EVENING NEWS.

...day. . . April 14, 1882.

FLOATING FRAGMENTS.

High Council meeting one week from to-night.

A bread and cake baker wants a situation. See advt.

The correspondent of the London Times is in the city.

The U. S. mail was robbed at an early hour this morning, near Salt...ke, by a couple of road agents.

We received a pleasant fraternal visit to-day from Mr. Malcolm, correspondent of the Philadelphia Ledger.

Milton Nobles and his excellent company of comedians will appear at the Theatre on Thursday and Friday, April 20th and 21st.

A fool of a father at Leadville had his boy hold a half dollar in his fingers as a mark for his rifle. The coin was struck, and so was one of the child's fingers.

Mr. Parry expects to receive in a few days a large lot of the pamphlets entitled "Utah and its People," by an ex-U. S. official, and will receive advance orders for it.

We have received the second of a series of leaflets from the pen of Brother C. H. Bliss, just issued at the Juvenile Instructor office. It is entitled "Baptism for the Remission of Sins."

Leslie's Popular Monthly for May, from Parry's book store, opposite the Co-op. It contains the Life of Garibaldi, the patriot of Italy, and the usual amount of interesting reading matter.

A Boulder, Colorado, correspondent of the Denver News writes: "Some of the Union Pacific conductors who had their 'heads cut off,' are in the mining camps taking leases in prospecting and mining."

Mark A. Shaffenburg, who was once United States marshal of Colorado, and who was in the habit of setting suppers that cost no less than $1,000, is reported to be now earning $1.50 a day, working in a lumber yard in Laredo, Texas.

Pueblo, Colorado, has been scared during the past few days over the discovery that a few cases of smallpox existed. The cases were first discovered at the Grand Central Hotel, which was promptly quarantined. All the patients were quickly removed to the pest house, outside the limits of town.

Next to the new comet, which is to destroy the world, as the astronomers predict, comes Callender's entirely new Minstrel Company, with new scenes, new jokes, new songs, new life, new clothes, new music, new instruments and new successes, with all the old-time excellences that are bound to win the applause of the country. They play here next week.

Last evening there was a party in the upper room of the Episcopal school house. Persons in attendance deposited their hats, shawls and overcoats with the janitor in the school room on the first floor. During the temporary absence of this custodian the room was entered by some unknown party and the overcoats belonging to Clem Schramm and L. S. Wilde were carried off. Besides the coat, Schramm lost some handkerchiefs and a pair of kid gloves, and Wilde is the loser of some keys, letters, etc.—Ogden Pilot.

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

High Council.—The regular meeting of the High Council will be held in the Council House on Friday, evening April 21st at 7 p. m.

WM. W. TAYLOR, Clerk.

Last Meeting.—The Twenty-first Ward Y. M. M. I. A. will hold its last meeting of the season on Wednesday, April 19th, when it will adjourn till next fall.

Alleged Declination.—An eastern paper states that Secretary Kirkwood has declined the offer of a position on the Utah commission. The gentleman is alleged to have stated that he had seen so much of polygamy in Washington as to cause him to object to having any hand in its suppression in Utah.

Lot Jumpers.—According to the Butte Miner, that city is afflicted with a band of town lot jumpers. Grave hints are given by the journal named to the effect that the parties engaging in this nefarious business will be summarily dealt with unless they desist from their present course.

Y. L. M. I. A. — The regular monthly meeting of the officers of the Y. L. M. I. Associations, will be held next Saturday, 15th inst., at 2 o'clock p.m., at the Council House. All interested are cordially invited to attend. A punctual attendance is requested.

MARY A. FREEZE.

Theatre.—The Gigantean Minstrels are carrying everything before them. The house was full again last night, and the audience was, as usual, enthusiastic and liberal in their applause. The performers are all good in their particular lines. The company play again to-night.

To-morrow afternoon there will be a grand matinee performance, and the farewell exhibition in the evening.

An Accident.—About noon today, Mr. Charles W. Nibley, a member of the Constitutional Convention from Logan, Cache County, received a dispatch from home informing him that his two-year old son, Joseph had met with an accident by which he had lost three fingers of his right hand. In consequence of this sad occurrence Mr. Nibley started for home on the train that left the city at 3.40 this afternoon.

Conjoint Meeting.—Last night there was, at the 20th Ward school house, a conjoint meeting of the Y. M. M. I. associations of the 18th, 20th and 21st Wards, Prof. T. B. Lewis, of the 20th Ward society in the chair. The hall was crowded, and a combined programme of exercises for the three institutions was efficiently rendered. Stake Superintendent J. H. Felt and his assistant, George C. Lambert, were present, making brief remarks at the close, on the pleasure and profit of the occasion, and the benefits accruing from the associations.

TERRITORIAL EDUCATIONAL CONVENTION.

The Territorial Convention of Superintendents of District Schools met at the Council House, at 10 a. m., to-day.

On motion, Terr. Supt. Hon. L. John Nuttall was elected President; Dr. John R. Park, Vice-President; Supt. John B. Maiben, Secretary, and Walter Reynolds, Janitor.

The Secretary called the roll and the following gentlemen answered to their names: L. J. Nuttall, John R. Park, F. R. Clayton, Beaver; E. A. Box, Box Elder; John T. Caine, Jr., Cache; Anson V. Call, Davis; John Dalley, Iron; J. H. Mason, Morgan; T. B. Lewis, Salt Lake; John B. Maiben, Sanpete; Joshua R. Clark, Tooele; M. H. Hardy, Utah, Attewell Wootton, Wasatch; L. F. Monch, Weber.

Letters were read from superintendents of Sevier, Washington, Millard, Juab and Rich Counties, stating their inability to be present.

A quorum being present, the convention was opened by prayer by Prof. T. B. Lewis. The chairman, Mr. Nuttall stated the object of the convention and read the law authorizing its organization and purpose. He mentioned that there were several gentlemen now in the city representing different publishing houses, whom he suggested should have the opportunity of presenting their respective claims for patronage. He desired the members of the convention to use their privilege of calmly and thoroughly investigating the subject before them—the selection of suitable text books for the district schools of Utah.

The question of admitting deputies to represent absent superintendents was discussed and, on motion it was resolved, that they be entitled to seats, have the privilege of speaking, but not of voting.

On motion of Superintendent Monch, a committee of two was appointed by the chair to wait upon ex Territorial Superintendent Hon. John Taylor, and invite him to present his views to the convention upon the matters before it, and to tender him the freedom of the house. L. F. Monch and T. B. Lewis were the committee appointed for this purpose.

On motion of F. R. Clayton, the courtesies of the house were tendered to ex-Superintendent O. H. Riggs, ex-county superintendents and other school officials who may desire to attend as invited by the members of the convention.

On motion of J. T. Caine, jr., it was decided that the several agents representing publishing houses should each have half an hour to present their claims before the convention.

Recess till 1 p.m.

The Presbyterians and the Chinese Bill.—A Chicago dispatch of yesterday says:

"The Chicago Presbytery passed a resolution thanking President Arthur for vetoing the Chinese bill, because it would prevent the conversion of Chinese to Christianity, and because it was contrary to the spirit of our national institutions."

The ground that the bill was "contrary to the spirit of our national institutions," is all right enough, but the other is absurdly attenuated. Of course the kind of Christianity believed in by the Presbytery is Presbyterianism, and it is no exaggeration of facts to say that the Presbyterian Church is not flooded with Chinese converts. Presbyterian Chinamen would be a novelty. Past experience and observation proves that it is nearly as easy to transform an ox into a horse as to make a Christian of a Chinaman.

If the bill was "contrary to the spirit of our national institutions" that was sufficient ground for the veto without anything additional. To add more than this is like the excuse made to the judge of a court for the absence of a juryman. A friend of the absentee said he was dead, and then proceeded to give a number of other reasons for his non-appearance. The court thought the first was sufficient.

That Musical Experiment.—Mr. Blamphin, the expert performer on the harp, from England, made a trial of the instrument in the Tabernacle this morning. He informs us, as a result of the experiment, that the acoustic properties of the structure for harp-playing, are better than any large hall he ever performed in. He found no difficulty in producing an equalization of sound, the lower or bass notes being as distinct as the higher ones, a fact that we are enabled to verify, having listened to the excellently executed experimental performance. The harp made most delightful music, and the effect was especially beautiful in combination with the sonorous tones of the organ, played by Bro. H. E. Giles, and the plaintive notes of the violin under the skilful manipulation of Brother W. Clive. We have seldom listened to music more enchanting than was produced by this trio.

Escaped from Jail.—The Oxford Enterprise learns that on Saturday evening last, at about 9 o'clock, when Jailer John Davis, of Malad, was engaged in putting four prisoners into their respective cells for the night, they pounced upon, crushed him to the floor, "bucked" and "gagged" him, and tied his hands securely. They then took the keys from him, locked him in the room, and bade good-bye to the city of Malad, at least for a season.

Three of the prisoners thus escaping were in jail awaiting the action of the Grand Jury on the charge of burglary, and the other one was in for selling liquor to the Indians on the reservation. He was awaiting the action of the United States Grand Jury.

Several parties of men are out looking after the escaped prisoners, and Sheriff Homer has telegraphed in all directions, hoping to head them off.

The Crisis Passed. — We learn from Dr. S. B. Young that Mr. Sobell, accidentally injured the other night, has passed the crisis. There is a marked improvement in his condition to-day, and the chances for recovery are largely in his favor.

Adjourned. — The Twentieth Ward Young People's Institute adjourned its session for the season last night. The next meeting will be on the first Thursday of October next.

Missionaries on the Way.—The following dispatch, from Omaha, was received from Elder Joseph A. West, last evening:

"Our party, numbering 33 persons, arrived here safely, after a pleasant journey. All well."

Severe Accident.—This afternoon a man whose name we failed to learn, was severely injured by a powder blast at Pascoe's lime kiln. One of his hands, we are informed, was blown completely off. He was conveyed to the hospital.

Stage Robbery.—By special dispatch, received to-day, from Salina, Sevier County, Utah, we learn that between one and two o'clock this morning, the south-bound United States mail coach was stopped by two highwaymen and robbed. The robbery occurred six miles north of Salina.

LATER.—The following dispatch has just been received:

A party went out this morning to examine the tracks of the parties who robbed the mail and are said to have found very strong circumstantial evidence as to the robbers. A post office detective has been telegraphed for to investigate the matter, and if possible bring the robbers to justice. The mail was brought in by a party coming from Gunnison early this morning. It was scattered around, and all the registered matter taken.

The Strategists.—The Pittsburg Gazette says of the "Strategists," to be presented at the Theatre on Monday night by Haverly's Company:

Viewed from the stand-point that is claimed for the piece, namely, "farcical," it is a complete success, and its rollicking humor and intensely ludicrous complications gave rise last evening to frequent and hearty explosions of mirth. The first act was greeted with audible smiles, the second act with hearty laughter, while the third act culminated in a roar. Mr. Polk, by his spirited acting and wonderful facial expression, was the source of unbounded hilarity and enjoyment. Mr. Harry Linden as "Major Howard," shared the honors with Mr. Polk. Miss Katie Gilbert, Miss Marie Bates and Mr. L. F. Howard also sustained their parts very cleverly, and indeed the whole performance was highly enjoyed.

DON'T WAIT.

The citizens of New York and vicinity have, no doubt, noticed our frequent advice, not to wait until a cough or cold had become thoroughly seated on their lungs, and they were in almost the last stages of Consumption, but take care of themselves in time. "An ounce of prevention is as good as a pound of cure." All Coughs, Colds, Hoarseness, Difficult Breathing and all Affections of the Throat, Bronchial Tubes and Lungs leading to Consumption, can certainly be cured by using HALE'S HONEY OF HOREHOUND AND TAR, an article which is now prepared according to the original recipe of the late Dr. HALE, a celebrated physican of Europe. Sold at all druggists at 50 cents a bottle, or six bottles for $2 50, and at CRITTENTON'S CENTRAL MEDICINE WAREHOUSE, New York. The Large or dollar size sell six bottles for $5, which is the most economical.

BENEFACTORS.

When a board of eminent physicians and chemists announced the discovery that by combining some well known valuable remedies, the most wonderful medicine was produced, which would cure such a wide range of diseases that most all other remedies could be dispensed with, many were sceptical; but proof of its merits by actual trial has dispelled all doubt, and to-day the discoverers of that great medicine, Hop Bitters, are honored and blessed by all as benefactors.
