OBITUARY NOTICES.

JOHN C. JONES.

Died at Ogden, Utah, May 12, 1894, of pneumonia, John C. Jones, aged 19 years, 10 months and 12 days. He was sick about four days, but was about to the last day or two before he died. As his mother phrases it, he died from the effects of a cold. The funeral services were held in the Ward Chapel, Elder Joseph Kelly, Bishop E. Dalton, Elder Wm. Jones and Elder Joseph H. Peters being the speakers. The deceased was a son of Brother James, having good relations with his parents, and was a young man who promised much in the world. He was a member of the Priesthood in good standing, and was a faithful young man. He was a good worker in the Sunday School, and was a good boy. He was a good boy, and was a good son, and we feel that he has gone to his reward. We miss him very much, but we know that he is happy. He was a good boy, and we miss him very much, but we know that he is happy. He was a good boy, and we miss him very much, but we know that he is happy. He was a good boy, and we
