EXHIBITION OF HISTORIC RELICS

State Historical Society Makes Display at the Knutford.

DONATIONS ARE INVITED.

Lists of Ancient, Curious and Interesting Specimens that May Now be Viewed by the Public.

The Utah Historical society has now in exhibition in the rotunda of the Knutford many of the articles stored away in the society for the information and enlightenment.

The society desire to give access to all the people of the State, and particularly to the pioneers, Utah, and relics of early days to be found in the articles of historical value that the owners may be willing to bequeath to the society, will be taken care of and preserved for the benefit of the public and future generations. The society has been given the use of one of the best rooms in the city and only waiting for the donations. Articles received will be kept in the Hall with nothing their existence and public access from time to time. Donors will receive full credit for articles donated. The pioneers and others who have rare articles in their possession are cordially invited to place them on exhibition and be benefited by their existence, and when they will, be beyond the danger of destruction by fire or other accidents.

All communications may be addressed to Mrs. F. D. Richards, president of the society, or to Mrs. Richards's office, Salt Lake City.

The following are now ready for public inspection:

BELLS TO BE EXHIBITED.

Chiming bell used in the pioneer factory made in 1861, presented by Pioneer Evira P. Mills Cox, Fairview, Sanpete county, Utah.

Hand-bell, used on the pioneer factory, presented by Pioneer Eliza Pinkham, Mount Pleasant, Sanpete county, Utah.

Dinner bell used in the pioneer factory, presented by Pioneer Mary Ann Pinkham, Mount Pleasant, Sanpete county, Utah.

Dinner bell used in the pioneer factory, presented by Pioneer Mary Ann Pinkham, Mount Pleasant, Sanpete county, Utah.

Dinner bell used in the pioneer factory, presented by Pioneer Mary Ann Pinkham, Mount Pleasant, Sanpete county, Utah.

Dinner bell used in the first school-house in Salt Lake City, presented by Pioneer Mary Ann Pinkham, Mount Pleasant, Sanpete county, Utah.

Dinner bell used in the pioneer factory, presented by Pioneer Mary Ann Pinkham, Mount Pleasant, Sanpete county, Utah.

Chiming bell used in the pioneer factory, presented by Pioneer Mary Ann Pinkham, Mount Pleasant, Sanpete county, Utah.

Dinner