CHINAMAN GOT WRATHY

Sam Lee Accused of Housebreaking Says the Witness Lied.

THOUGHT THE PROSECUTOR WAS JEALOUS

Defendant Adjudged Guilty. Mrs. Black Alleges Cross Cruelty on the Part of Her Husband.

The trial of Sam Lee, a Chinaman, on a charge of housebreaking, commenced before Judge Powers, and a jury, today, with Deputy County Attorney Graham F. Pierce, prosecuting and Judge George P. Hawley and Mr. Lee, as defendant's counsel.

Mr. Lee is an intelligent speaker. He, when, yesterday, a full complaint of Mr. Pierce, he entered the house of Mr. Wilkins Dee on South West Temple, in the day time on the 25th of August, and, during the time of fifty cents, the residence of Dee, in spite of the protestations of the Chinaman, he did not, however, deny the charge, but he said he took the money, for several months, he was a school boy, and he had no money, and he was in the habit of taking it from the money drawer, and he was in the habit of taking it from the money drawer, and he was in the habit of taking it from the money drawer
