OGDEN.

OGDEN, UTAH, - JULY 3, 1896.

Justice Jots.

The California delegates, eighteen in number, to the Chicago Democratic convention, arrived this morning. Five hundred dollars was appropriated to defray the expenses of the delegates from Salt Lake this morning. The two Democrats left for Chicago over the Union Pacific, to be joined by the Mormon delegates at Omaha.

Suit has been filed against W. C. Warren by the German Savings & Loan society for the foreclosure of various mortgages for the security of $20,000. The complaint alleges that the property is not worth more than $25,000 and prays for judgment.

There will be excursion starters for the 50 mile foot race on the Fourth. The start will be at 5 p. m. from the corner of Twenty-seventh and Washington Avenue, to the Hot springs arrivals. Two high grade bicycles are among the prizes.

The several Fourth of July committees have about completed their arrangements and indications are that a most enjoyable time will be had at Ogden's Fourth of July celebration.

A large crowd came in from the north this morning and went down to Salt Lake.

PROVO.

PROVO, UTAH, - JULY 3, 1896.

CRIMINAL LIBEL.

John C. Graham and James Clove Charged with Libeling Henry Sweeney.

The following complaint was filed in Justice De Moisy's court yesterday afternoon:

State of Utah vs. John C. Graham and James Clove.—On this 2nd day of July, A. D. 1896, personally appeared before me, Charles De Moisy, a justice of the peace in and for Provo precinct, Utah county, State of Utah, J. S. Peery, who being by me first duly sworn on his oath did say that John C. Graham and James Clove, on the first day of July, A.D. 1896, at Provo precinct, Utah county, state of Utah, the said John C. Graham being then and there the author, proprietor and managers of a daily newspaper called the Daily Enquirer, printed and published in Provo City, Utah county, Utah, with a general circulation in said city and county, and the said James Clove being then and there the editor of said newspaper aforesaid, maliciously, wrifully and maliciously contriving and intending to willfully and defame and to impeach the honesty, integrity, virtue and reputation of J. S. Peery, H. T. Reynolds and J. O. Bullock, and expose them to public hatred, contempt and ridicule, did on the said 1st day of July, 1896, at the precinct and county aforesaid, maliciously, willfully and maliciously print and publish in the said daily newspaper, The Daily Enquirer, aforesaid, a certain false, scandalous, malicious and defamatory libel of and concerning said J. S. Peery, H. T. Reynolds and J. O. Bullock, in words and figures following, that is to say:

"The county board made an appropriation of $50 today outside of its regular sitting, presumably to assist Delegate Thurman to get to the Chicago convention."

The said J. S. Peery, H. T. Reynolds and J. O. Bullock being then and there the duly elected, qualified and acting members of the board of county commissioners of Utah county, and thereby charging that the said J. S. Peery, H. T. Reynolds and J. O. Bullock, maliciously, wrongfully, corruptly, feloniously as the board of county commissioners of Utah county appropriated the public money of Utah county for an unlawful purpose, that is to say thereby falsely, maliciously, willfully and maliciously charging the said J. S. Peery, H. T. Reynolds and J. O. Bullock, the board of county commissioners aforesaid, with appropriating public moneys of Utah county for the purpose of paying the expenses of one Thurman, meaning thereby Samuel R. Thurman of Provo City, Utah, and meaning thereby that said Thurman was to be a delegate to the Democratic national convention, the said board of county commissioners having then and there under the law no authority to apply public moneys to assist said Thurman or any other person to get to the Chicago convention, and thereby maliciously, willfully, maliciously and falsely charging the said J. S. Peery, H. T. Reynolds and J. O. Bullock with dishonesty, malfeasance and nonfeasance in public office, and thereby maliciously, falsely and maliciously charging the said Thurman, meaning thereby Samuel R. Thurman of Provo City, Utah, with unlawfully and fraudulently obtaining the public money of Utah county for a purpose not authorized by law, to the great scandal and injury of the said J. S. Peery, H. T. Reynolds and J. O. Bullock and Samuel R. Thurman, contrary to the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace and dignity of the State of Utah. Signed J. S. Peery. Subscribed and sworn to before me this 2nd day of July, 1896. Chas. De Moisy, Justice of the Peace for Provo precinct.

The Enquirer last evening contained, editorially, an explanation of the article referred to in the above complaint, which we reproduce. It had been misunderstood, and there was no intention of charging that the appropriation was not proper, but merely to call attention to the fact that it was not made at a regular meeting of the board of county commissioners.

Lou C. Lowry of Payson was arrested and went down this afternoon. The complaint charged trouble, defendant is an old man about 70 years of age, and plaintiff is about twenty years younger. When remonstrated with by the police he acted as if he thought it was a joke, and would not promise to let plaintiff have the control of property she asked for, and would not promise the same, and it seems as though he had changed his mind.

Wm. G. Morrison vs. N. C. Stevens, transferred to Sevier county, sixth district.

State of Utah vs. George Harper et al, appeal from Justice De Moisy's court on a charge of disturbing the peace, dismissed for the term.

Margaret Tyler vs. James Swanney, continued for term.

In the divorce case of Sarah A. Green vs. Harry Green, yesterday argued and taken under advisement, decision is given and decree for plaintiff, each party to pay her and her own costs.

Myrtle Davis was granted a divorce from Jim O. Davis, by default.

Nannie Fork City vs. Lake Shore Irrigation Co. et al, mandatory injunction, order entered to execute decree of the supreme court.

Wm. Harrison vs. Hannah Price, action commenced on motion of defendant's counsel on the ground that the complaint did not state facts sufficient to constitute a cause of action, and the case was dismissed without prejudice.

District Court.

The following business was transacted in the Fourth district court yesterday:

Jacob E. Cook was arraigned on an information charging him with committing the crime of abortion. He took till July 6th to plead.

In the case of Hyde Bingham vs. Albert Singleton, by stipulation time to prepare statement on motion for a new trial was extended till May 25th.

W. F. Dewey vs. D. G. W. Ry. Co., was set for July 21st.

In the matter of the estate of John A. Miller, deceased, Fannonia Miller, executrix, showed to mortgage real estate in order to raise money to pay court costs.

Angry Commissioners.

The following is a [illegible] Wednesday in the Enquirer: "Resolutions were adopted by the county commissioners of Utah county, at their regular session, yesterday, to assist Delegate Thurman to get to the Chicago convention." The board of county commissioners did very much approve, after the meeting of the whole evening, that it outweighed all other in the liberality of their appropriations, and unanimously, for the reason that the minutes of the session, published in the same issue of the paper states that $50 was given Thurman and Wedgwood on account. This is necessarily the same $50, referred to as being appropriated "presumably to assist Delegate Thurman to get to Chicago," at least that is the only $50 appropriated, and that was appropriated on account of services in the case of the State vs. Harry Hayes, as shown on the minutes of the board. Judging from the indignation of the commissioners it will come as the liberality of the commissioners, and the unanimity, for the reason that the minutes of the session, published in the same issue of the paper states that $50 was given Thurman and Wedgwood on account. This is necessarily the same $50, referred to as being appropriated "presumably to assist Delegate Thurman to get to Chicago," at least that is the only $50 appropriated, and that was appropriated on account of services in the case of the State vs. Harry Hayes, as shown on the minutes of the board. Judging from the indignation of the commissioners it will come as a surprise to them to learn that it will be the result of the publication, provided legal advice is to the effect that the criminal officers have a case.

Notes and Personals.

Alex. S. Annis of Weston, Wisconsin, returned to Provo Tuesday. He lived here about three months, previous to last March, having come west for the benefit of his health. Being a subscriber to the Enquirer while here, he wrote to the editor of the paper from his home, believing he had been cured, but was again seized with an attack of the complaint which he brought home in better attitude. He has now come to remain home permanently.

Elder Edson Harvey was 90 years of age last Tuesday. He celebrated, grandchildren and great-grandchildren to the number of fifty assembled at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Alex. Wilkins of the Second Ward to honor of the event, and enjoyed a very pleasant evening. The venerable old gentleman is jovial and busy for his years, and enjoy taking over the early scenes of the Church with which he is well acquainted.

The county commissioners held a session Wednesday to which they exacted a bounty on insects on trees, to go into effect fifteen days from the time of its enactment. Five cents a dozen will be paid for sparrows' eggs, one cent each for sparrows and ten cents each for jackrabbits, crows, fish hawks, loons, squawks and hair snakes.

The Utah county people interested are not satisfied with the decision of the Supreme court in the case of Salt Lake City vs. Coleridge et al. They claim that the decision gives the canal companies all they asked for, which the owners of land for setting on Utah Lake claim will work great hardship to them.

The Rio Grande Western Railway company is still waiting on the Provo canal to the Power Dam company in Provo canyon. The railway company will be served with a notice to desist, which, if not complied with, will be followed by a suit for trespass.

The Black Hawk veterans will hold their annual campfire this year at the Grand hotel, near Provo City, on August 19th, 20th and 21st.

Hon. S. H. Thurman left for Salt Lake over the Rio Grande Western last evening to join the delegates to the Democratic convention in Chicago.

Superintendent Welty of the Rio Grande Western came down from Salt Lake last evening, and registered at the Hotel Roberts.

James Richards, aged 61, and Hannah Smith, aged 23, both of Pleasant Grove, have received a marriage license.

The Provo Woolen mills have closed for a few days to make some repairs on the machinery.
