TWO VOLUNTEERS HAVE A FATAL FIGHT.

Statements of Troops and Conditions at Manila in San Francisco News from the Arctic Whalers.

Hawkins and Lt. Chester Hawkins, Mrs. C. W. Dilkes, Dr. Parsons responded to the address of welcome made by Mrs. Hallam. A committee was appointed to draft a resolution and act of thanks.

In an inter-regimental baseball match played at the Presidio athletic grounds Monday afternoon the boys of the 23d Company, the First Washington infantry defeated the Fifth-first Iowa infantry by a score of 11 to 10. It was hotly fought, the game was always exciting and well played. The latter had the advantage from an athletic standpoint by which the game should be won. Lowe was in the box in the seventh inning, and Washington caught nearly the same game played and lost a week ago by the top-heavy score of 20 to 2. Lieutenant Colonel Hawkins was detailed by the Fifth California, with the consent of his C. O., Major Sam Jones, to act as umpire.

The schooner Frank A. Garbile is offered for sale at San Francisco by the party of Clayton and Jones (Ltd.) formerly owned by Jones Bros. The vessel came from Gloucester, Mass. She was owned by a company of twenty-two men who intended to use her for a fishing schooner, but changed their minds and decided to go to Alaska. When they found out that she had fortunes, but a general disappointment was felt by the crew, who left the vessel and after each member of the party to be at to present. The expenditure consisted from the Atlantic to the schooner. Charles Lee, Wm. Lee, Alex. M. Dunlap, Hatch L. Dunlap, Jr., Hatch L. Dunlap, Sr., Hatch Dunlap, Jr., Hatch Dunlap, Sr., all met with the other two, and the company of sailors that started for the Alaska gold fields. Hatch Dunlap, Sr., of Columbia, was disbanded before the voyage was half over.

The Arctic whalers are doing well this season, according to news just received in San Francisco. All the vessels which were frozen in and so which relief was sent, have pushed out of the ice with the exception of the Bowhead. Who the ice holds, to from Captain Millard messages that she is coming in a little bay, where she was considered safe. The other ten vessels have reached Cape Lisburne, the Eskimo Arctic, Newport, Beaufort and Wanderer have got out and are now at Point Clarence, also in safe hard to the ice. Point Barrow. The steam whaler Alexander, landed at Icy Cape, is reported all right and is here taking wife which. The Sea Ice & Wanderer has taken over [illegible] and the rest which the bark Diomede had the same number. The steam whaler Wm. Hayden, left Icy Cape for Herschel and the Jeannette Dora, which the Karluk had for. The only bad news is the report of the death of Captain J. A. Tilton of the steam whaler Narwhal. This information is contained in a letter from Mate John Tuna of the Gayhead written at Port Clarence two months ago.

After the departure of the Alliance from San Francisco about the of the New York ship will be left at the Presidio. The understanding is that they will be sent before the end of the month of one of the steamers to Honolulu. The Alliance will convey orders to Capt. F. H. Baile, of the First New York, from Gen. Merriam directing him to assume command of the United States troops arrived at Honolulu and establish a post there. The steamer Honolulu is to convey Battery A, Third United States artillery, to the others and men, to Capt. Michael Alaska, with the rest of the troops. Lieut. Col. Geo. H. McManus will command the battery. Lieut. Colonel Barrett of the Fifth Pennsylvania, who is now in command of the troops from that regiment, has been given permission by the War department, through Gen. Merriam, to go to Manila on one of the regular steamers via Honolulu. The undesirable reason for this permission is said to be owing to the fact that Col. Hawkins of the Fifth Pennsylvania, who is now in the Philippines is in bad health and seeks the assistance of the Bonhomme colonel.

Military Farewell.

On Sunday, the 14th day of August, a large number of Indian soldiers from the Southwestern country with their wives and children, went to Humboldt and held a special meeting at 2 p. m. with the Saints in that place. The occasion was a farewell to Elder Andrew Johnson of Logan, who has been called to preside over the Southwestern mission in place of Elder Ezra T. Benson, who left on Monday for the field of labor, August 17th, 1898.

The Utes through Outlaw country was a delight to all the children of the earlier meeting in the old rock school house. There was a large audience, and the services were conducted by President H. C. Flake, and were successfully enjoyed by the President and Newspaper Inspector, the Spanish Fork Stake President, C. C. Pugsley, C. D. Fjeldsted, N. H. Anderson, Thomas Jones, Jos. Smith, Jos. Smith, Jr., Alma Johnson, who is about to depart on a mission, Elder O. J. Anderson, editor of Historian, Christian Jensen, Peter Anderson and others.

During the interim between meetings the people were entertained by the Spanish Fork Brass Band, which is composed of young men and boys, of which the Saints of the people of Humboldt are little ashamed. Many had brought with them their lunches, which they had set aside for hours and the days of long ago were brought back to life the Saints from past memories of the past.

At the afternoon meeting, at which Bishop David McKay presided, the services were Elder C. E. Peterson, Bishop of the Spanish Fork Stake, President of the Sixth Elder Andrew Johnson, and Elder Anderson of Humboldt. The large meeting house was packed with people to listen to the instructive remarks given.

Humboldt is was a pleasant occasion, which will remain as a day of delight to Elder Peterson on his foreign mission, and as a friendly reunion to the Elders and Saints at home.

LITERARY NOTES.

The doings of our army and navy furnish to many some of the pages of Cahler's Weekly. The frontispiece shows the multitude. Texas, recently passed north by the Pacific, making her way to the Brooklyn navy yard and a group of three and other complaints. Also are to be seen some of the Rough Riders in American scenes. The dolorous part is a drawing by Wenzell, showing the Spanish Sea Bonnet. The cover illustrates the surrender of San Juan. The compared Spanish and American Cervera's Cross and Morro Torres are pointed out by all eyes of those engaged and in service under the American Eye. Hitchcock contributes a picture of the American fleet at Manila, where Commodore Todd, with seven vessels, lies of them large, destroyed the Spanish squadron and transports. Peter Newell continues his series on the Dominican side of the War, or instead at the present time, to the Sunday's Sunrise picture of Sunday's little sing and his mother, the queen regent. Shredder and his cannon are the center of modern Germans are assembled at Sagan and accompanied by an engraving of the portrait painted by Lenbach in 1884 and recently of or all authorities of the best of the many pictures of Bismarck.

Copper Colored Splotches.

There is only one cure for Contagious Blood Poison—the disease which has completely baffled the doctors. They are totally unable to cure it, and direct their efforts toward limiting the poison up in the blood and succumbing to from view. S. S. S. cures the disease positively and permanently by forcing out every trace of the taint.

I was afflicted with a vicious blood disease, which was so severe at times, that I was almost unable to walk. Sometimes I would be so lame I could not move my body. These attacks would last for days, and it is easy to imagine the suffering I endured. Before I became convinced that the S. S. S. would cure me, I had spent a number of dollars, which was really throwing away my money, for I had received no permanent benefit. But after the use of a few bottles of S. S. S. I was greatly improved, and after taking twenty bottles I was entirely free from the disease, and my health was as robust as ever. I can now eat anything I want, and my appetite is good. I was soon entirely well, and my skin is as clear as a child's. H. L. Wyse, 1008 Quincy St., Newark, N. J.

Don't destroy all possible chance of a cure by taking the doctor's treatment of mercury and potash. These minerals cause the hair to fall out, and will wreck the entire system.
