SCHOOL BOARD MATTERS.

Definite Action for a New Building in the Tenth Ward.

Bids Have Been Called for and Work Will Begin Soon—Employment of Specialists.

The city board of education held a protracted and busy meeting last night. The chief business transacted was the selection of a site for a new school building in the Tenth ward and the ordering of bids for the erection of the structure, which will contain eighteen rooms. The plans and specifications are complete and on file in the board's offices. Miss Adelaide Holton, the proficient and successful primary supervisor, was re-engaged for another year. Her re-employment was vigorously opposed by Mr. Thomas, who regarded her as being too severe a disciplinarian. The vote on her engagement was nine for and one against. Miss Alla Wilgus was chosen for the position of physical culture instructor for the coming year. There were two negative votes, Toronto and Woolley.

THE SITE PROPOSITIONS.

The report of the building committee with reference to the selection of a site was as follows:

Your committee on buildings and grounds beg to report that we have had under consideration the following propositions for a school site for the section of the Tenth ward school building, viz:

1. The proposition of G. A. McLean, Woolley, Lund, Judd, et al, to sell to the board part of lots 5 and 4, block 42, plat B, about 145 by 330 feet, Salt Lake City survey, more fully described as follows: 145 feet by 20 rods facing west on Ninth East between Third and Fourth South streets, with alley running from Tenth East west to back end of lot, for the sum of $7,000.

This property is one and one-half blocks from sewer.

2. The proposition of E. J. Swaner, Young & Young agents, to sell to the board 12½ by 10 rods on the corner of Third South and Tenth East streets for the sum of $5,000.

This property is two blocks from sewer.

3. The proposition of Young & Fowler to sell to the board 10 by 15 rods of lot 7, block 21, plat F, on Third South between Tenth and Eleventh East streets for the sum of $1,800.

This property is two and one-half blocks from sewer.

4. The proposition of James Smith to sell to the board 10 by 15 rods of lot 8, block 21, plat B, situated on Tenth East between Third and Fourth South streets for the sum of $1,500.

This property is two blocks from sewer.

5. The proposition of Wilson Simons to sell to the board 10 by 20 rods of lot 5, situated on Ninth East between Third and Fourth South street, with easement through front portion of the lot, for the sum of $5,000.

6. The proposition of Martha B. Cannon to sell to the board lot 7, block 23, plat B, on Tenth East between Fifth and Sixth South streets, for the sum of $3,000. (This property is south of the sewer.)

7. The proposition of H. H. Pincock to sell to the board 10 by 20 rods of lot 6, block 20, plat B, easement running through the rear of lot, on Ninth East and Fourth South streets, for the sum of $6,000. (This property is one block from the sewer.)

8. The proposition of William Hurd to sell to the board all of lot 4, block 30, plat B, fronting west on Eighth East street between Fourth and Fifth South streets, being 20 rods in depth, subject to a mortgage of $4,000 and accept in full payment therefor the present Tenth ward school property, situate on the corner of Eighth East and Fourth South streets, together with the improvements thereon.

Of the several propositions submitted for consideration, your committee are of the opinion that the Hurd proposition is the most desirable one, being well located, and only 330 feet from Fifth South street sewer.

In consideration of this proposition to take in exchange the present Tenth ward property, its close proximity to the sewer and that it can be procured without any present expenditure of money and that all of the one mill tax will be required to erect and prepare the building for occupancy, your committee begs to recommend the adoption of the following resolution:

Resolved by the board of education of Salt Lake City that the proposition of William Hurd to sell to the board all of lot 4, block 30, plat B, Salt Lake City survey for the sum of $6,000, reserving the right to remove building, fruit trees and shrubbery and to accept in full payment the Tenth ward property situated on the corner of Eighth East and Fourth South streets, being more particularly described as beginning at the northeast corner of lot 8, in block 21, plat B, Salt Lake City survey, and running thence west ten rods, thence south ten rods, thence east three rods, thence south one hundred and five and one-third feet, thence east seven rods, thence north fifty-nine and two-thirds feet to the place of beginning, situate in Salt Lake City Utah, for the sum of $3,500, and the board in assume of the remainder of the purchase price the incumbrance on said property to the extent of $4,000, be and is hereby accepted, and that president and the clerk be and are hereby authorized and directed to receive and to execute proper deeds of conveyance and make the exchange after abstract is furnished and title is approved by attorneys of the board.

The report, after being opposed somewhat by Messrs. Cotton, Tyler and Aiff, finally receives a unanimous vote.

MEETING OF THE REFORMERS.

President Lawrence Grant's an Address to the People Giving his Views on Certain Subjects.

The municipal reformers held another meeting last night and listened to the reading of a paper on the municipal reform work of Dr. Parkhurst by Miss Farnsworth, a speech by A. F. Doremus and the following address to the people of the city by Mr. H. W. Lawrence, president of the league:

The Municipal league of Salt Lake City having organized for the purpose of securing to the citizens an honest, pure and economical government by the active co-operation of its members regardless alike of parties, class or political affiliations and aiming to affect these ends by all honorable means, the association does respectfully submit to the citizens and taxpayers, the following for their earnest consideration to the end that the city, county and other officials may take such actions in the premises as may be conducive to the best interests of all concerned, it being the unquestioned right and duty of every citizen in the life interest for the attainment of good government in these important subjects.

One of the most urgent matters demanding consideration is in relation to valuable franchises of vested rights in private corporations, instead of retaining them for the use and benefit of the community at large.

When a large number of leading American and European cities are not merely advocating but actually operating through municipal ownership and control, their own waterworks, gas and electric lighting and street railways, respectively with such other public functions as were formerly operated exclusively by means of municipal commissions, should we not cease to cling to methods that have been tried and found wanting, and continue to be more modern and progressive? Is it that even among the most conservative communities have been demonstrated a practical success? When new improvements and inventions are rapidly increasing the production of all public necessities, thereby materially lessening their cost, we respectfully submit whether our public officials will not demand for the short term of two years should be allowed to mass contracts and grant franchises of vested rights throughout the people without their consent for a much longer period, and terms, too, binding their to increased taxation, when it is plain that the benefit of the people would lighten the burdens that have been so heavily upon them. For a number of years in every one administration of political parties has come increased taxation regardless of the conditions of the people to their financial ability to meet it. The increase of taxes discourages investment in real property, and improvements, that would otherwise be made, and imposes great hardships upon the industrial classes. They might with exactions to good time when we live men of affairs are reaping the rewards of their toil and enterprise, but in these times of general depression, when economy is the watchward in every household, when many are in sore distress to secure revenue for food, clothes and shelter, when labor is without employment and the little property the people have left (in many cases heavily mortgaged, with values steadily decreasing) they should not be required to submit to increased taxation such as now contemplated. We feel assured, therefore, that we but voice the sentiment of a majority of the taxpayers in demanding the enforcement of a rigid economy in every department of state, county, municipal and educational. That all expenditures furthermore be restricted to the very possible point, and the people secure the immunity from increased taxation, until such times as idle labor shall be employed and the business at least partially restored, and for the accomplishment of which we earnestly invoke the aid and support of all good citizens.

THE ICE ORDINANCE.

Business Men's Petition Before the Sanitary Committee, Who Will Inspect Hill's Ice Pond Sunday.

The petition of a large number of business men presented at Tuesday night's Council meeting, protesting against the present ice ordinance and asking that it be amended so as to afford them relief, came up before the sanitary committee last night. J. A. Hill, the owner of the pond at Mill Creek, referred to in the petition, was present and protested against what he termed "an unwarranted" outside inspection of his ice ponds. Sanitary Inspector Greenwald and Dr. Daisy were also present and took the position that Mr. Hill's ice was not fit for the market. Mr. Hill replied, in answer to a question of Councilman Mulvey, that ice had never received a word of complaint from any of his customers, but that many of them had signed his petition. On motion of Councilman Wilcox it was decided that a majority of the committee would visit the ponds Sunday and make a thorough inspection.

Mr. James Rowland of this village states that for twenty-five years his wife has been a sufferer from rheumatism. A few nights ago she was in such pain that she was nearly crazy. She sent Mr. R. when for the doctor, but he had read of Chamberlain's Pain Balm and believe it worth while to try it before the doctor, he went to the store and secured a bottle of it. His wife did not approve of Mr. R. whose purchase at first, but somewhat mollified the Balm thoroughly and in an hour's time was able to go to sleep. She now applies it whenever she feels any sense of a pain and finds that it always gives relief. He says that no medicine which she had used ever did her so much good.
