MAY YET GO OUT ON THE STRIKE.

A Tie-up in the West Shore and Fitchburg Yards Determined Upon.

EXTRACTS

From Depew's Address in 1887 On the Subject of Organizations.

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., Aug. 23.—Superintendent Wade of the Vandalia system, in his office today overhauling the books and papers which not only bear on the threatening general strike on the Vanderbilt system, but he is compelled to look after his works as regards the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen. An Associated Press correspondent called at Sargent's home this afternoon and Sargent was as stuck as usual. He had carefully read Cowdery's letter to Webb, received last night. While Sargent would not express any opinion as to the action that the council would follow on the report of the committee, yet he freely expressed himself about Cowdery's course. He said:

"I believe Cowdery's stand. Cowdery gave Webb in the position which he occupies and which, when the public fully understands it, will convince it that Webb is wrong.

"Webb's position is directly opposite to that taken by Depew, his predecessor. Depew always advocated the organization of men."

TO SUPPORT THE STATEMENT

Sargent gave to the Associated Press to-day relative the following extracts from an address delivered by Depew at the meeting of the Firemen's Brotherhood, held in Toronto, Friday, May 20, 1887. Said Depew at that time:

"I believe in organizations just like yours for protection, for charity, sobriety and industry. It is a pity in these days that there should be opportunity for the single reason that the laborers of this world can not be carried on in any other way than that the railroad people ought to be able to intelligently discuss the questions of the day, and should feel the government that they did not want legislation."

These expressions of Depew, it is argued, show conclusively that he was in favor at that time of organized labor. He believes that the right of the workingmen to go to the polls and exercise their right of franchise."

Sargent: "The Knights of Labor have been a most active part in legislation in the state of New York during the past year, much of this legislation being not only in the interest of the railway employes, and the New York Central being one of the largest corporations, you would naturally believe they such legislation, and many of the employes were before the Assembly in behalf of this legislation. In fact I did some of the men who helped by the New York Central were participating in this effort to bring about the passage of these laws with Select the shows plainly that the company is antagonizing the Knights of Labor in the process of this, for had the men been discharged for drunkenness, breach of duty, disorderly conduct or in a low manner by Webb, it could not be brought one moment to serve as investigation. I am satisfied that men should have been in the employ of the New York Central for fifteen or twenty years and now be dismissed on account of Sunday. It is a disgrace to the management of the road.

"In the course of an address delivered by Depew on Sunday, May 1, 1887, I quote, he said: 'I believe in organized labor, I believe in meeting of the Brotherhood Engineers at New Haven.'

"There are a few things about the relation of the president to the employes of the road which I would like to say. We both drew our salaries from the same treasury. The president of the company has his duty to perform to the stockholders of the road, but it is to a, a man of you suppose, his only duty. While he must see to it that proper economy is maintained and earning power developed, he must see that the public at all times get the best possible service and that the men in the employ of the company are treated well. It is his duty to smooth out and iron by the any man who, in his brief authority, tries to do the best of some one of the men under him. The railroad does not people forgetting the man is the supply realize the necessity of their employes and it gives them an independence which is their right."

Anyone who reads these utterances of Depew cannot help but believe that Depew, as president of the New York Central road, believed in the organization of his employes whenever they desired to confer with him, and if any of his subordinates positioned any injustice, in his own words, he said: 'I would believe in the road and disturb them.'

"The employes who are discharged by the Central were denied the right to give their side of the story to the management. They claim that they have been subjected to overcomplicated, demanding rules, were stifled in limiting and have not protection for protection, just as advocated by Depew, president of the New York Central. Recently, as the men's complaints and appeal came forward only to be ignored, men tried to bring about an amicable adjustment. It is said by the acting president of the road and informed that the employes have no rights in the premises. He also says that he will at any time and no questions need be asked.

"At the New Haven meeting Depew said I on net as a meeting the combination of labor for its own protection. He said:

"Some time ago I was working in some matters regarding the progress of civilization. I learned that our laws came from Great Britain, where, ninety one hundred years ago, labor had no voice in legislation. The statutes which we found are enough to make the hair stand on the head of a bald man, and to read them gives you such a conception of the idea that you have to put pieces of lead on your pulse. The law fixed the wages, and made it a crime for labor to meet and combine for mutual protection.'

"The Knights of Labor, as an organization, are combining today to prevent the New York Central employes, just what the president of that great corporation has advocated, and I am in sympathy with the boys. While I have never been an advocate of strikes where there was any way open to avoid them, yet I cannot help but believe that the position taken by the Knights of Labor is correct."

THE SUPREME COUNCIL MEET.

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., Aug. 24.—Nothing authoritative will be given out as to the deliberations of the Supreme Council until tomorrow at the earliest. It is among the possibilities that the decision of the council may not be reached for several days.

There was no convening of the council proper today. This does not mean that the agencies were not at work. The council last night put into the hands of Grand Secretary Debs of the Brotherhood of Firemen, Vice Grand Master Morrissey of the Brotherhood of Trainmen and Vice Grand Master Downey of the Switchmen's Mutual Aid Association the deliberations of the Council, and they will prepare certain propositions to be presented to the council which will define the action of the supreme body. This committee has been in session since eight o'clock last evening. The members separated only to take what may be strictly named as lunches.

After a session of one hour the Supreme Council adjourned until 8:30 tomorrow. The report of the subcommittee has been completed, but the council decided not to enter upon its consideration tonight. It is semi-officially announced that the result of the meeting of the Supreme Council will be made public by noon tomorrow.

NINE THOUSAND STRIKERS.

NEW YORK, Aug. 24.—The usual quietude prevailed around the Grand Central depot today. Vice-President Webb is of the opinion that the Terre Haute convention will do little or nothing in support of the action of the Knights of Labor, and that the strike, if there is one, will quickly be settled.

Privately and in colloquy—Hayes, Devlin and Wright—left town tonight for Albany to attend the convention of District Assembly 246 tomorrow.

President Johnson of the Assembly, in commenting upon the situation, said: "Unless the concessions demanded by the strikers from the railroad managers are handed, we expect tomorrow that a general strike will be ordered. Fully nine men on the Vanderbilt system will walk out, and we know that these men, switchmen, firemen and yardmen, can not be replaced under any circumstances."

SUPPORT IN THE WEST.

ALBANY, Aug. 24.—A prominent leader in the Central strike and an officer of one of the Brotherhoods, who is in a position to know whereof he speaks, tonight said: "A tie-up in the yards of the West Shore and Fitchburg roads at Rotterdam Junction has been determined. The Knights have been lending assistance to the Central."

Between Kenwick and Schenectady the road has made considerable progress in hauling the freight which is almost an arrest of the past on that one portion of the road.

Two engines found at Schenectady had a escort yesterday. It was decided that if the D. L. & W. refused permission to handle any transfer freight from the Central a general strike would be ordered and the same action will be taken by railroads north this city and Albany and Fitchburg in case they continued handling the Central's freight.

ATTITUDE OF CONGRESS.

CHICAGO, Aug. 24.—A member of the council of the Knights of Labor today, a committee was appointed to solicit funds for aid of the New York Central strikers. Resolutions were also unanimously adopted, showing that the Congress of the United States and more especially authorities and members of the Congress of War to wear the [illegible] and [illegible] to [illegible] the name of [illegible] and service for the benefit and [illegible] of the people.

NEW YORK, Aug. 24.—At a [illegible] meeting of the General Labor Union in addition were [illegible] to consider the [illegible] of the New York Central [illegible] by Grand Master [illegible] in a similar emergency, and [illegible] and [illegible] the [illegible] Central.

BOSTON, Aug. 24.—At a large attended meeting of the local assemblies, Knights of Labor, unanimously of opinion that the settlement of the meeting was decidedly against a strike, although hearty sympathy was expressed for the strikers. Vice President [illegible] of the Shoe Workers' Union, representative Fallon, said: "The result of conference was that Grand Master Sovereign [illegible] to [illegible] and [illegible] the [illegible] strike."

[illegible] Knights of Labor [illegible] all men who [illegible] in all men who work on railroads.

BOYCOTTING CONTRACTORS.

CHICAGO, Aug. 24.—Delegates from forty-four assemblies of Knights of Labor met here today and unanimously passed resolutions condemning Powderly's action in the New York Central strike and saying that the cause of labor is safe in his hands. A scathing paper was read and it is expected that [illegible] will be forwarded to Powderly during the week. Meetings will be held every night.

LONG-DISTANCE CALLS FOR SYMPATHY.

LONDON, Aug. 24.—A meeting of New York Knights was held today. Burke, the head of labor, presided and passed resolutions of sympathy with the American Knights of Labor in their strike on the New York Central. The resolutions also expressed a hope for the success of the Knights.
