PROVO.

PROVO, UTAH, SEPT. 10, 1894.

FIRST DISTRICT COURT.

A Heavy Damage Suit Commenced—Criminal Cases Set.

The following business was transacted in the First district court last Friday:

In the case of V. L. Thomas et al vs F. K. Morris, trustee; order for judgment in favor of plaintiffs for $11.50 costs in the Supreme Court.

Andrew Strom was appointed guardian ad litem for Andrew Wm. Maison et al, minors.

In the case of Sarah A. Hansen vs Nephi Hansen; defendant was ordered to pay plaintiff's attorney $25 as counsel fee for plaintiff.

In the case of the First National Bank of Provo vs C. A. Glazier et al; a decree of foreclosure was ordered for the sum of $2,554.17 and $50 attorney fees and cost of court.

A suit has been filed by Kristine Maison and three minor children against the American Eagle Mining company for $20,000. The complaint charges that on the 22nd of November, 1893, Andrew Maison, the husband of Kristine Maison and the father of the three children, was employed by defendants in the Copperopolis Mammoth mine, Tintic mining district. The deceased was about to go from the third to the fourth level of the mine in a skip and signalled the engineer to lower the skip. On account of a defect in the wire by which the bell was rung the wrong signal was given and the engineer moved the skip upwards instead of downward. This caused Maison to be caught between the skip and some timbers and crushed to death. The plaintiff charges negligence on the part of the company in permitting the defective bell to be used, and asks for damages in the sum of $20,000. D. D. Houtz and Robert Anderson are attorneys for plaintiffs.

The following criminal cases to be tried during the September term were set:

United States vs Hiram Dewsnip, adultery, September 18th.

United States vs. Richard Crowther, adultery, September 20th.

United States vs Harriet Hansen, adultery, September 20th.

The People vs W. E. Davis, murder, September 17th.

The people vs Philip Fiet, assault with intent to commit murder, September 19th.

The people vs W. E. Pendleton, burglary, September 19th.

The people vs Charles E. Darsey, grand larceny, September 19th.

The people vs Ah Sing, assault with a deadly weapon, September 19th.

The people vs Peter Greenaugh, forgery, September 20th.

Notes.

The district schools opened today with a good attendance.

The Republican county convention was held Saturday at American Fork, seven delegates to the Territorial convention to be held in Provo tomorrow, Sept. 11th, were elected.

The Democratic county convention for election of delegates to the Territorial convention to be held in Salt Lake City, September 15th, was held last Saturday in Lehi.

Deputy Sheriff Wilkins went to P. V. Junction Saturday and brought down Mrs. L. Hendricks, who had been sentenced to thirty days in the county jail, by Justice Cramer, for disturbing the peace. Mrs. Hendricks is addicted to the use of morphine and liquor, and when under the influence of the two drugs makes things very unpleasant for her neighbors at P. V. Junction.

The Utah County Teachers' association met last Saturday in the B. Y. Academy. Prof. Brimhall delivered an instructive lecture on apperception—new knowledge added to that already in the mind through the act of assimilation. T. R. Lewis addressed the teachers. He explained his determination to labor earnestly for the advancement of education, and especially to promote the interests of the public schools. The speaker urged unity of action among the teachers, and advocated a Territorial board of examiners.

SHELLEY, Sept. 6.—Our meetings are opened again with a good attendance. Being one of the members of this place I can say the folks here are united and feeling well in the Gospel and are willing to help each other by labor and means.

Although somewhat scattered, the folks know the time of meeting and they are to their posts. Elder W. H. Crandall, of this place, spoke to the Saints on Sunday, the 26th. His remarks were upon building each other up and not to find fault.

On the night of the 19th of August a severe thunderstorm passed over the valley. The lightning illuminated the country for miles around, and the darkness was intense throughout. The writer was on his way home and when about two miles on the road got lost and had to retreat to Brother Henry Whittaker's residence, when the rain came down in torrents. Captain Costentine the world three times and Columbus had a hard time in finding a part of the globe, but they would have been smart navigators to have found passage across the fields last Wednesday night.

At 3:30 p. m. the next day the storm renewed its violence, when the rain came down for about thirty minutes as if the whole church had burst asunder. The wind blew a gale from the southwest. The frame of the house of Brother Heber Hansen shook like the mast of a ship running before a heavy gale, but it stood the storm.

Frank Howard of this place dug thirty pounds of potatoes all in vision.

Brother John Amor had about twenty-five to thirty acres of wheat destroyed. Brother Moroni Hess about three acres. Under the pressure we submit to the grounds.

The fruit trees did not suffer much as there are but few here; but we live in hopes to have more. Six months of March ever went out with such fury as did the month of August, '94.

Saturday night, Sept. 1st, the storm broke out with extra violence. Thunder was heavy; the lightning was awfully grand, like a night's fireworks at the Chrystal Palace.

Brother Harry Miller, of Taylor ward, Idaho, met with a wagon accident a few days ago, receiving external and internal injures which caused him much pain.

An 8-year-old daughter of Elder J. F. Shelley fell from a horse a few days ago, receiving a badly dislocated shoulder. The child is improving slowly.

At Basalt Elder John Johnson met with a serious and painful accident a few days ago. He was unloading hay when the horse started to pull up the hay before ready. The horse caught and lodged in the lower part of the barn for some man's stomach, causing a learned woman. Dr. Rosbi Jr. is attending him. Bro. Johnson has nine children and has just removed to Basalt.

At Shelley there was married on August 29, 1894, by W. H. Crandall, justice of the peace, M. Andrew Jackson to Miss Clara A. Anderson, both of Moroni, Utah. A grand repast and entertainment was given in the evening by Bro. O. L. Chesbrough of this place. All wish the young couple a long life and a prosperous one.

Fred Stanley has in preparation a large weighing scales. This will be a great advantage to the farmers. It will save much time and labor.

Last night was a stormy, wet night. It rained steadily all night, putting a stop to farming work for a few days.

Brother Roberts, of this place, is suffering much pain with a cancer on his lip. He has been a member of the Church for forty years.

At Shelley on September 1st there died Dean Wilcocks, aged 6 months and 19 days. He was the son of Bro. and Sister Boyd and Mary Wilcocks. Death was caused by a laceration of the bowels. LOBENZER.

Only $1.50 to Provo and Return, via Union Pacific, Sept. 11th, 12 & 13.

On above dates Union Pacific will sell round trip tickets to Provo at $1.50, good returning until September 13th.

Trains leave Salt Lake 7:45 a. m., 3:00 p. m.

Special train September 11th will leave at 8:30 a. m.

The Union Pacific has been selected as the official line of the Salt Lake delegation to the Republican convention.

AN OPINION GIVEN.

Recently Mr. J. D. Thomas, of North Dakota, visited the Shenandoah Valley, Virginia, and after carefully examining the country located in Winchester, he writes to Mr. V. Richards, Land and Immigration Agent, Baltimore & Ohio Railroad, Baltimore, Maryland, as follows: "I have been in nearly every state and territory of the United States, and am frank in my opinion that this valley surpasses all other sections in the Union. The lands are low in price, and produce prodigious crops. I thank you for directing me here, and submit these nothing pleasant and profitable homes to locate in this country."
