ROBBERY SUSPECTS GO FREE.

Men Arrested on Suspicion of Being Connected With Daynes Burglary Are Turned Loose.

In Judge Dichl's court this morning several state cases were disposed of. George Webber, Grace Taylor, Margurate Kayler, Pearl Evans and Louise Smith were up for trial on the charge of disturbing the peace on a Murray street car several nights ago. About a dozen witnesses were examined and testified that some of the ined and testified that some of the accused created a disturbance by loud and boisterous conduct and fight-ing. The testimony was principally against the Taylor girl who, it is al-leged, struck the conductor in the face and roundly cursed him. The young woman declared that it was her siz-ter who caused the trouble. Webber failed to put in an appear-ance when his name was called and Judge Dichl promptly ordered his bond of $50 forfelted. PRELIMINARY EVENT.

The preliminary event to purple day took place at 7 o'clock iast evening when the big automobile parade took place. Secy. Raybould had 210 ma-chines registered but they did not all show up. In spite of this fact the parade was the biggest kind of a suc-cess. The machines were decorated with purple and white and carrying the Elks' emblems. The sight was an imposing one and thoroughly enjoyed by the thousands who lined the side-walks along the line of march. The prize winners will be announced at Saltair this evening. The judges practically made their decisions last evening but they refuse to tell what conclusion 'hey arrived at, and the names of the judges will not be di-vulged.
