An Experiment to be Made With Padded Stock Cars.

A PROTRACTED PROSPECTING TRIP.

The Expenses of An Insane Asylum.—After "Rebel George."—A Potato Warehouse to be Erected.

A band of wild mountain goats, some forty in number, are constantly seen on the high mountain peaks near Kennedy, Nevada.

The voting in Butte, Mont., for a state flower has closed with the following result: Bitter root, 1701; dogtooth violet, 2; wild yampa flower, 4; Mariposa lily, 8; evening primrose, 2.

The case of ex-Chief of Police Emil Harris and C. D. Platt, charged with unlawful use of the mails in sending letters demanding hush money to E. E. Crandall, a retired hardware merchant, in connection with his divorce from his wife, is under investigation at Los Angeles, Cal.

The Butte (Mont.) Miner says: Ed O'Donnell and an unknown engaged in a rough and tumble fight last night in Main street, near the corner of Park, and for a few minutes rolled each other in the mud until they had not about all semblance to human beings. Officer Farrell arrested them. Both were pretty badly used up.

The trustees of the Agnew Insane Asylum at San Jose, Cal., want an appropriation of $271,400 from the next legislature, and in the biennial report to the governor, which was adopted at the meeting on Tuesday, it is said that this is the most the asylum can be conducted for in the next two years, it being on a basis of 40 cents per capita per day for each of the 950 patients.

A number of residents in and around Fort Laramie about 100 miles north of Cheyenne, near the junction of the Laramie and North Platte rivers, report great devastation by grasshoppers. They have eaten the grass for miles, and the crop of hay will be very short. They appear, however, to be gradually leaving the neighborhood, but the damage already done is very great.

It has leaked out that Oregon officers are at Seattle, Wash., after W. H. Knowlton, alias "Helmi George," alias "Robert Rae," now in Folsom prison, in case of which he is acquitted of swindling Banker Wooding of Aberdeen out of $5,000 by the "gold brick" game. It is claimed that Knowlton played the same trick for a like amount on J. W. Shute, president of the First National Bank at Hillsboro, Or.

Pat Rock, says the Boise, Idaho, Statesman, who is in the capital from Silver City, tells of a rich strike made a few days ago at Silver City by Arthur Neal, the discoverer of Neal district, and his partner. They discovered a large ledge of free milling gold ore, assays from which run into the thousands. The strike created no little excitement in Silver City, all the available ground in the vicinity of the discovery being located with a rush.

The Cutler, located on Raven hill at Cripple Creek, Colo., was sold on Wednesday by the owners, Cohen & Robinson, of Canon City, to A. A. McKnight, I. H. Story and Charles Morris. The consideration is $75,000. A large cash payment was made and the balance is in one year's time. Considerable ore has been shipped from this property, and it is equipped with a commodious shafthouse and a good steam hoisting plant. The new owners will work the mine vigorously.

A potato warehouse is being erected at Berthoud, Colo. The building will be a substantial pressed brick structure, with stone foundation and basement walls, 35x60 feet in dimensions, and built expressly for the handling of the potato product of that section of country. Work will be rapidly pushed and it is hoped to have the building completed by October 1st at latest. The enterprise is in the hands of a stock company.

E. J. Bell, of Laramie, Wyoming, will try an experiment with padded stock cars. The scheme proposed is for the protection of fat cattle, and consists in the padding of the cars so that the cattle will not become bruised by contact with the sides of the cars incident to their transit to market. The Union Pacific railway company has given Mr. Bell forty cars with which to experiment, and a force of men are now at work fitting them up. Stockmen believe that the experiment will prove a success.

A HEREFORD BULL.

Vide Costy Haired White Face for a Beauty, No Mistake.

The picture represents the bull at the head of a Hereford herd at Plattsburg, Mo. He is registered in the Hereford herdbook as Herod II, 45,678. The original drawing was made by Mr. Cecil

CURLY HAIRED SUNFLOWER.

Palmer for The Breeder's Gazette, from which the illustration is copied. Herod II is a famous prize winner.

Herod's coat would make a handsome sleigh or carriage robe. It is so thick and wavy. This is one of the most perfect beef bulls ever seen among the beautiful Herefords. He would make a gold medal for one of Rosa Bonheur's paintings. He would do for one of the sacred Assyrian bulls upon the ancient sculptures.

He weighs 2,100 pounds. It is hard to see how more meat could be carried upon four legs as short as his. Here for the differentiation of the new species he been brought to breeding sure to judged if Herod were to be compared with one of the old fashioned wild Texas steers.

Easy.

Blue—You are always talking about the fashions. Do you think that you would know the latest fashions in hats if you were to enter a millinery?

Blue—Certainly.

Blue—How?
