WANT A TOWN ORGANIZATION.

Effort of Kanosh Citizens—Deep Snow, Heavy Rains, Dying Sheep and Horses.

Correspondence of the "News."

Fillmore City, Utah, Feb. 4—Many of the citizens of the little town of Kanosh think it advisable to have an incorporated town organization, and at a mass meeting, at which was present by invitation, Judge Greenwood, a committee consisting of E. W. Penny, James M. Gardner and George Crane, was appointed to make inquiry as to successful working in other places in this state, and report in the near future.

The unprecedented winter is still with us with all its blessings and disadvantages, as I write. 7:00 a. m., everything in sight is wrapt in the mantle of white, wet, soggy snow, ten inches deep and still falling. On the 5th and 6th a rapid thaw set in and the deep snow had disappeared from some spots in the beaten roads which spotted the neighbing; last night a heavy rain set in, followed by this heavy snow; the result, when it clears up, will be bad for travelers, and I fear the sheep men will continue to lose heavily. Mr. George A. George, of Kanosh, told me Saturday, that there would be but few sheep left in this part of the country, if the losses in winter continued long; he said, "I expect to lose 30 head again tonight—have been losing from that to 50 head some nights." Many of the sheep are being hauled into town in wagons and fed on hay at $5 per ton, and still they die after being fed. Mr. Charles Jakes, who is in the business with Mr. Hunt of Brooklyn, Sevier county, is also losing heavily.

Horses are also rapidly dying off on the range, with few regrets to settlers, as they had become a nuisance, without value to anybody, and consequently hundreds of unbranded, wild, and dwarfed ponies were to be found all over this county.

Many people have lost large quantities of apples and potatoes, for Jack Frost has got down to unprecedented low acts here, unexpectedly entering cellars and in many instances solidifying all the bottled fruit in sight. And 25 below zero is not a healthful sign for our next season's crop, as the tender wood has no doubt suffered some; 25 below zero has been reached at Oasis, this county, and yet a few of our citizens have an itching for the Klondike. The firmers who got their wheat in the ground last fall do not want to go there. A. BIRD.

TAKEN ON A SERIOUS CHARGE.

Arrest of N. Jensen, Accused of Forging a Bill of Sale.

The Forged Paper Was for a Hundred Head of Sheep Belonging to a San Francisco Man.

Special to the "News."

Nephi, Utah, Feb. 10.—Yesterday Sheriff Turner arrested Nephi Jensen of Hyrum for theft and forgery. Last summer Jensen was helping drive east 12,000 sheep purchased in Oregon by J. R. Oakey of San Francisco. Jensen left 100 head here and went to Wyoming with the others. He returned later and claimed the 100 here by virtue of a bill of sale signed by Oakey. He sold 53 head to Jay Pilkin of Milleville. Sheriff Turner became suspicious, wrote to Oakey, and learned that the bill of sale was a forgery.

Jensen was then arrested and a preliminary hearing will be held before the Hyrum justice, I. C. Thorpson, on Friday. The case will be tried in the district court.
