Last Night's Dispatches.

EASTERN.

A Swindler Arrested.

MALWAUKEE, 7.—A man calling himself Charles Daniels, presented, at the First National Bank here, to-day, a counterfeit letter of credit for $3,000, purporting to be from the New York agents of the Bank of British North America; he was arrested and is in custody.

Attempt at Incendiarism.

POTTSVILLE, Pa., 7.—Last night an attempt was made to destroy the large west Brookside Breaker, owned by the Philadelphia Reading Coal and Iron Co.; the blacksmith shop, fan house, carpenter shop and oil house connected with the breaker, were burned down, but the employees succeeded in saving the breaker. West Brookside is in the southern part of the region, and has hitherto been quiet and free from violence or incendiarism.

Fireman's Convention.

NEW YORK, 7.—After recess the special committee appointed to report on a uniform thread and discussions of hose coupling, recommended that the inside diameter of the couplings be 2⅝ inches in the clear, that the outside be 3¼ inches exclusive of the thread, and including the thread 3⅝ inches, and that the number of threads to the inch be eight. The convention adjourned to meet in the morning, and go in a body to a review of the fire department in Union Park.

Peabody Educational Fund.

At the meeting of the trustees to-day the report of the treasurer was read, and showed that the total amount available for appropriations to educational purposes was $95,500.

Held in $10,000 Bail.

At the police court, to-day, Cyrus G. Clark, a Broadway druggist, was held in $10,000 bail, for having, in March last, feloniously purchased ten one thousand-dollar Jersey City bonds, they being a portion of the bonds stolen in January, 1874, by Alex. Hamilton, then treasurer of Jersey City.

Failed.

The personal paper of John Gorton, of Providence, R. I., representative of the Gorton Manufacturing Company, went to protest on the 5th. His failure is caused by large real estate operations in New York and Boston.

No Trouble at Friar's Point.

MEMPHIS, 7.—Senator Alcorn has telegraphed the Attorney-General to the effect that several of the dispatches relating to the disturbance at Friar's Point are without foundation, and that there is no cause of alarm for the peace of that county; the mob has dispersed and it is thought will remain quiet. There is no question of politics in this excitement; the disturbance was originated by a party of several hundred negroes, who had been excited by an ill tempered sheriff, and they marched on the town, but were readily dispersed.

Perpetual Injunction Granted

PITTSBURG, 7.—In the suit of Shook & Palmer, of New York, against McKee Rankin, Judge Wing, to-day, issued a perpetual injunction against the latter, restraining him from the production of the play of the Two Orphans, in this city; this is the first time a decision has been rendered by any court, that Shook & Palmer have the exclusive proprietorship right to produce this play in the U. S.

Found Dead.

HARTFORD, Ct., 7.—The Rev. Thomas Ryder, President of the Strong Street Baptist church, Nottingham, England, was found dead in bed this a. m., at the residence of Mrs. Harriet Beecher Stowe. Mr. Ryder was travelling for his health, and probably died of heart disease. He met Mr. Stowe at Twin Mountain House in August, and had called to visit the family.

Movements of the President and Party.

DENVER, Col., 7.—President Grant and party returned from Southern Colorado, this p. m., and will visit Central City, Black Hawk, and Georgetown to-morrow, and leave for Washington on Sunday.

Convicted.

CLEARFIELD, Pa., 7.—Parks was sentenced to hard labor for one year, and fined a dollar and costs; the latter are estimated at $1,500.

FOREIGN.

TURKEY.

Reforms Inaugurated.

MOSTAR, 7.—Server Pasha has proclaimed all the reforms recently promised to the insurgents.

EAST INDIES.

Unconditional Concession By Burmah.

SIMLA, 7.—It is officially announced that Burmah has unconditionally agreed to allow the passage of an escort of British troops through Burmese territory, to Yunnan, if another expedition thither is necessary.

GREAT BRITAIN.

Suspended.

LONDON, 7.—Owing to the popular outcry, the Admiralty have suspended the circular of July 31st, ordering the surrender of fugitive slaves found on board British vessels.

Banquet to Earl Derby.

The Mayor of Liverpool gave a banquet to Earl Derby to-night. Lord Derby in response to a toast, expressed the opinion that the insurrectionary difficulty in Turkey had been exaggerated. He said the great powers were not disposed to aid the insurgents, and it would be impolitic to concede self-government to Herzegovina. Judicious reforms might alleviate the discontent, though a radical cure could not be expected. He said that no further intelligence had been received from Pekin. Every one must deprecate war while honorably avoidable; it was necessary, however, to insist on just and moderate demands, and not to shirk our duty because it was unpleasant. If trouble arose the fault would not be ours.

$2,100,000 Fire.

The splendid residence of Henry Aleers Hankey, known as the Queen Anne Gate, St. James' Park, Westminster, was burned to-night, the loss is put at £500,000.

SPAIN.

Will Join the Northern Army—Note Presented by Mr. Cushing.

MADRID, 7.—It is reported that the ring has decided to join the northern army again.

It is asserted that Mr. Cushing, the American minister, presented a note relating to the jurisdiction of courts martial over the citizens of the U. S. in Cuba.

BAVARIA.

Want the Ministry Dismissed.

MUNICH, 7.—The Ultra Montane party has introduced a violent address in the Bavarian chamber of deputies, calling for the dismissal of the ministry.
