BLACK LACE AND LILIES.

Large black lace hat, lace drooping over edge, underlaced same. Trimming of Calla lilies and white ribbon in close crumpled loops and short straight-cut ends.

The ball given last night for the benefit of the school fund was a most enjoyable and successful affair in all ways. The alumni of the High school who had charge of the arrangements did all possible to make the event a pleasant one, and were most successful in their efforts. The decorations were most beautiful. In the drawing room were white lilies and American Beauty roses and in the library white roses and blue and white ferns. Especially attractive was the dining room in its decorations of pink and green. La France roses being used with maiden-hair fern. The table was shrouded in pink tulle, and scattered over it were sprays of fern, white suspended from the chandelier was a basket of La France roses entwined with fern and smilax. Candelabra shaded in pink completed the pretty scheme, and roses in bowls and cases about the room aided in the effect. Mrs. Mont Perry and Miss Louise Anderson served coffee and ices and Mrs. O. W. Powers and Mrs. Charles Walker presided at the punch bowl in the library. Assisting in receiving were: W. Montague Perry, Mrs. J. C. Nelson, Mrs. W. A. Nelson and Mrs. J. T. Kingsbury.

Mrs. W. H. Riter entertained the Authors club at her home on Thursday night in the customary farewell gathering. The members of the club members and their husbands and escorts. Sixty-three was played, and the decorations, scores, and tables were in Indian-heads and other Indian designs. About 32 guests enjoyed the pleasant affair.

RECEPTIONS AND HOMES

Mrs. Iglehart was hostess at an informal reception on Monday at her home, in honor of her guest, Miss Elliott, of Kentucky. The rooms were prettily decorated with spring flowers, and refreshments were served. The hostess being assisted by Miss Dooley, the Misses Sherman, and Miss McMillan.

Among the delightful affairs of the week was the tea given at the post on Wednesday, at which Mrs. Pardee and Mrs. Sturgis were hostesses. The affair was held at the officers' club, the rooms being beautifully decorated. Blaise prevailed, except in the dining room, which was bright with snow-balls and honeysuckle. Assisting in entertaining were Misses Bloch, Harkness, Winn, and Woodward, and Mrs. McClure. In the dining room were Mrs. Callif, Mrs. D. M. Lindsay, and Mrs. Cochen, and Mrs. Mont Perry served punch at a table in the billiard room.

The regimental band stationed outside the club, rendered a delightful program of music. Invitations numbering several hundred were issued, and a large number of guests called during the afternoon.

On Thursday Mrs. Edwin Kimball, Miss Kimball and Miss Kate Williams entertained at a large and elaborate reception, about 200 guests being present, and all details of the affair being most delightful. Pink and white prevailed in the decorations, carnations being effectively used throughout, while candelabra with pink shades added to the pretty table adornment. Misses
