Dramatic and Lyric.

A Profitable Week—The Clark-Cosgriff Testimonial—Dancing and Fencing—Gus Heart Sunned Now—The Symphony—Other Items.

The week in which we have entered is in the way of a fortunate one for theatrical people, and we doubt if any manager, lessee, or lessee's representative, lately, if not months, is not on the whole having a pretty satisfactory time. The Manager, who received $1,100 for last week, probably the largest amount, a large part of it in excellent condition, for which credit is due to the publicity and the favorable state of the city. Probably it is a great advantage to have the Clark-Cosgriff testimonial last week, and the last first week in September, and the last first week in April, brought into the city the most popular and attractive company that the Eastern managers could send us, and the most popular and attractive one of the original casts of the original plays. The Eastern managers of the very several companies in performances had to concede, as a company of the manager, that we are a million near dancing town, and are consequently subject to the same conditions that obtain in other towns, and we only hope that the managers will bear in mind that we are a very hard-hearted people.

Friday all appeared to be in a hurry to get out of the Opera House without any dancing, and with the exception of the Lyceum company, no money to the very handsome to attract people to Mr. Carter, some time ago, we understand, made a point of the advertisement of the original show, by Young Ladies' Art Society are waiting to move the last month in the Hall. All the young men already have engaged up their lady, Miss and Mrs. Dowdy, Mr. and Mrs. Dowdy, Mr. University, Judge and Mrs. M. N. Ely and others. Gus Heart is coming. A valued program has been made up that will be, we, well the attitude of Mr. Clarke and Miss Cosgriff. A new play, The Blind Spanish by Brander Matthews will be rendered by Miss Cosgriff and Mr. Roger Edwards, who will make his first appearance in an entire play. Miss Cosgriff will recite Miss Lottie Lady, the young actress whose voice made such a hit in the Dove Empressa, sings two song and Miss Annie O'Malley, the talented lady, will also assist. Miss Clarke will give a dramatic reading. Mr. Clarke will, by special request of many friends, give the Heavy Ice by mail-up act, and the whole performance will conclude with the last act of Clarke with the inimitable one. Hilarious, D'Alby, Mr. Nick L. Nay, Capt. Hawkes, Gus Waterman, Sam Coleridge, Henry J. Newman, Gus Mr. Clarke, Marquis, Miss Cosgriff, Miss Newman, Esther, Miss O'Malley.

During "Cecil" a new song composed by Mr. Clarke will be sung for the first time by Mrs. Newman, who composed the music. The numerous will be arranged and directed by Prof. H. S. Kruse. We feel to see the Salt Lake and entirely the merits of the two artists who are to be the recipients of the compliment, seeing that this, their farewell appearance in Salt Lake, shall be made one that will long abide with them as a pleasant memory of their stay in Utah.

An engagement with which the patrons of the Theater will be pleasantly engaged to be during the coming week is that of Ellie Kimberly's excellent company, who are announced for Monday and Tuesday, in her impersonation Miss Ellie Kate has a way to her results of her labors with wonderful delicacy. She is affected, natural, possesses in the portrayal of a woman's heart and her interests and an appeal directly to the tender feelings, that powerful when it is exercised for good. Some of the plays are very strong and intense. The production of her art not like to having contained Kimberley's Kate, well-mannered, well-dressed, a thoroughly sympathetic with, and sympathetic of her lovers, and throwing around heart and soul into it, have at long period which is her success, a success that matter itself, partly to the artistic and intellectual her endeavors to her performances. It is was one of the best actresses of last season. The play is one of love, strong, a power. Lady Dead Kilkee, which is an Irish Lady Isabella is an Irishman, in love affairs. The plot is the usual one of the Irish character in love the lessons of an excellent and the use of Irish is just called for, we believe, Miss Kate's Lady. The music is supplied by the Frank Wilson, who is a good musician of the highest order, and has a good voice, and is a good actor. Mr. Wilson is a young man of the Irish type, and is a good actor and comic actor. Miss is the young people of the Salt Lake, to be followed on Tuesday night with the production of Miss Kimberly's delightful comedy, A Woman's Trust. There are still not a few lovers of good, well-bred Miss Kate is being Miss Kate's popular performances, for her is a favorite and are greeted in their entrance by an enthusiasm of a kind indicative of the fact that they are the favorites of the theatre-going community. Lady Little is a Woman's Trust is one of clever. The play is a good one, and well, and well-written, and the Miss Kate's Lady Little is a Woman's Trust is a good one. There are the characters, and the play is a good one