LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

NOTICE.

To the Elders who expect to start on or about the first day of May for their fields of labor in the Southern States. Elder John Morgan informs us that he expects to meet you in St. Louis on the 6th proximo, and there assign you to your respective fields of labor.

F. D. RICHARDS,
JOSEPH F. SMITH.

Home Mission.—The Home Missionaries of the Stake are requested to meet at the Council House on Wednesday evening, the 28th inst., at 7 o'clock.

The Asylum Commission.—The directors of the Insane Asylum started out this morning on their site-searching tour through this county. They will finish inspecting to-day or to-morrow, and then go on to Provo.

The Immigrants.—A telegram, dated yesterday at Silver Creek, from J. L. Bunting to President Taylor, states that the immigrant company, with returning missionaries, left Omaha yesterday morning, and would probably reach Ogden Thursday night.

Victims of the Slides.—The Junction states that yesterday morning a train of eleven cars came into Ogden from the west, on board of which were the bodies of W. H. Morrill and George Phillips, both victims of the recent disaster on the Central Pacific. The former was destined for Mantua, Ohio, the latter for New York.

Work Started.—Work on the new silk factory, at the mouth of City Creek Cañon, is progressing nicely. The foundation is laid, and brick-laying will begin immediately. The building is to be of but moderate size, yet amply large enough to accommodate all requirements at present. As the silk enterprise grows, as it assuredly will, additions can be made to the factory as needed. The machinery will be run by belts attached to the old saw-mill water-wheel, adjacent to the new building.

Baptisms.—Elder Thomas Jack, who is laboring at present as a missionary in Scotland, writes from Motherwell, on the 1st inst., that since the 10th ult, he had baptized thirteen persons, a mother with four sons and two daughters, four of another family, and two young men besides. The last mentioned met him coming from meeting and desired him to baptize them. Brother Jack speaks encouragingly of the work in that far-off land, and states that he meets with much kindness among the people.

Popular History.—James Dwyer has placed again upon our table the second volume of Knight's History of England, being No. 13 of the Standard Series. We have noticed this cheap edition of standard works several times, and will add that Dwyer is the agent of the publishers for the whole series. They are published at extremely low figures—this number being only thirty cents—with the object of doing away with the trashy literature, which, on account of its cheapness finds its way into the hands of so many young people.

"Enquirer" Notes.—From the Enquirer of the 24th:

Saturday last being the 74th birthday of Father Graves, the sisters of the several ward silk associations of this city sent him a birthday present as a token of their appreciation of his untiring zeal in the advancement of sericulture in their midst.

At a special meeting of the City Council of Provo, held last Thursday evening, Mr. Bullock reported, verbally, that the committee appointed to take into consideration the feasibility of offering inducements to have the proposed Territorial Insane Asylum located in Provo, had made some investigation, and were instructed to continue their labor, and on motion of Mr. Booth, the committee was authorized to use the sum of $500 or so much thereof as may be necessary to assist in purchasing the necessary location.

Pleasant Meeting.—Elder John W. Gardiner, of Pleasant Grove, lately called to go on a mission, describes in a communication dated the 24th inst., a pleasant surprise given him on the previous evening, at his residence in that place, by the members of the Pleasant Grove Choir and other friends and relatives. After a pleasing melange of songs, speeches, recitations, etc., Brother W. M. Frampton, leader of the choir, presented him, as a present from the choir, a nice hymn book and a purse of money, to assist him on his journey into the world as a missionary. Brother Gardiner felt very grateful for the kindness manifested by his friends, and heartily thanked all for their active goodness in his behalf.

"Ours."—The Home Dramatic Club will make their next appearance on Decoration Day, in T. W. Robertson's popular comedy of "Ours." The piece is entirely new to the Salt Lake stage, but has been performed in the principal theatres of Great Britain and America with unbounded success. It is semi-military in character, sprightly and dashing in dialogue, unique in situations and contains points that invariably delight the intelligent lover of the drama. The scenes of the first two acts are laid in England, the third changes to the Crimea, during the war between Russia and the allied powers. The characters embrace a pleasing variety, each of which is a distinctive type, as is the case in most of Robertson's productions, affording good opportunity for the best of acting. One of the most exciting and attractive features of the play is the invisible military parade in the second act, with its martial music, tramp of armed men, and the inspiriting etceteras incidental to pieces of this description. The cast and further particulars will be furnished hereafter.

A Persistent Jail-Breaker.—Wilbar the imprisoned tramp, who, since his consignment to the City chain gang, has made several cunning but ineffectual attempts to shuffle off his durance vile, made the latest exhibition of his desperate ingenuity between Saturday night and Monday morning. Had his discretion been equal to his cunning, he would, in all probability, have succeeded in escaping from custody. Unfortunately, for him, he confided his plan of operations to a fellow prisoner named Smith, who revealed the facts to the Jailor when he came into the cells Monday morning, to take the inmates out and put them in charge of the Street Supervisor for the day. During Saturday night and the time when it was discovered, Wilbur succeeded by some means in cutting asunder the heavy iron anklet that bound the chain to his leg, and tied it nicely in its place, temporarily, with a piece of buckskin string. His intention was, after getting out upon the road as usual, and finding himself unobserved by the guard for a moment, to drop his chain and skip away. This he told to his companion in misery, Smith, who has been on his good behavior since his incarceration, hoping thereby to obtain a commutation of his sentence, and who, as stated, revealed the plan to the jailor. The iron band around Wilbur's ankle had been nicely cut with a chisel of some kind. He says it was a cold chisel, and that fearing detection before he effected his escape, he had sent it out in a bucket of slops. The chisel, however, has not yet been found. Wilbur now has an iron on him that will require more force and ingenuity than he has yet displayed to remove from his person.

A New Convert.—We had the pleasure this morning, of an introduction to Brother Wm. G. Heberhart, late of Madison, Indiana, who arrived in Salt Lake last evening, having left his home, parents and friends behind, to unite his fate with the Latter-day Saints. He is quite a young man, and a druggist by profession. Several years ago he read an article in Harper's Weekly, reflecting on the "Mormons" and their religion, and was induced thereby to learn more of the "peculiar people." He had never heard of an Elder of this Church passing through his native town, and was at a loss to know where he could obtain accurate information of the kind he desired, of a source nigh at hand. He was finally advised to send to Utah for a copy of Eliza R. Snow's Poems. He did so, and was so much interested in reading the work that he opened a correspondence with its author. This continued for two years. Last season he came to Utah, was convinced of the truth of what the world calls "Mormonism," and determined to embrace it as his religious faith. He returned home, arranged his affairs, parted with his parents and relatives, who bade him good bye with their blessing, and came back to Zion. We welcome our young brother into the fold of the true Shepherd, and are confident he will never regret obeying the whisperings of that Spirit, which leads the humble and pure-hearted into all truth.

The Double-Headed Lady.—The two-headed lady and the midget gentlemen will be shown here for the first time to-morrow evening. They have been exhibiting in Ogden. The Junction speaks of the entertainment as follows:

"We dropped in briefly on the show of the two-headed lady and the Liliputians this afternoon, and are prepared to endorse all that we have read concerning the marvellous character of these great freaks of nature—for such they certainly are. The lady is a full-blooded African, and the dwarfs are the smallest human beings of their ages on record. All speak intelligently in several languages, and the only particular in which they differ from intellectual beings of the ordinary type is in their malformation."

Fell in a Fit.—Bishop Wm. H. Hickenlooper, of the 6th Ward, fell in a fit this morning, and is reported to be in bed in a weak condition. He walked up to the depot early, to see some missionaries off by the 7 o'clock train, and on returning home after a brisk walk and while sitting in his chair talking to a neighbor, reeled out upon the floor in a spasm of some kind, and injured his face pretty badly. It was too late, when we learned of it, to make further inquiries respecting the matter. We trust it is nothing serious, and that our venerable and beloved brother, who is now in the neighborhood of 70 years of age, may soon be around again, as well and cheerful as ever.

Discharged on Conditions.—Alexander Sarre, the plumber who was arrested last week for tampering with the city water works without a license, on Saturday, had his case so arranged that on condition of his taking out a license and filing a bond therefor at an early day, the charge against him should be dismissed on his paying costs. So it rests. Should he fail to file his bond, he will plead guilty to the offense with which he was charged.

Horrible Murder.—The following special to the News comes over the wires from Toquerville, Kane County. It was received this morning:

"Mary Parker, aged sixty-two years, was found yesterday about two miles from her home in Springdale, in this county, with her throat cut. She was enticed from her home last Friday, since which time search was made until she was found. Suspicion rests upon a young man named Dalton, as there is strong circumstantial evidence against him. Examination to-day."

Backward Spring.—Brother Daniel K. Greene writes from Escalante, Iron County, under date of the 8th inst., that a backward spring was being experienced in that locality as elsewhere. It still froze every night, with heavy cold winds during the day. Considerable grain had been sown, but could not grow. Health of people good.

Personal.—Mr. Alex. P. Murgotten, publisher of The Pioneer, of San Jose, Cal., is in town, on his way to the East to attend the convention of the Knight of Honor, to which he is a delegate from California. This is the gentleman's first journey outside of the Golden State, and we wish him a pleasant and prosperous trip.

Caleb Plummer.—This popular elocutionist and humorous character delineator, who has before delighted the public of Salt Lake with his amusing sketches and recitations, will make one more appearance in this city, while on his farewell tour. To-night, at the Congregational Church, "at the serene hour of 8," the entertainment will "begin to occur." Plummer's "Widow Bedott" is one of the finest and most skilful representations we have ever seen. Besides this he has a whole repertoire of others, of equal merit. His entertainment is bound to draw.

These days no one is safe from the charge of plagiarism. Brown went to church last Sunday—a thing unusual!—and upon being asked his opinion of the clergyman, said: "Oh, his sermon was very good; but that prayer beginning with 'Our Father,' I think he stole entire. I know I have heard something somewhere that it was strangely like."—Boston Transcript.

IT IS TRULY WONDERFUL

TO SEE what improvements now exist as compared with railway travel only a few years ago. To become convinced of this, one has only to select for his route East, the popular and well-known

CHICAGO & NORTHWESTERN RAILWAY.

You are landed by the Union Pacific R. R. in the Union Depot at Council Bluffs, where stands the C. and N.-W. Pacace train, composed of Pullman Hotel Cars, Pullman Sleeping Cars, elegant Day Coaches, Smoking Baggage, Postal Cars, etc., ready to convey its passengers through Iowa and Illinois, and into Chicago. Gliding smoothly along over the superb track of steel rail through thriving cities and villages, comfortably seated in this train, one scarcely discovers the high rate of speed which he is riding. Trains of this road are always on time, connections sure, and passengers seeking pleasure, comfort, safety and ease in traveling, will find the "North-Western" in excess of their expectations, and the greatest of all routes to Chicago and the East. Insist upon Ticket Agents selling you Tickets via this road; all Agents sell them. Examine your Tickets, and refuse to buy if they do not read over this Road. If you wish the best Traveling Accommodations, you will buy your Tickets by this Route, AND WILL TAKE NO OTHER. dswly
