LOCAL BRIEFS.

The employes of the city waterworks department presented Supt. Frank L. Hines a fine pair of gold cuff buttons as a Christmas present.

This is the last day of registration for the water and sewer bond election to be held next Tuesday, but citizens registered at the last election will not have to register again.

The troops at Fort Douglas took a day off yesterday, and were exempt from all duties except the necessary guard duty. A big dinner was given to all the commands, and the boys did ample justice to the prandial layouts.

The boys of the Future Men's club of the First Baptist church distributed yesterday among some 30 homes, food and clothing they have been collecting for the past week as Christmas gifts for the worthy poor.

The Knights of Columbus initiated 40 candidates last evening, into the mysteries of the order, in the Jennings block, and Knights from Pocatello, Cheyenne, Ogden and elsewhere were present, and a banquet wound up the evening.

In the Christmas News, under the cut of the Imperial Roominghouse it was erroneously stated that Mr. C. C. Anderson was proprietor of the Chadbourne house. The "News" desires to correct the error and to say that he is proprietor of the Imperial. The new Chadbourne block, located at 243 south State street, is under the able supervision of Mrs. N. Olbrich.

A drunken man smashed the show case in front of the Boston Dental company on East Temple street last night, and scattered a cord or so of teeth all over the pavement. He immediately disappeared in a neighboring alley in search of further conquests, and the owner of the teeth is today smiting his breast in grief and wrath over the scattering of his molar wealth.

The crossing of two electric wires behind the soda fountain in Schramm's drug store last evening created considerable excitement for the moment, but Mr. Schramm was said to have remained cool throughout the trying ordal, and directed one of his clerks to sever the wires with a pair of scissors. This was done, and order was brought out of chaos, and prevented what might has been a big blaze.

Last night at Unity hall the Sunday school children met to celebrate Christmas, and to extend farewell greetings to Rev. and Mrs. Fish, who leave today for Boston. The first part of the evening's entertainment consisted of choruses, songs and charades, the latter part of dancing and receiving presents from the big Christmas tree, on which was hung a box of candy and some other present for each little child. Music and dancing ended the evening.

The funeral services for Raymond Bird, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry W. Spencer were held yesterday at the family residence, and were attended by a large number of sympathizing friends. The services were instructive and comforting, the opening prayer being offered by W. J. Tuddenham. Consoling remarks followed by Elders Castleton, Allen and Williams. The closing prayer was pronounced by Elder C. B. Felt, and Bishop M. S. Woolley officiated at the cemetery. Beautiful musical selections were rendered by Messrs. Pyper, Whitney, Spencer and Patrick, and a special feature was the solo by George D. Pyper, entitled "Beyond This Vale of Tears," accompanied by Miss Edna Edwards on the organ. Exquisite floral emblems draped the casket, the tributes of sympathetic friends.

Inward and Outward.

The inward effects of humors are worse than the outward. They weaken all the organs, inflame the mucous membrane, cause catarrhal troubles, and endanger the whole system.

Hood's Sarsaparilla eradicates all humors and cures all their effects.

It's the great alterative and tonic medicine whose merit has been everywhere established.

LANDERS, THE HEALER.

Prof. J. Landers, the most wonderful divine healer of the age, and man of science, who created such a sensation in Ogden, is at 258 South Main street, Salt Lake. He already has many patients, who have been entirely cured, whom the local doctors had given up. Cases of eye and ear troubles, chronic rheumatism, all kinds of stomach troubles, cancer, etc, report great benefit from the very beginning of his treatment. All manner of disease successfully treated without medicine.

E. H. HARRIMAN'S GREAT AMBITION

Already Has Six Out of the Eight Big Roads to Pacific Coast.

WESTERN PACIFIC IS THE KEY

To Let Down the Bars of the Big Monopoly in Freight and Passenger Business.

To the layman who has been watching the railroad situation in the west the present outlook is a very interesting one. Slowly but surely has E. H. Harriman been perfecting his plans to hold the immense traffic of the orient and the great west in the palm of his hand, so to speak, until today he has voice in the control of six of the eight great trans-continental lines. Every line with the exception of the Great Northern and Canadian Pacific is now subservient in a measure to the dictates of the little crowd which goes by the name of Harriman. Harriman can never get the Canadian Pacific and James J Hill will fight to a finish before he lets go of the Great Northern. While Hariman has secured a voice in the San Pedro and the Santa Fe during the past year he still lacks one system in the United States before he can tie up the entire west on the transcontinental business.

THE HARVEST.

As it is what has been the result? First—is it not history that this year the transcontinental railroads openly combined to raise the rates across the continent on certain staple products. Are not those rates in force today, kept there by the power of the Harriman roads? And is it not a fact that while the earnings of all local lines east of the Rocky mountains have fallen off badly this past year the earnings of the great transcontinentals have advanced and grown? This is but the first result. For it Mr. Harriman has only a smile and a wink to his confidants. He is charging the traffic what it will bear. That is all.

WESTERN PACIFIC.

But the other result will not be laughed off—and Mr. Harriman knows it. Western Pacific is one phase of it. The capital of Wall street has gathered to fight this fight. Missouri Pacific, Rock Island, Colorado & Southern are together and will stand or fall together to break through this Harriman cordon at the Ogden gateway. It is finally intended that within two years Rock Island trains shall reach the Pacific coast by this route. Edwin Hawley, close associate of the Rock Island party in half a dozen great ventures, is representing them on the Western Pacific board. It was this fact that led to the open war between Mr. Hawley and E. H. Harriman. This war will be carried on until the gates are forced. This particular party does not know what defeat means. They have proved it in a dozen great encounters.

HILL AND MORGAN.

In the north, J. J. Hill, Northwestern and St. Paul will fight to the last ditch. Every word that Hill utters is bitter toward his antagonist. He will block the schemes of E. H. Harriman if his own wonderful power linked with the genius and the power of the house of Morgan can accomplish it.

GOULD UP AGAINST IT.

Southward, along the Gulf, Rock Island, Texas Pacific, Frisco, Missouri Pacific—the Goulds and the Rock Island again—are pulling freight through the El Paso passes on to the lines now held by E. H. Harriman. They will not continue to do so. They will break through here again, as they will in Colorado and in Utah. It is not fitting that roads so powerful as Rock Island and Missouri Pacific should suffer the dictation of E. H. Harriman or of anyone else on long haul business. They have to give him their traffic at El Paso, whether they like it or not. In return he can give them whatever he likes, namely the surplus left over after Southern Pacific and Atchison have had their picking.

THE PRESENT SITUATION.

This is the situation today. Tomorrow it may be changed. When the stroke comes, it will be sudden and unannounced. It may come in the form of active construction on the Western Pacific, and the announcement that the Denver Northwestern and Pacific has elected George Gould and D. G. Reid to its board. It may come in any one of half a dozen forms. When it does come, those who watch the situation will know what it means.

It sounds heartless to say it, but it is true, that there are several railroad boards of directors who have not moved greatly in this matter because they believe that within two years E. H. Harriman will have passed into history as a railroad power. Those who see him, pale and sick, know what the waiting means. They also can best judge of the price he has paid for the fulfilment of his great ambition.

ENGINES COMING.

Consignment of 16 Baldwins for the Salt Lake Route.

The first consignment of the 51 big consolidated freight engines recently ordered by the Salt Lake Route is this week being shipped out of the Baldwin Locomotive works. The batch consists of 16 powerful engines which are due to arrive here early in the new year from day to day. Indications the that by the time the road is completed all the motive power ordered recently will be on hand.

Latest reports from the front are to the effect that the ends of the track are now about 16 miles apart and work is progressing apace on the heavy rock work west of Good springs.

SPIKE AND RAIL.

George Ady, city ticket and passenger agent for the Union Pacific at Denver, is in Salt Lake today.

J. C. St. Clair, traveling freight and passenger agent of the Harriman lines at Butte, is in the city.

Traveling Freight and Passenger Agent Plaisted of the Milwaukee, is in the city on a brief visit.

Rio Grande trains were delayed 12 hours yesterday by a freight wreck east of Newcastle. No one was hurt.

District Freight and Passenger Agent Frank Plaisted of the Oregon Short Line at Boise, left for home last night.

H. W. Edgerton, the new traveling agent of the Chicago & Northwestern under General Agent C. A. Walker here, arrived from Yankton, S. D., this morning, to enter upon his new duties.

The Rock Island passenger department reports a heavy California traffic on the Golden State limited, a fast train placed in service Christmas day. Passenger business to California will be unusually active this winter. This has caused the Rock Island to put on another fast train, in addition to the Golden State limited.

Grip Quickly Knocked Out.

"Some weeks ago during the severe winter weather both my wife and myself contracted severe colds which speedily developed into the worst kind of la grippe with all its miserable symptoms," says Mr. J. S. Egleston of Maple Landing, Iowa. "Knees and joints aching, muscles sore, head stopped up, eyes and nose running, with alternate spells of chills and fever. We began using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, aiding the same with a dose of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, and by its liberal use soon completely knocked out the grip."

It is a good plan to take a dose of the Tablets when you have a cold. They promote a healthy action of the bowels, liver and kidneys which is always beneficial when the system is congested by a cold or attack of the grip. For sale by all druggists.

THE MESSAGE OF THE FLOWERS.

"Mama, why did God make flowers?
Asked a little child, one day
Of her mother, planting pansies
O'er a little mound of clay.
And I drew a little nearer,
As the mother to her breast
Clasped the wee one, while in splendor
Sank the sun low in the west.

"God made flowers, little darling,
To cheer up poor broken hearts,
May He help me to remember
All the hope He thus imparts.
See, the little buds unfolding,
Opening to the light so blest,
Bear a message from the angels,
"'Trust in God, He knoweth best.'"

"Why does God let some buds wither?"
Asked the little child again,
And the mother's lips now quiver,
With the sharpness of her pain.
"Oh, my darling, who can answer?
Who reveal His plans so blest?
We can just accept the message—
"'Trust in God, He knoweth best."

Then I sat me down and pondered
O'er the questions I had heard,
And I thought of human flowers
Often blighted by a word,
Often trampled in the mire,
Scorned by those who might have blessed
E'en by those who might have whispered,
"Trust in God, He knoweth best."

When we think of buds now blighted,
When we think of withered flowers,
When our hearts are torn with yearning
For the blossoms we thought ours;
Let us think they might have fallen
And been trampled with the rest,
But were taken up and cherished
By the One who knoweth best.

Little footsteps might have faltered
Straying from the narrow track;
And sometimes our prayers and pleadings
Cannot win our darlings back.
Let us think, then, that the Father
Clasped them spotless to His breast,
And accept the flower's message—
"Trust in God, He knoweth best"
—Annie Malin.

DOCTORS COULD NOT HELP HER.

"I had kidney trouble for years," writes Mrs. Raymond Conner of Shelton, Wash., "and the doctors could not help me. I tried Foley's Kidney Cure, and the very first dose gave me relief and I am now cured. I cannot say too much for Foley's Kidney Cure." It makes the diseased kidneys sound so they will eliminate the poisons from the blood. Unless they do this, good health is impossible. F. J. Hill Drug Co.

A BUSINESS WOMAN'S COSTUME.

A business woman must be economical. She has not hundreds of dollars to spend upon her wardrobe; consequently if she is wise she finds out what color is the most becoming and buys an office gown of that color and uses it as the foundation upon which she builds her system of dress. This color scheme makes it possible to wear one hat with various articles of clothing without appearing radiantly dressed like a bird of paradise, and nothing in a business woman's office dress is more destestable than finery. Simplicity, cleanliness, harmony, are the three qualities essential to the business woman's wardrobe. It is not so much how many clothes the business woman possesses as it is the kind of clothing she wears and her general appearance.

Good advice to the busy woman who has little time to give to the consideration of fripperies would be: Leave fancy things alone and content yourself with the smart and useful stock and collar which are now in vogue with all the severer styles of dress. It takes only two minutes to tie the bow neatly or to slip a clean and dainty, prettily embroidered collar on to a blouse or bodice.

A muslin fichu can be worn in the evening, but it requires skill and leisure to arrange it. To be picturesque is charming, but never let your fancy for the picturesque degenerate into untidiness or unsuitability.

WOMEN AS CHIMNEY SWEEPS.

The vocations to which latter day women are devoting their energies are increasing in number, and realms unthought of before are being invaded. A guild or union of women chimney sweeps has been started in St. Petersburg and Moscow. Its founder is the widow of a sweep blessed with six daughters. All seven belong to the guild and are active members. No woman chimney sweep is to be less than fourteen years old nor more than thirty-five, but girl assistants may be admitted at eight years. As soon as a sweep marries she must leave the guild. All must sign the temperance pledge and be members of the Orthodox (Greek) church.

A Certain Cure for Croup.

When a child shows symptoms of croup there is no time to experiment with new remedies, no matter how highly they may be recommended. There is one preparation that can always be depended upon. It has been in use for many years and has never been known to fail, viz: Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Give it and a quick cure is sure to follow. Mr. M. F. Compton of Market, Texas, says of it, "I have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in severe cases of croup with my children, and can truthfully say it always gives prompt relief." For sale by all druggists.
