OGDEN.

Peculiar Justice—Shipping Floor to China —Other Interesting Junction City News.

Special Correspondence.

Ogden, March 8.—Justice Justice Hulaniski discharged three vagrants yesterday and warned them to leave town. This was an unusual proceeding on the part of the Justice and was taken by him to check the plan of the city marshal to resort to employ city prisoners on the public works. The prisoners who were discharged had been placed in charge of a member of the street committee, and were under orders to proceed under guard to the city cemetery to work on the grounds. Justice Hulaniski said: "Every citizen responsible for his ticket in the recent election, every man who voted the Union ticket and the parties promised the laboring men that these men should not work on the streets or public grounds, and party promises should be worth something. I'll see to it that they don't have many prisoners."

SHIPPING FLOUR TO CHINA.

Some time ago the Ogden Milling and Elevator company received an order for 1,000,000 pounds of flour for shipment to Hongkong, China, but was unable to fill it on account of lack of transportation by steamer from San Francisco. Yesterday Mr. Lindley, the company's manager, telegraphed that he had secured steamer room for 100 tons of flour and ordered the immediate shipment by rail to San Francisco.

BUYING WHISKY FOR AN INDIAN.

Two Hungarians rushed came to town and bought some whiskey for an Indian. The man for whom they were buying came here after their arrest and complained to the police justice that they did not know it was contrary to law to sell the whiskey. The justice told the law to the boys. Fined them $5 and discharged them.

FUNERAL OF MRS. THIRZA ROSE HIGGS.

Ogden, March 8.—The funeral services over the remains of Mrs. Thirza Rose Higgs were held in the meeting house at Farr West at 11 o'clock today, the day last. The large assembly, which met to pay a tribute of respect to the memory of the entombed lady, was addressed by Bishop Martin, Elder William J. Larkins, Bishop Levi J. Taylor and President C. F. Middleton. Each speaker testified to the purity of her life, her happiness character, her integrity to truth. An interesting sermon followed the remains to the Ogden City cemetery, where they were laid to rest.

PROVO.

Acknowledgments from the Boys at Manila—Other Garden City News.

Provo, March 8.—The Provo boys at Manila have sent the following letters to Provo friends. The money and letter referred to were sent by a committee who gave a party for the benefit of the volunteers last December. The letters read as follows:

Manila, Jan. 29, 1899.

Mr. Herman S. Martin, Provo, Utah.

Dear Sir—Your letter of December 8th with enclosure of P. O. money order for $23.35 was duly received. This amount was equally divided among the twenty-two Provo boys, each receiving $1.14.

Quite a number of newspapers and periodicals have arrived and will be greatly appreciated by us all.

With best wishes for yourself and of dear old Provo's citizens, I am,

Yours very truly,
Corp. J. A. Rothard.

Manila, P. I., Jan. 24th, 1899.

To our many friends in Provo, Utah:

Your holiday remembrance reached us yesterday and found the entire twenty-two of us in good health, and while we claim to be as right to our country at large as the volunteers from any other state in the United States, we are especially loyal to our dear old Provo.

The citizens of Provo have honored us in many ways. They gave us a great send-off on our departure. Their committee followed us to Camp Kent to bagpipe after us in good cheer and comfort. They followed us to San Francisco with good cheer and good wishes. Their many solicitous letters reached us in the trenches at Camp Dewey and scarcely had we stretched our blankets in Manila until another batch of letters from home made our hearts glad and our hardships lighter, and now when the holidays come you followed us on our long journey with another kindness reward. For all these favors we thank you from the bottom of our hearts, not only for the generous gifts but for the nice way in which they were sent, for, as far as we can learn, Provo is the only city which honored an enlisted man with distributions of holiday presents.

W. G. KIRKBRIDE'S MISSING.

W. G. Kirkbride of the Second ward left for Soodsville February 28th on business as a sewing machine agent. He has not been heard from since and his family are anxious on his account. Telegrams sent to Soodsville have failed to bring any information regarding him. It was thought that the stranger found dead at Fort Wee last week might be Mr. Kirkbride and a reference was sent to examine the body, but found it was not that of the Provo man.

FUNERAL OF MINDY BAILIFF.

The funeral over the remains of the late Sidney Bailey was held in the Second ward meeting house yesterday. There was a large attendance, the services followed the remains to the cemetery. The following brethren addressed the congregation, speaking words of comfort and consolation to the bereaved relatives: Bishop Holdaway, Evan Webb, S. S. Jones, David John, Philander Brown and Alex Wilkins.

A SAD AFFLICTION.

Little Owen Ballock the 10-year-old son of John Ballock, died last evening. About a month ago one of his legs had to be amputated below the hip, the bone being first diseased. This was supposed to have been caused by tenderness from a fall on the ice some months ago. Now he is suffering severe pains in the remaining leg and it is feared an amputation may be necessary. An examination as to the condition of the bone will be made today.

Address, Memory Culture ..... Prof. Thomas Nature Study ..... Miss Petersen

Campbell & Morrell, the Main street clothiers, have purchased the tearing down of the old Farrer building, which with the ground upon which it stands was recently purchased by them. As soon as the debris is cleared away the erection of a new brick business block will be commenced.

Carl Petersen, a young man who while recovering at the Thatcher opera house was accidentally injured and injured by some scenery falling upon him yesterday.

We have been enjoying the most beautiful spring weather for the past few days, and the farmers are actively preparing for spring work.

Dr. George P. Phillips of Wellsville resident here for the purpose of securing a license to practice medicine without a license came up for trial this afternoon, which at this writing is in progress. The defendant was fined $25 in a similar charge last summer.

TRIAL OF DR. PHILLIPS.

Special per Deseret Telegraph:

Logan, Utah, March 8.—At the trial of Dr. George P. Phillips for practicing medicine without a State license, Mide Larsen, the main witness for the prosecution, was on the stand and deliberately testified contrary to his statements made off the stand, and as he was the state's main witness they could not impeach him, although two physicians were ready to testify that he was not worthy of belief. It was somewhat exciting trial, Dr. Phillips was discharged.

The Max Bendix concert at the B. Y. college last night was a grand artistic success. Although the attendance was not as large as could be desired, it was owing to other attractions in the city.

Father William Beech, an aged and well-known citizen of Logan, passed away last night. Deceased was a native of England, but endeared here for many years past. He has been blind for many years.

A nine-pounds son of Mr. Robert Sweeten of Weber, amalgamated clerk of the Second ward, and Miss Ethel Hall, only blessed last night. A boy's twin was born to the same parents and died soon after the stirring pest on the day of the father's birth. When passing the boy the fond father was struck down by the pest, and was soon laid low in the bed, badly frostbitten the right at the base of the brain. Surgical aid was promptly administered and he has passed a favorable night, although his injuries are considered very serious.

KAYSVILLE.

First Annual Reunion of the Layton Family on Tuesday.

Special Correspondence.

Kaysville, March 8.—The Utah members of the family of the late President Christopher Layton not been postponed their first annual reunion. March 6, 1899, was the anniversary of his birthday, and it is the present intention of the family to make such anniversary of that day in the future, in such a manner that a knowledge of the character and life work of this notable event in the life of their good father will be kept fresh in the memories of his numerous posterity.

When President Layton died late on August 13th, he left a will now within a having a family reunion on March 6 beyond. About 30 of these children were present at the reunion yesterday, and with their wives, husbands and children, and close family connections, it formed a company of nearly 50 persons, including Bishop Hyrum, special invitation President John W. Taylor, Elder Walter Stalker, Bishop of Kaysville and Mrs. Stalker, Elder Harper and Thomas F. Smith.

The evening was held in the Kaysville meeting hall, and at 8 o'clock the family and guests assembled therein. Turner the meeting a program was rendered, opening with a prayer by God We Name to Thee." Elder John Henry Layton presided. Prayer by Mrs. L. Ewan welcomed the guests and then Bishop David E. Layton, who was in charge of the program, called upon President Taylor to address the meeting. President Taylor said he was a member of President Layton in the Mormon Battalion, and he spoke highly of the member they were called upon to make in order that the loyalty of the Layton family to the Church of Christ might be proved. He admonished the family to live in the footsteps of their father, who life was consecrated to the building up of God's work upon the earth.

The other speakers were Elders Alex Layton, Joseph H. Dean, John R. Miles, William Peasley and Bishop Hyrum, each of whom had been associated with Elder Layton in his labors while he resided in Utah. A song was rendered by Mrs. Sarah Taylor, an instrumental selection by Mrs. Annie Layton and a duet was sung by Mrs. Ida Layton and Mrs. Annie Layton.

An excellent dinner had been prepared and was and was served at the meeting hall, and to the delight of grandchildren of Elder Layton furnished the principal part of the program of songs, recitations etc., ending with a pantomime and tableau, "Scares My God to Thee."

Discussion for the young folks in the form of dancing was enjoyed during the afternoon. Altogether the affair was most enjoyable, and the good spirit enjoyed by those who were present, but mingled with the pleasure was a sense of sadness at the reflection that the husband and father, whose memory was home honored, was not present to rejoice with his loved ones. The work he performed, however, in subduing the wilderness in Utah are Arizona, and building homes and farms in desert places, will remain as enduring evidences of his thrift and industry, and in generations to come his posterity will have pleasure in assembling to honor his memory. Yesterday was a very good thing is said of him the subject is deserved.

A crack shooter of the Layton family resides in Arizona. They were expecting to celebrate the day in Thatcher, Arizona, yesterday.

RICHFIELD.

Will Maintain High School—The Sugar Propaganda—County Business.

Special Correspondence.

Richfield, Sevier Co., March 7.—The Citizens' meeting, held last Friday evening for the purpose of ascertaining whether or not the Richfield Union High school resulted in a glorious victory for those favoring the proposition. In fact most of the people in favor of the school arose from a misunderstanding in relation to it.

A Farmers' Club was organized here Friday evening for the purpose of experimenting in sugar beet culture the coming season. Mr. Jones of Salt Lake Emerson of Gunnison met our citizens on the evening named and explained the system to be pursued. The beets are to each town if we expect to get a sugar factory in this locality. The organization consists of the following officers: President, Wm. Ogden, secretary, Geo. Ireland, George Christensen, R. C. Peterson and W. C. D. Peterson, directors.

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS.

The board of county commissioners met yesterday and transacted considerable business of importance to the county, among which was the following: The joint report of the county auditor and treasurer was considered and approved.

The application of the H. G. W. to have their R. R. declared to be from this county on account of respective mileage of rolling stock was discussed, and the county commissioners decided to reply to the company concerning the same.

The boundary line between the Glenwood and Richfield school districts was changed in favor of the latter.

A freeholder was granted the Salina Telephone company the right to erect and maintain a telephone line between Salina and Richfield.

The bond of Constable Hatch, filing in the court room was set to Old Land.

J. E. Stewart, Esq., was appointed deputy county attorney upon recommendation of County Attorney Erickson, at a salary of $25 month.

Claims against the county were allowed amounting to $1,000.

Clement A. Hayes issued a license to and married John Wint of Gunnison, aged 23, and Sarah Amanda Baker of Joseph City, aged 17. The Prince Bros. and people go at once to Alabama to make their fortunes.

Spring is here in very deed—it is so warm as summer.

The arrangements for our soldier boys arrived this evening. They will be presented on the evening of the 17th, when Gov. Wells will be with us.

ELSINORE.

The "scandal" of the Herald's Richfield correspondent is Denied.

Special Correspondence.

Elsinore, March 5.—That was a great surprise sprung upon the people of Elsinore on Monday evening, by the attachment of a paragraph in the Richfield reveler must have got up late early the day he sent that news item to the Herald and wrote it with both eyes shut. It would be well for some of these reporters to at least open up a little know what they are talking about. "Something" has been going on in Elsinore of late, but the nearest relations of those implicated in the Herald article claim to know but very little about it, and that definite has not developed. Peter Christensen, whose name appears in the morning paper, stated to a "News" reporter today that he never went to the county attorney for advice, nor attorney while in Richfield last Saturday; that he did not speak to any one about it, and further claims no part in that scandalous article. The person who wrote the article must be found out and no doubt will be dealt with as he deserves.

LEVAN.

Farmers Union Organized—Other Local Items.

Special Correspondence.

Levan, Juab county, March 8.—The farmers held a convention in the Levan meeting house, March 4th, and completed the organization of their union by the election of the following officers: Joseph W. Freeman, president; John M. Thomson and Edwin Malmgren, vice presidents, John Morgan secretary and treasurer, Nels Anderson and assistant secretary, John Morgan, business manager. From all appearance the organization will soon develope into a flourishing business.

A grand surprise party was given on Miss Truie Freeman and Mr. Vivid McClure on the evening of March 6th, at the residence of M. J. T. Jensen. The young and middle aged people participated, enjoyed themselves in dancing, reading and playing various games until late in the morning.

Mrs. Christiana Christensen has been visiting the last week or so at Salina (Iron and friends in Cedar City, Bishop Cox, Utah.

The Hope Dramatic company played before the people in the Levan opera house on the evening of March 7, that night Wednesday. The Two Orphans, Burnside, were well rendered and were much appreciated by the audience.

Bishop Cox and lady last week or so has been very pleasant and the prospects for the farmers the coming season is excellent.

LOA.

A Quarrel and Shooting Affair Over a Game of Cards.

Special Correspondence.

Loa, Wayne Co., March 6.—On Saturday afternoon there was a shooting affair in the Bishop Johnson's school, Ed Thomas, a sheepman of Fremont, and John Lane, a traveling baker, quarreled over a game of cards. Lane claimed that he beat Thomas and he would have to pay up the drinks. Thomas drew a pistol and shot at Lane, but missed him. He then told Lane he would have to pay the drinks he would get the next one between his eyes. Mr. Lane paid for the drinks Thomas left the saloon, went out on a horse and started through the valley to the resident at Antone. Thomas is under arrest and will have a hearing Tuesday in Justice Grundy's court.

BENSON.

A Prosperous and Growing Settlement—A New Church Edifice.

Special Correspondence.

Benson, Cache Co., March 1.—The community of Benson are nearly all farmers and stockmen. Times are good as a rule are healthy and well to do. There is no sickness here at present where a few years ago it was rife.

The people are going to build a fine commodious meeting house this coming summer. The site for the foundation and also the sand are on the ground, and our building committee are men that will make the work about. The seating capacity of the house will be six hundred.

We have recently had two missionaries from Salt Lake county, brothers Garvin and Wright, in behalf of the T. M. I. A., and they have done a good work.

We have had a very long winter. Snow has been on the ground ever since the 12th of November, and it is still snowing. There are about ten inches of snow on the level now.

HEBER.

Lecture by Reuben Clark—Death of John Christensen.

Special Correspondence.

Heber City, Wasatch Co., March 8.—Before the capital meeting of the Mutual Improvement associations last Sunday evening a very interesting and instructive lecture was delivered upon the subject of Man, by Elder Reuben Clark of Salt Lake City, who is teaching the High school in Heber this winter.

On Sunday afternoon about 3 p.m., John Christensen died at the ripe old age of 87 years. He was a well known and respected citizen and pioneer of the valleys. He was born in the city of Jerusalem and Elizabeth Christensen, and was born in Hoskinsville, Maryland, Feb. 7, 1812. He came to Utah in the year 1848, and then to Utah in 1851. Settled in Provo city in 1851 and from there he moved to Heber in the year 1859, where he has since resided. His funeral was held on Tuesday in the Heber Stake tabernacle, and was very large and very impressive. The speakers were Bishop Todd, John Duke and Thomas Hicken Jr.

OUR NEIGHBORS.

FAIRVIEW, IDAHO.

Old Folks and Widows Honored in the Usual Manner.

Special Correspondence.

Fairview, Idaho, March 8.—On Tuesday, the 7th instant, the Fairview ward held a social for the benefit of the people in attendance at the center of the ward, which is about six miles square. At 11 o'clock a. m. the people began to assemble, coming through sleigh, and and some, quite a few, on foot. Tables were spread and loaded down with the bounties of the land. At 1 o'clock the assembly was called to order by President Joseph W. Rowley and an address of welcome and blessed the repast. After the sumptuous dinner had been partaken of a free program was rendered consisting of music, song, speeches, etc. It was the fullest old folks' party ever given in Fairview, or ever seen. All were anxious for the comfort of their neighbors. There were present Elder Joseph Geddes of the Bear Lake Stake presidency, and Bishop M. W. Pratt (one of the late Apostle Parley P. Pratt). In the evening a ball and supper took place at the dancing pleasure days in the old folks' time to a cause.

Those who inaugurated these old people's entertainment, and hardly realize the amount of good that is being accomplished by thus bringing the old folks together in the social manner and ways of Zion. Many had begun to think the old time spirit of Zion had gone, but it is not, and the old people in the center Bishop, but the veterans throughout Zion can be proud that there is yet one that old time spirit of Zion. The funerals of John were held, several their sons and daughters and thus the lady lives ever again. In going over the B. Brighton (both dead). They were the last of the first three to die in Zion, and taking a deeper hold are behind at the Bear Lake Stake, and thus the old folks and their children are conducting this great work throughout Zion.

FRANKLIN, IDAHO.

Death of James Chadwick, a Pioneer of Franklin.

Franklin, Oneida Co., Idaho, March 5.—On Sunday morning last, at his home, Brother James Chadwick, at his home in Preston, passed away on Monday night, after a long and lingering illness with an apoplectic fit also on his way home from the hall of the old folks' party. He was taken to his home in an unconscious condition, and never rallied from the effects of the fit, although everything was done to revive him.

Brother Chadwick was well respected by all who knew him. He was one of the pioneers of Franklin, coming here with his parents when he was a youth. He bought him a farm at Whitney and when that settlement was broken up into a ward he was made Bishop, he served in that capacity for a few years, and then moved into Preston, where he lived the remainder of his life, and his children could be numbered in the academy. At his death he was one of the Board of directors of the Preston High Council of the Stake, and member of all good works.

The funeral services over the remains of Brother Chadwick were held in the large room of the academy today. The speakers were Bishop Budge, President Jesse B. Nash, Bishop John Lucas of Preston, President Hyrum Hale, Bishop Hale and President George C. Parkinson. All spoke of the excellent character and good works of the deceased, and words of consolation to the bereaved family. A large college of people followed the remains of the dead to its cemetery, where they were laid to rest.

Don't Try To Drink

a case of love in one day. Be moderate and you'll soon see a change for the better. It's surprising and health-giving—that is the Krug kind. Adulterated beer is injurious.

Krug Cabinet Beer

is made of nothing but the finest Bohemian (imported) hops—mind you, NOT DOMESTIC—Bohemian—and the purest water. Nothing else. That's why it makes pure beer. And the kind that has so much nourishment. "You can't get healthy and strong under its beneficial influence."
