IMPORTANT TO THE TRAVELER—SEE FURTHER.

It is the duty of all persons before starting on a journey to ascertain by what route they can reach their destination with the least trouble, and if there are two or more roads leading to the same point, to decide which is the safest and pleasantest to travel.

We take pleasure in stating, that the CHICAGO & NORTH-WESTERN RAILWAY is the oldest, and several miles the shortest, route between Omaha and Chicago. Within the past two years the road has been put in admirable condition, and almost the entire line has been re-laid with steel rails.

The Depot in Chicago is central in location, and as their trains arrive there thirty minutes in advance of all other lines, passengers can always be sure of making Eastern connections.

Close connections are made at Chicago with the Lake Shore & Michigan Southern, Michigan Central, Baltimore & Ohio, Pittsburg, Fort Wayne & Chicago, Kanaback Line and Pan Handle routes, for all points EAST and SOUTH-EAST.

If you are going to Chicago, or East, you should, by all means, purchase your tickets the Old Pioneer Route.

The Chicago and North-Western.

You will find on all through trains Pullman Sleepers, new and magnificent Day Coaches, and the best Smoking and Second Class Cars now on any road in the United States.

Particular information with respect to time tables, etc., may be had at any of the Through Ticket Offices in the West, or upon personal written application to J. W. Jones, Ticket Agent, Salt Lake City, A. H. Earl, Ticket Agent at Ogden, or to J. H. Mountain, Western Traveling Agent, Omaha, Neb., or to W. H. Stennett, General Passenger Agent, Chicago.

CHEAPER THAN EVER!

In order that we may be enabled to dispose of our stock of Summer Goods before the season is over, we have made a great reduction in prices. Parties desiring to purchase will consult their interest and save 25 per cent. by calling on

Local and Other Matters.

Thermometer 94 degrees F in the shade at 1 p.m. to-day. Fine.

The Jury Disagree.—A dispatch from Beaver, received on Saturday night, states that the jury failed to agree on a verdict, and were discharged at five o'clock that afternoon.

The jury stood five for acquittal and three for conviction.

Sudden Death.—It is our painful duty to-day, to announce the death of Bishop William Miller, first counselor to President A. O. Smith, of this State of Zion, who died at his residence in this city, last evening at 7.30 p. m. — Provo County Times, Aug. 7.

Analysis of the Constitution.—From John M. Coyer, M. A., we have received a copy of an "Analysis of the Constitution of the United States," conceived, planned and arranged by himself, and entered according to Act of Congress, in the office of the Librarian of Congress, in 1871.

It is a very ingenious chart, besides being exceedingly useful, enabling a person with ease and readiness to find any section or portion of the instrument bearing on any desired subject within its scope.

A Daring Theft.—This morning a man giving the name of John Lee was before Justice Pyper on a charge of stealing the horse and buggy of Mr. Wm. H. Folsom. The evidence showed that while the animal and vehicle were standing on the street, in front of the Mattheeson Block, on Saturday evening, Lee untied the horse, jumped into the buggy and drove away.

On discovering his loss Mr. Folsom sent a young man, named James Garrett, after the thief on horseback. The pursuer caught the pursued at Little Cottonwood, and the latter was brought back to town and lodged in jail. The buggy was damaged through being tipped over by the thief in his haste to get clear of pursuit.

The evidence was conclusive and the accused was held in bonds of $500, to await the action of the next grand jury, and in default to stand committed.

Obsequies.—The obsequies of the late Elder Joseph A. Young were conducted yesterday forenoon, at the residence of President Brigham Young, and were attended by a numerous assemblage of people—the relatives and friends of the deceased.

The singing exercises were conducted by Brother C. J. Thomas and choir.

The opening prayer was offered by President Joseph Young.

The assemblage was addressed by Elders John Taylor, Lorenzo D. Young and Joseph Young, all of whom testified to the many noble qualities of the deceased, the discourses being also replete with excellent instruction to every listener.

The closing prayer was offered by Elder John D. McAllister, when the remains of the deceased were conducted to the private burying ground of President Brigham Young and laid in their last resting place, in presence of several hundreds of people.

Election Returns.—Transcript of Election Returns from Sevier Co., as per official report to Secretary of Utah Territory, August 6th, 1875.

WM. MORRISON, County Clerk.

County Clerk's Office, Richfield, Sevier Co., U. T., Aug. 6th, 1875.

An Abstract of the Returns of General Election held on Monday, the 2nd day of August, A. D., 1875, as polled in the several precincts of Sevier county, Utah Territory, showing the number of votes recorded for following territorial officers, viz:—

Councillor to Legislative Assembly, Joseph A. Young received 423 votes.

Harmon Christiansen received 28 votes.

University Land Commissioner, John Van Cott received 482 votes.

John Rowberry - 403 votes.

Lewis S. Hills - 483 votes.

I, William Morrison, Probate Clerk of Sevier County, do hereby certify that the foregoing is a true and correct statement, as exhibited by the returns made to my office, and examined by Mr. Thurber, selectman, and myself.

As witness my hand and seal of the Probate Court, this 5th day of August, 1875.

WM. MORRISON, Probate Clerk and ex officio County Clerk.

Accidentally Drowned.—About one o'clock yesterday afternoon Thomas Hickey, a young man about twenty-eight years of age, was accidentally drowned in the river Jordan, near Pettit's place.

The deceased, and seven other young men were engaged in fishing and other sports, when the drowning occurred. Four of the young fellows had pushed off into the river in a boat, leaving Thomas Hickey and Ephraim Pettit on the bank. These two sat jocularly that they were not going to be left in that way, threw off their coats and vests and plunged into the stream. Those who were in the boat were afraid the two young men would be pushed off and kept pushing them from them, when at last one Hickey called to Pettit to save him or he would drown. Pettit seized him by the hair of the head and held him up for some distance, but, becoming exhausted himself, was obliged to let go and the young man immediately sank and was drowned. Those who were in the boat, when they realized the situation, went to the assistance of Pettit and rescued him.

The body of deceased was recovered about four hours after the occurrence of the accident.

The parents and other relatives of Thomas Hickey reside over Jordan, a short distance from the city. He was employed at the slaughterhouse of Mr. Philip Knottbyer. The funeral was to take place this afternoon, at the residence of the brother-in-law of deceased, in the 10th Ward.

An inquest was held over the body to-day by Coroner Taylor and a jury, the verdict being in accordance with the facts.

Deceased was born in Berks Co., Pa., and was brother to Mr. William Hickey, late conductor on the Utah Southern Railroad.

Personal.—We were called upon to-day by James H. Mountain, Esq., the gentlemanly Western Traveling Agent of the Chicago and North Western Railway.

Death of Ex-Bishop Miller.—Ex-Bishop William Miller, of Provo, died rather suddenly in that city, on Friday evening. We are informed that during the fore part of that day he was in the harvest field, where he drank rather freely of ice water, and was suddenly attacked with illness, which terminated his life in a few hours. We understand he had been ailing for a few days previous.

Funeral Services.—The funeral services of the late Elder Amos Fielding, who died suddenly last Thursday evening, were held at the 6th Ward Schoolhouse at noon, on Saturday. Among those on the stand were Elders Orson Pratt, of the Twelve, and Elders L. W. Hardy, W. H. Hicklenlooper and Thomas Taylor. There was a large attendance of people and Elder Pratt delivered a very instructive discourse on the occasion.

The following data of his history were handed in this morning:—

The late Elder Amos Fielding was born in the town of Bolton, Lancashire, England, on the 10th day of July, 1792. He emigrated to America, with his father's family, in 1811, where he remained for some years, after which he returned to England, settled down and married. He was among the first to embrace the gospel in the British Isles, as revealed through Joseph Smith in this dispensation, being baptized in the Fall of 1837, soon after the arrival of the Elders in England. Shortly after his baptism he was ordained an Elder, and was one of the first home missionaries that went forth, laboring for some time in the north of England. He assisted to charter some of the first ships that sailed westward, Latter-day Saints. Subsequently he was captured in company with Elder Parley P. Pratt, emigration agent, and while he occupied this position he performed several journeys across the sea on church business. His wife, one of the two persons that were permitted to leave Nauvoo to attend the trial of the murderers of Joseph and Hyrum Smith, in Carthage. He left England for the last time in the Spring of 1851. He remained in the States until the year 1854, when he started for this place, arriving in the Fall of the same year, where he remained up to the time of his death.

There was one thing that was very remarkable in his character. He was a firm supporter and practical teacher of the Word of Wisdom from the time it was first taught in England, having never tasted tea or coffee for over thirty-six years, nor any intoxicating drinks for some years before that time.

Spelling exercises should be written, and it should be made a perceptive study. States must be used in teaching primary classes, as the letters are learned by the printed and written methods.

Advanced Grammar by J. R. Park. He would direct it of its Latin technicalities in the commencement of a course of studies. He illustrated his method of teaching analysis.

John M. Coyer delivered a very able lecture on Civil Government, which presented lack of time precluded the possibility of our noticing in detail.

Captain Witherell exhibited a box of school currency, published by Barker & Co., New York. He explained its uses and urged its adoption by teachers.

2 p. m.—It was resolved, on motion, to adopt Webster's dictionary as the standard for spelling and pronunciation, in our schools.

The following were admitted as members of the Institute: Salt Lake Co.—Hyrum Lemmon, Jessie Clayton, J. Witherell, E. W. Pierce, Ellen Foxon, Hannah Davison, Rosa Atwood, J. G. Midgley, Davis Co.—William S. S. Lewis, Tooele Co.—James Ure, Weber Co.—H. C. Wardleigh. Total, 131.

Another Veteran Gone.—We learn that Elder Alphonso Green, aged 65 years, an old and respected member of the church, who kept a kind of half-way house between Lehi and American Fork, died there on Friday morning.

Theatre.—The Theatre will be re-opened on Thursday evening by Mr. E. B. Marden. Stage manager, Mr. W. T. Harris. Miss Jennie Lee, of San Francisco, appears in six characters, and Mr. J. B. Burnett in three, in the play of "May Blossom."
