeweller, on the other hand, said it was probably worth even more, and made this proposal:

the box in an envelope, stating it to be my properly,-if it does not bri g more than 50,-000 francs, you shall have the rings for Lothing."

Gratified at the idea of being able to obtain the rings without opening his purse, M. Teron a notary, were sent f r, a d the invalid asked, "Who shall fix the price of the box?" "You, sir," said the jeweller; "I will lay a wag r that you will value it at 500,000 francs. Let me tell you in private, a circumstance connected with this box which will enable you to and Saddle Shop, on East Temple street. perceive its real value."

M. Teron, curious and anxious enough now, gave his consent, and the two referees retired.

Then the jeweller said: stolen from me, when I traded on the Boulevard des Italiens - a ew days before I was rebbed of 200,000 francs worth of diamonds by yourself, under the assumed name of Prince Garagrin. My evidence relative to the loss paid. of the box is on the records of the police. you now declare the box to be yours. I have already sworn that I purchased it at a public sale. The man who sold it to me is still alive. I know a secret about the box which will further prove my ownership-a s cret you have not discovered. Unless you fully repair all the wrongs you have done me, I shall at once have you arrested as a thief. I will give you five minutes to determine."

Within that time thus driven into a corner, a drawer in which he would find 300,000 francs | LL Ward, by A. P. WELCHMAN. in billets de banque, and signed a cheque for 200,000 francs more, payable at his banker's that same day. This done, the witn sses were recalled.

"Gentlemen," said the jeweller, exhibiting has become aware of the value of the box. in those committed to his care. He has purchased it back from me for five hundred thousand francs. Is it not so?" "Yes," sighed M. Teren, "I have given him that sum." "Then," said the jeweller, here is the box, and I will let you have the rings into the bargain. You may explain the mystery as you please. For my part, I promise eternal see 'esy."

in amaze and M. Teron in dismay. The notary was unable to keep silent, and the police even ually unravelled the mystery, though the jeweller faithfully observed his promise of secrecy. M. Teron, who was so immensely had been injured much with saddle; one of his hind feet rich as to leave three millions of francs to white up to fetlock joint; the hair of tall cut short his heirs, never recovered from the mortification of having been detected and compelled to refund with compound interest.

LOSS OF LIFE IN THE CRIMEAN WAR .-During the war in the Crimea, which lasted TATILL be taught by C. J. THOMAS, at his residence. uninterruptedly for two-years, the total number of French troops sent there at different times was 300 268, of whom 200,000 entered the ambulances and hospitals to receive medical aid, 50,000 for wounds, and 150,000 for diseases of various kinds. The total mortality was 69,229, or 23; per cent.; 16,320 of lightly, at the Globe bakery. these died of wounds, and nearly 53,000 from diseases, showing that three times as many died by disease as from wounds in battle.

THOUSANDTH ANNIVERSARY .- Next year | Walker Bros. in February last. will be the thousandth anniversary of the | As I shall shortly leave this Territory for England, to the occasion with one of their grand national diste payment. very magnificent, and the recent manumission the amount of their account with Mr. E. Crouch. of the serfs will give it a peculiar significance. 41-3 the servants were his except the valet de RULES FOR READING .- In the selection of chambre, who was the con ederate of "the books which you read, although mental relax-Prince." They had decamped without sus- ation is as necessary as bodily, do not devote picion at the door of the hotel. All efforts to yourself too much to those lighter works which will only encourage and strengthen im-The poor jeweller, near y ruined by this agination in its flights and dreams. Fancy is robbery, had to remove his much diminished a strolling player, whose vagrant course business to another part of Paris, where his should be checked and brought within the rule name was sunk in that of his partners. Many and line of discipline and system. But read years after, he received a message to one the best of the old and the best of the new, which all kinds of grain will be taken in exchange. Monsieur Teron, described as a gentleman the cream of both, with as little of the blue 44-6m holding an efficial situation, who desired to milk as possible; and even so you will be able purchase some rings. Ins ead of sending a to make yours If acquainted with only a cerk, he went himself, and was shown into slight sprinkling of the volumes the teeming a partially-lighted bed chamber, where, in the press is pouring forth day by day; and even invalid in bed, he rec gnized his old customer so you will be only like the p'oughboy at the the cidevant Prince Garagrin. The recogni- harvest-home feast who, when he had swaltion was not mutual, and the jeweller held his lowed so many good things that he had attention to business, I hope to merit a liberal share of brought himself to a state of surfeit, burst public patronage. From the rings exhibited, a few were into tears as the table was being cleared and selected to the value of 6,000 francs, and M. cried out, "there's a I that pudding left, and I Teron declaring that he not the means of pay- can't eat any more." And, in doing this, paying in cash, asked if the jeweller would ex- make yourselves the masters, not the slaves change against a curious old snuff-box, which of the books which you read, bringing all their he declared to be of great value. This was an contents before the bar of your judgment, and let. Any one wishing such a place would do well to ap-

General Notices.

W. F. ANDERSON, M.D., SURGEON AND PHYSICIAN.

OFFICE and Residence 13th Ward, two doors sou'h ef exhibited, on which were painted subjects treated, with admirab e skill, in the indelicate

Persons knowing themselves indebted to me for professional services for the last two, three and four Without any hesitation, the jeweller valued years, are respectfully invited to settle their accounts. All kinds of produce taken.

NOTICE.

MAME into my inclosure, about the 20th of December, U one six year old red COW, a square crop off the left "Take the r.n.s you have chosen, and put ear, branded H on left hip. The owner is requested to complete running order for the manufacture of Extra prove properly, pay charges and take her away.

THOMAS BECKSTED, West Jordan, Gardener's Mill.

STONE TURNING.

T AM prepared to turn stones for walls, pillars, graves and all kinds of ornamental work. I have constantly on hand at my place, north of the Lime Kiln, in the assented. Two of his neighbors, one of them | 20th Ward, and at R. Datts' store, on Main street, a good assortment of grind stones for sale. WM. WALKER.

> WANTED. A NY Amount of HIDES and SHEEP SKINS, for which good pay and a good price will be made by WM. HOWARD, at his Boot and Shoe and Harness MANTILLA, CLOAK AND DRESS MAKING. TISS ANNE MITCHELL solicits the patronage of IVI the ladies of this city in her business. Work executed by the prece at home, or by the day at the residence "Sixteen y ars ago, that snuff-box was or patrons. Address at Mr. W. C. Dunbar's, 20th Ward.

WANTED,

FEW well-bound oak BARRELS, at the L'quor Store, in this city, for which a liberal price will be

G. S. L. City, April 22, 1862

WEAVING. WILL weave Jesus, Linseys, &c., at my establishment in the 9th Ward, one block east of the Public Square, for all who may favor me with their patronage. THOMAS MORRELL.

TO RENT, GOOD, well watered FARM, consisting of sixty-five acres of grass and farming land, situated on the north line of Mill Creek Ward, four miles south of Salt Lake City, with dwelling-house, fruit trees, &c. For terms apply to the sub criber on the premises.

WM. BURROWS. M. Teron, who was really an invalid, handed A PERMANENT JUVENILE DAY SCHOOL Beaver Skins, and Lamb's Wool. his keys to the jeweller, and bade him open TTAS been opened in the School House of the 9th

Per Quarter, from $3 00 to $4 00

Per Month, 6: 1 20 66 1 40 This being designed as a strictly Juvenile School, Mr. Welchman hopes to have a more complete classification than is attainable in a school of mixed pupils, and therebank notes and check, "you see that M. Teron by to obtain a more satisfactory degree of advancement

A. P. WELCHMAN.

WHO HAS THE HORSE?

THE man that took up a large bay HORSE, eight years old, brand d U S on the left shoulder and

C U S on the left hir, about the 6th of October last near South Willow Creek (Drapersville), will The jeweller retired, leaving the witnesses | confer a favor on the owner by reporting to O. P Rockwell at the Point of the Mountain, or to G. D. Keaton at the Deseret News Office.

LOST.

A BOUT ten months ago, a light sorrel HORSE, ten A years old, with a white strip down his face; his back Was last seen in July, 1861, at Se sion's Settlement, porch in front of the house. going north. A reward of ten dollars will be paid by the owner for such information as will lead to the animal's STRAW, STRAW! recovery, to be left with Robt. L. Campbell, Historian's Office, G. S. L. City.

INSTRUMENTAL MUSIC

VV Main street, opposite the old Post Office, on Tuesday and Saturday evenings. String instruments, It prepared to make, clean, and alter every kind of from 7 to 8, and brass instruments from 8 to 9 o'clock. Terms-$15 per quarter; $5 in advance. Arrangements can be made for private lessons during | proved styles.

the day. Mu-ic arranged for Bands. Piano Fortes tuned. Orders received by Richard Go-

MISSIONARY NOTICE.

THE business carried on by J. M. BROWNE, of this city, and THEOPHILUS JONES, of Manchester, England, under the style or firm of "J. M. BROWNE STRAWBERRY PLANTS. & C.O., 37 was dissolved by the sale of Stock in Trade to foundation of the Russian Empire; and it is be absent fron two to four years, I hereby notify all stated that the Russians intend to celebrate persons having claims of any description against the above named firm, or myself, to present them for immeany persons not acquainted with his residence can leave BEST. J. M. BROWNE.

General Notices.

WOOD! WOOD! DIVE GALLONS of MOLASSES given per cord. G. B. WALLACE, 17th Ward. 3111

SALT: SALT!

FINE bolled SALT may be had at Mr. J SNEDAKER'S, 9.h Ward, G. S. L. City; also SALERATUS; for

COOPER-WARE.

BEG to inform the inhabitants of G. S. L. City and the public generally that I have commenced business at the premises lately occupied by Hailstone as a Meat Market, on East Temple Street, where I manufacture Casks, Wash Tubs, Churns, Buckets, and every article in my line of business. By good workmanship and sirici

All kinds of produce taken for pay. HENRY PERKES.

AMERICAN FORK.

HAVE a large building with water-power shafts and drums, all in operation, suitable for driving machinery for turning and machine manufacture; which is to ply immediately.

Any person having circular saws for cutting pickets, laths or shingles, or a good turning lathe to dispose of, Fancy Prints, various brands, will find sale for them by applying to the subscriber. All the wool in the machine rooms is carded; so can 4.4 Heavy Brown Sheetings, an take it home, and bring more, as we keep on carding.

NOTICE. THE teamsters sent from the General Tithing Office A in G. S. L City. to collect butter, eggs, etc., are

SAMUEL MULLINER.

Passengers without any luggage; four cents a mile. Freight; three dollars a hundred for each hundred miles; to be paid in advance or upon delivery.

BRIGHAM YOUNG, Trustee in T-nst.

IMPORTANT TO ALL. THE Subscribers, having rebuilt the Figuring Mill at I the Mouth of American Fork Kanyen, and which is in | m Superfine Flour, the inhabitants of Lehi, American Fork, Battlecreek, Mountainville and other settlements, can be accommodated with a choice article of flour and big turnouts at short notice.

As we have two Saw Mills we are prepared to fill bills DAN. R. ALLEN, 40-3m R. J. CUTLER.

NOTICE.

MATCHES! MATCHES! MANUFACTURE MATCHES in the 5th Ward, south of the School-house. General Depot at Henry E. Pheips', East Temple Street, nearly opposite Bishop Hunter's residence. N B. All Matches made and sold by me are warranted. 35 3m AMOS FIELDING.

HENRY MAIBEN, PAINTER.

TYOUSE, SIGN, CARRIAGE, and every description of PLAIN AND ORNAMENTAL

BAINTING.

Also, Glazing, Paper Hanging, etc., executed to order in a workmanlike manner. PAINT SHOP, on the East Side of East Temple

ECONOMISTS!

JOHN C. TATTON,

MANUFACTURER,

Second house east of Court House, 14th Ward,

ESPECTFULLY thanks his friends, and the public in general, for their extensive patronage, and wishes to assure them that he will continue to merit their future iavors by the sup-riority of his workmanship and the economy of his charges. Come and try. Liberal prices will be given for Wolf, Fex, Rabbit,

> LOOK HERE! Competition, the Spirit of Trade.

JOHN EVANS, TAILOR & SCOURER,

Second to none in Utah or the States, and Territory for past favors, and hopes by strict respectfully solicits a share of their patronage. attention to business to still merit a share of their patronage. Having nine years' experience in the States and

Utah, he is now prepared to clean clothes at the following Low Prices: Cleaning suit of clothes - - - $2 50 pantaloons - - - 0 75 satio, velvet, or cloth vests - 0 50 dress frock or overcoat - - 1 50

Warranted free from grease, spots or paint. Cutting done on reasonable terms. Old Stand, three doors north of Hawkins' Tin Store, west side of East Temple Street, 1 ith Ward. 35-3m

THE LADIES.

MRS. COLEBROOK

PEGS to announce to her friends in Salt Lake City I and its vicinity, that she is now carrying on her business in the MILLINERY and DRESS-MAKING, at her own residence, first house north of Prest. Kimball's, SEASON OF 1862.

MRS. C. H. SAVAGE

DESPECTFULLY announces to her patrons that she is Straw, Tuscan, Leghern, and Panama HATS and EON-NETS for Gents, Ladies and Children, in the most ap-

An assortment of Braids on hand. Fancy Straw Bonnels made to order. TERMS EASY.

near the School House.

PRIZE

PLANTS of the WILSON'S ALBANY and VICOM-religious festivals. The spectacle at St. I have appointed Mr. James Hunter, 13th Ward, Agent which received the first prize in 1861, will be sold at for wool or produce. Petersburg and Moscow v. ill doubtless be to receive all accounts due to "J M. Browne & Co.; and $5 for 100, or $30 per 1000 this spring These are THE

T. W. ELLERBECK, Great Salt Lake City. General Notices.

CLOSING OUT! CLOSING OUT!!

CHUSIUSSUOUITUSE NIS

CASH BUYERS.

TAVE determined to sell out their splendid STOCK

STAPLE

LOW FOR CASH,

Consisting in part of

Hickory and Denims, Cottonades and Satinets, Bleached, X Bar, and Jaconet Muslins, at liberty, at their discretion on their outward trips, to Irish Linen and Linen Sheetings, Hosiery, Trimmings, and Notions, Ladies' and Gents' Boots and Shoes,

A fine lot of First-class

Hardware and House Trimmings.

Spices, Tobacco, Enuff, Fruit, &c., &c. To persons making a wholesale purchase a liberal discount will be given.

WE ARE DETERMINED TO SELL! TRY US!

Have just received from CALIFORNIA, a good supply of STAPLES, among which are

DOMESTICS, HICKORY, &c., and expect in a few days a prime lot of DVE-STUFFS,

Crockery, Window Glass, G. D. Caps, Brass Kettles, Grass Scythes, &c., Not forgetting

MILL SAWS AND FILES. Now is your time to make purchases. 44-11

W MAVING PACTORY

GEORGE BONELLI, 19th Ward. DEING supplied with some of the most approved style of Looms. I wish to inform the public that I am prepared to execute all kinds of WEAVING at short

Wool bought or worked up on shares. Cioth exchanged for wool, rolls, etc., efc. 41-3m

WRI. II. MILLES.

OF NEW YORK CITY,

INFORMS his friends and the public generally, that he I has commenced the manufacture of BRUSHES.

DETURNS thanks to the in abitants of G. S. L. City in Goddard's Building, opposite Grenig's Bakery, and Brushes exchanged for Bristles or Horse Hair.

GREAT INDUCEMENTS

CASH BUYERS.

KIMBALL & LAWRENCE Wish to announce to the citizens of Utah that they have recently made large purchases of which, added to their former Stock, make it the largest and be t assertment now offered in the Territory, which will be sold at their usual

MERCHANDIZE,

LOW PRICES.

We have 250 Cases of BOOTS and SHOES, which we are selling at COST and TRANSPORTATION. KIMBALL & LAWRENCE. Feb. 10. 1862.

PEOPLE OF DESERET, READ THIS!

SHELMERDINE

DEGS to inform the Public, that if they really feel 1) determined to encourage Home Manufactures, let hem bring their Beaver, Wolf, Fox, Rabbit and other FURS to his

MANUFACTORY,

House, two doors north of Bishop Sharp's, 20th Ward, on Emigration Street, two and a half blocks east o' East Temple Street, and get in exchange good Home-made HATS of the best quality. JAMES SHELMERDINE, Hatter. 34-67

HOME SPUN.

FETHE Subscriber begs to inform Wool Carders and A others that is prepared to work, on shares, WOOL into Jeans, Linseys, Carce, Blankets, Sheets, Petticoats, Shawls, or any kind of cloth that can be made in the Territory. He will also exchange cloths of every kind

A few good SPINNERS wanted. THOMAS LYON, Two Blocks east and one Block north of bishop Sharp.