The total number of arrests of those concerned in the massacre is 150. Twenty-three have been executed, but evidence has not been secured upon any, the viceroy of Ho Kien demanding the right to review the evidence adduced at the trials.

Desperado Captured.

LEADVILLE, Colo., Sept. 5.—Bill Williams, alias Lloyd Layer, alias John McMahon, one of the most noted desperadoes in the West, who always swore he would not be taken alive, has been arrested and lies in jail here.

It is said he was the leader of the gang that robbed the Wells Fargo Express company at Cripple Creek and secured $20,000.

It was decided to send the boy to his sister in San Francisco. One of his coat sleeves bore a big tag, giving the name, age and destination. In his pocket he had 100 marks, $8.40, and a railroad ticket to San Francisco. He was taken to Ellis island by the steward of the Lahn, who afterwards paved him on the train.

Pietzel, the father of the two little girls whom Holmes is alleged to have murdered in a St. Vincent street house in this city. In the event of a failure to convict Holmes in Pontypridge, he will be handed over to the Canadian authorities and will only be brought to Canada after all attempts to secure him in the United States or a capital offense have proved abortive.

NEW YORK, Sept. 5.—The meeting of the bondholders representing the Oregon Railway and Navigation company mortgaged and the mortgage foreclosure, was held today in the office of the New York Security and Trust company for the purpose of considering a plan and agreement for the reorganization of the system prepared by a committee appointed for that purpose. The total amount of bonds issued is $12,653,000, of which $12,192,000 was deposited this morning with the New York Security and Trust company at the instance of Charles C. Beaman, counsel for the company.

California Fruit in London.

LONDON, Sept. 6.—A day's sale of California fruit, comprising 625 cases which arrived in Southampton by the American line steamer Paris, late Wednesday night, drew a large number of dealers to Covent Garden. The prices realized were better than those obtained in the sale the week, English and French fruit being uncommonly scarce in London. The bulk of today consisted of peaches, pears and plums in fair condition. The cases of California fruit sold in lots. Dealers say the fruit was better than any before California fruit has been.

OGDEN.

OGDEN, UTAH, SEPT. 6, 1895.

A Bold Hold.

A bold attempt at larceny was tried yesterday by a concealed man who gave the home of Robert M. Bower. Entering the residence of Rev. Jeffrey on Twenty-fourth street while the family was absent he went to the writing desk and taking a check book and rubber stamp with Rev. Jeffrey's signature on it, sat down and wrote out a check for $25 payable to Tyndale & Sons, the grocers. At Mr. Jeffrey's he also found the account of a small bill of Tyndale's, and taking the check to that firm, he asked for Jeffrey's bill which he got but said he did not wish to pay the bill, and asked them to cash the check. He was told to call in shortly and they would do so. He then went up to Mr. Jeffrey's residence, presented the bill and asked payment, representing that he was working for Tyndale's. He was told to call around shortly and it would be paid. In the meantime Mr. Jeffrey called to the grocers to know why they had sent him two bills. This revealed the trick. The police arrested Bower when he called to collect the bill. Justice Bagley fixed his bonds at $1,000. The sheriff will take care of him.

PROVO.

PROVO, UTAH, SEPT. 6, 1895.

Garden City Notes.

The Nephi Savings Bank and Trust company has commenced a suit in the First District court against George C. Whitmore to collect $6,216.45 on a promissory note, dated July 20th, 1894, with interest at the rate of 2 per cent per month.

Sherman and Morley's company appears in the opera house next Monday evening in "A Jay Circus."

The farmers are now busy shipping beets. The yield is not so large as last year, but the beets are said to be better.

J. F. Grant of Salt Lake City was in Provo today.

Sterling Colton of Uintah county is visiting relatives here.

Height of Beehives.

In some apiaries the hives stand near the ground upon a piece of board 1 or 2 inches wide, or upon bricks, one under each corner. In others the hives stand a foot high, and again hives may be seen raised three feet high perched on posts. As far as the bees are concerned, it does not matter whether hives be high or low, although, judging by the habits of the bees, the higher the hive is the better they would like it. But the honey pan is the one to be accommodated by the position of the hives. He will place it at the height where it will be most convenient for him.

It is extraordinary how the hives in the majority of apiaries are not placed in view of the passers the best advertising, cheap package to the idea held by some beekeepers that it is good—accidentally—to have the bees near the ground. An Ohio farmer correspondent says that the best arrangement for bees is a platform from posts sunk in the ground at frequent intervals.

If the platform have a roof, it makes it all the better for the bees and the beekeeper during the warm weather. The roof should be portable and not be put on before June, because bees want all the sunshine they can get up to that time.

Agricultural Combinations.

Alfalfa and sugar beets seem nearly in the spring as possible without danger from frosts.

Professor Forster urges the importance of arranging farmers so there may be a sort of succession of them on the same farm the same season. This economical suggestion begins with rye, then spring grain, then the great common clover, mammoth clover and timothy or alsike clover and timothy.

Overstocking pastures is the great bane of the west.

NOMINATIONS MADE.

by allowing wages of working men in almost every industry.

We again express our hearty appreciation of the Democratic Congress and pledge to it our support as contingent for efficient work. Utah is about to assume its position as a sovereign State.

We commend the action of the Democratic Congress in encouraging the saving and accumulating power of the state by such restrictions and limitations as to prohibit any expenditure of public property in aid of private enterprises, and to confine the expenses of carrying on public business within proper limits of economy, despite the clamor and opposition of a Republican minority. And we take the judgment of the people upon this.

We commend to the women of Utah upon their willingness to equal political rights with men under the provisions of the Constitution proposed, and the Democratic party not therefore, and will support it at the measure for its representation in the Constitutional Convention.

We commend as fair and liberal that the Democratic party of Utah has both given and asking equal votes or no less election boards, and continues the Republican party for its recognition of and support which were the majority of the Utah Commission, and despite the task of politic views to its attempt without any evidence and for per cent persons, besides the character of immoral citizens.

The report was unanimously adopted.

The chairman then announced that nominations for two United States senators would be in order, when Mr. Rawlins arose and offered a resolution, declaring that in the interest of there being a Democratic majority in the Legislature, that Joseph L. Rawlins and Moses Thatcher be elected to the Senate.

Very little opposition being shown the resolution was adopted.

Mr. Rawlins being called for then made a short speech, thanking the convention for the confidence reposed, and assuring them of his assistance during the campaign.

The nomination for Congressmen being in order, J. F. Tolton, of Beaver, arose and with words of eloquence nominated R. H. Robertson, who was received with loud enthusiasm and applause, and was seconded by several in quite some other speeches.

A little joke A. J. Evans of Utah arose and said in nomination Mr. Kings of Piute, and invited his nomination by acclamation.

This motion was promptly ruled out of order, and cries of Roberts resounded all. It was quite evident that Roberts was the chosen man and he was nominated by acclamation.

A short speech was made by Mr. Roberts, kindly thanking the convention for the honor conferred.

Then came the nominations for three judges of the supreme court, and the following were placed in nomination: R. C. Thurman, Thomas Marsh, J. G. Sutherland, Orlando Hiles, and Richard W. Young.

The first ballot resulted in the following vote being cast: Thurman 226, Mishing 211, Young 195, Sutherland 230, Hiles 107. There being 351 votes necessary to a choice, Thurman, Marsh and Young were declared elected.

A recess was then taken until 8 o'clock.

EVENING SESSION.

Shortly after 8 o'clock the evening session was called to order, and the committee on party organization established as follows: For the Chairman and Members of the Convention.

The undersigned committee on party organization beg leave to report and recommend as follows: That the general Territorial committee shall consist of forty members—one from each county—who shall be the chairmen of their respective county committees, and addition at members-at-large, viz.: Cache, Weber, Salt Lake 3, Utah 3, Juab 1, Summit 1, Davis 1; that the said committee may be authorized to select its own officers, meet together with an executive committee to assist you in matters, and call subsequent conventions if the present plan of general, county and Territorial committees be maintained as the party organization. All of which is respectfully submitted.

MARGARET A. CAINE,
Chairman.

The report was adopted.

Next in order was the nomination for governor, when Judge Powers called Mr. Eliza Bullock to the chair, and taking the floor, nominated Judge L. Caine.

Caine finally placed in nomination W. H. Preston.

Both nominations were duly seconded and a vote being taken, the following result was announced:

Caine 487, Preston 132. The nomination of Caine was made unanimous on motion of Castle county.

A short speech was made by Mr. Caine, after which nominations for secretary of state were called for.

Moyle, of Salt Lake, placed in nomination Peter Harris, of Salt Lake.

On motion, Mr. Harris was elected the choice of the convention by acclamation and came forward and favored the audience with a short speech.

A call was then made for Moses Thatcher and he came forward and thanked the convention for the nomination received and paid a high tribute to his running mate, Joseph L. Rawlins.

The following were placed in nomination for State auditor: J. F. Tolton, of Beaver, and Guy C. Wilson, of Tooele.

Mr. Tolton withdrew in favor of Mr. Wilson, and he was nominated by acclamation.

The fight for treasurer brought out R. C. Lorie, of Washington, Alma Greenwood, of Sanpete, J. W. Witherspoon, of Salt Lake, and C. L. Hawley, of Salt Lake.

The vote was as follows: Greenwood 474, Lorie 156, Witherspoon 56, Hawley 17.

The nomination of Mr. Greenwood was made unanimous, on motion of Irvine, of Washington.

The nominations for attorney-general were Lafayette Young, of Salt Lake, and A. J. Weber, of Weber.

Young's name was withdrawn and Weber received the choice of the convention.

Mr. Weber came forward and made a short speech.

Permanent chairman of public instruction Dr. Karl G. Maeser of Utah and T. R. Lowe of Weber were placed in nomination, the result being that Maeser was elected on a vote of 550 to 255. A speech by Dr. Maeser followed.

The state committee was called for and named as follows:

Pat Lynch's nomination for committeeman was referred to a subsequent meeting, and the central committee was authorized to fill up the vacancy.

Into this the convention adjourned with three cheers for the party.

Sister Aubrey's Funeral.

The Eighth ward meeting house was filled to its almost capacity yesterday, with the relatives and friends of the late Sister Susannah Aubrey, who had assembled to pay the last tribute to the memory of that departed lady.

The opening prayer was offered by Elder John Henry, musical and instrumental results were made by Sister Wm. Naylor and Sister Summer, who had kindly volunteered to assist the occasion, Sister Aubrey spoke glowingly of her sojourn in England, where her kindness and hospitality to mother and Elder Aubrey are remembered by the Saints and all who came under her influence. The concluding prayer was offered by Elder Abner Brown, and the audience departed for the grave by Counselor Jesse Evans. The choir, under the leadership of Brother James Hood, rendered some beautiful and appropriate selections.

The floral evidences were varied and beautiful and as mute testimony they effectively covered the casket. A long funeral cortege followed the remains to their last resting place.
