PLEASING TO SPAIN.

Cleveland's Proposed Message on American Losses in Cuba.

A LONG-DESIRED OPPORTUNITY.

The Madrid Government Will Then Have an Excuse for Taking Notice of the Doings of Congress.

NEW YORK, March 23.—A dispatch to the World from Madrid says:

It is an open secret that the government will be much pleased if President Cleveland sends a message to Congress regarding American losses in consequence of the rebellion in Cuba. Such a message will not only give to the Madrid government a long-desired opportunity to take official notice of what has been going on of late in the United States and Cuba, but it will furnish a pretext for taking the following steps:

First—Sending a note clearly stating to the United States government Spain's intention to put down the rebellion in Cuba exactly as America did the rebellion in the Southern States—that is to say, without tolerating any foreign interference even in the form of mediation, and without taking the slightest notice of any recognition of Cuban belligerency except to regard it as a future reason for insisting upon a stricter regard for neutrality and the principles of international law than the United States has manifested even while considering the Cubans as simple rebels against a friendly power.

Second—Sending a memorandum to foreign governments, especially European powers, setting forth that Spain is defending a common cause of European nations—theirs as well as her own—against American interference and the pretensions of the Monroe doctrine.

Third—Claiming on the eve of a general election the policy of the Canovas cabinet has been vindicated, thus calling the onus of a conflict on the United States, as Senor Canovas, since March, 1895, has done everything in his power to avert a rupture of cordial relations between Spain and the United States.

Gov. Morton's Platform.

NEW YORK, March 23.—J. Sloat Fassett and Sereno E. Payne were among today's arrivals of prominent Republicans who will participate in the state convention tomorrow. Mr. Fassett is actively working up the presidential candidacy of Gov. Morton. Mr. Payne is said to be slated for an elector-at-large.

T. C. Platt kept his room all forenoon on the plea of indisposition.

Adherents to the McKinley boom circulated among the delegates tonight and induced many of them to attend the mass meeting held in the Ohio ex-governor's honor.

The fact that Gov. Morton had not only signed that Raines liquor tax bill, but had also endorsed it, made some of the city members rather willing to be approached by the agents of the Ohio candidate, and many expressions of disgruntlement were heard.

It has been decided by the leaders that there shall be no mention in the platform of anything connected with state affairs, except the indorsing of the administration of Gov. Morton. It has been thought that it would perhaps be well to have a separate motion indorsing the Raines bill, but the leaders are afraid of a demonstration upon the subject. The platform, which is in Senator Lexow's keeping tonight, is quite brief. It favors a sound currency on a gold basis; reaffirms the tariff policy of protection, but asks that it be so guarded as not to prove monopolistic in any sense, while still protecting American industries. This, in brief, besides the indorsement, is all that is to be said in the resolutions.

BOERS PREPARING FOR WAR.

Feeling Against England in the South Africa.

NEW YORK, March 23.—A dispatch to the World from Capetown, South Africa, says: The Transvaal is being fortified, the Burghers are arming to the teeth, and other warlike preparations are being made. Eight forts are being built at Pretoria, the capital. Hostility to Great Britain is openly and freely expressed at Pretoria. Emissaries have been sent to the Orange Free State and to Cape Colony, it is reported, to stir up race feeling. Germany, Austria and France, it is said here, will guarantee the independence of the Transvaal, if necessary.

President Krueger will not go to England after all. He declines to accept Colonial Secretary Chamberlain's invitation to visit London and confer with the British authorities with reference to Transvaal affairs, but the Boers object. Mr. Krueger left the question to be decided by the Volksraad (legislature), which refused to grant him permission to go. This caused demonstration on the Rand.

The Star, in a leader, speaks of it as "flouting the English government."

Farrar, Phillips and other members of the Johannesburg reform committee, arrested on a charge of treason, are still under surveillance at Pretoria, not being allowed to go to the Rand.

DEBATE IN THE REICHSTAG.

The Socialist Leader Accused by the Minister of War.

BERLIN, March 23.—In the Reichstag today a question was asked regarding the publication, without authority, in January last, by the Vorwaerts, of the secrecy decree. The minister of war, Gen. Bronsart Von Schellendorf, replied that Socialist workmen had been induced to steal it by their socialist tenets, and therefore socialism connived at theft.

The general proceeded to deliver an indictment against the principles of the Socialists, and cited a number of cases in support of his assertions. He declared, for instance, that Herr Bebel, the Socialist leader, had frequently allowed men to tell him lies and then came to the Reichstag as the mouthpiece of gross untruths. His (Bebel's) assertion of arbitrary conduct and injustice in the army, said the general, were unfounded. The army, he insisted, was above these charges and attacks. [Cheers from the conservatives.]

During the course of a stormy debate on the subject which followed, the president of the Reichstag frequently called Herr Bebel to order for violent language. The latter asserted that the court which sentenced the publishers of the secrecy decree was biased, and he accused the conservatives of supporting rascality.

Boutner Expects to be Re-elected.

WASHINGTON, March 23.—Whatever Pacific railroad bill is presented to the House probably will be the joint production of the House and Senate committees. The sub-committee of five appointed by Chairman Powers is waiting for the Senate committee to select a similar body to meet it before it begins work, and it is expected that joint conferences will be held in a week. It is understood that Speaker Reed will not select a successor to Mr. Boatner of Louisiana on the committee for several reasons. Mr. Boatner, who was unseated last week, confidently predicts that he will be re-elected at the special election to be held within the month, and will again take his seat in the House and resume his committee work. A member who had not given particular attention to the question would be at a disadvantage in the committee at this time, because there have been many hearings and committee decisions which he would have missed and which would be somewhat essential to a complete understanding of the matter. In the last Congress Boatner led the opposition to the funding bill and his views are unchanged, so that the California delegation, which is working for foreclosure, is anxious for his detention on the committee.

Flowers for Blackburn.

WASHINGTON, March 23.—Senator Blackburn's return to the Senate today, after the exciting and fruitless senatorial contest before the Kentucky legislature, was signaled by an unusual demonstration by his colleagues. On the senator's desk was the most mammoth and elaborate floral design ever brought to the Senate, rising twelve feet from the floor and overhanging the desks of Senators Walthall and Vest on either side. The main design represented the coat-of-arms of Kentucky, with two huge dolls clasping hands as the central figures, around which were worked the state motto, "United We Stand, Divided We Fall." Above this was a large horseshoe of La France and Pearle Roses, while below and around were great sheaves of oak leaves and lilies of the valley. The whole was topped with widespreading branches of American beauty roses. The tribute came from Mr. Blackburn's senatorial associates. Several other large designs were from personal friends.

Arms Landed on Cuba.

TAMPA, Fla., March 23.—Letters were received today from persons connected with the Collazo expedition, stating that on the 17th inst., while in sight of the Matanzas shore, three Spanish warships, the Infanta Isabel, Marques de la Ensenada and the Conde Venadito, were sighted. The expedition drew off from the land to avoid the warships. After dark one of the latter proceeded along the coast, refraining the expedition with searchlights. The steamer bearing the expedition slipped in past behind her and unloaded. It was attacked at daylight by a small Spanish force and driven away, but another band of insurgents, hearing the firing, came to the rescue and the arms captured by the Spanish were recovered.

Another letter from a Spanish source gives a report of the engagement at Candelaria on the 17th inst., when Maceo and Quintin Banderas with 8,000 men attacked Col. Francis. The Spanish loss, the letter says, was 200 soldiers, four captains and eight lieutenants. Francis surrendered, giving up all his arms and ammunition. It is, it is said, incorrect that Weyler, who announced that Francis would return to Spain on the next steamer.

Will Fight to a Finish.

AUSTIN, Tex., March 23.—After an all day wrangle to arrange a combination between the Allison and Reed men, the whole business was knocked into a cocked hat late tonight by the Allison men, with Cuney at their head, leaving all combinations and announcing they would make the fight singly and alone for Allison and for Cuney as temporary chairman. The Reed men are apparently badly flustered by this action. McKinley's forces say they will fight to a finish, and the result will probably be a bolt of the Reed men, although some seem to think that they will combine with the McKinley men if assured a divided delegation will be sent.

No Money for Drydocks.

WASHINGTON, March 23.—The provision in the naval appropriation bill for three dry-docks to be built at Algiers, La., Mare Island, Cal., and Portsmouth, N. H., was reconsidered today by the naval affairs committee of the House.

A motion to drop these projects for a time was made and carried by a decisive vote of 7 to 4. The reason for this step is mainly found in the condition of the treasury, which the Republicans believe does not justify the expenditure at this time.

M'KINLEY IN NEW YORK.

Boom Launched at Cooper Union—Meeting Well Attended.

NEW YORK, March 23.—The Presidential boom in New York City of William McKinley was launched at Cooper Union tonight. The hall was well filled.

Major Lovell Jerome called the meeting to order. He said it was useless for the machine politicians to disregard the returns that were coming in from all parts of the country favoring McKinley. The latter was the enemy of the bosses and not their tool.

Major Jerome introduced as chairman of the meeting General Wager Swayne. The meeting, he said, had been called to make plain to the people of this state and throughout the country, and to the delegates to the convention about to be held, that the real choice for President of the United States was William McKinley. (Cheers.)

Governor Morton, he said, had rendered valuable service to the state.

Some of the audience hissed at the mention of Governor Morton's name, but General Swayne stopped this in a hurry. He said that the governor deserved to be cheered, and that the machine of the Republican party was none of his making.

Resolutions were adopted declaring the assembly to be the McKinley league of the state of New York, and pledging members to aid in the nomination of McKinley. A committee of fifteen on organization was selected.

To Abolish the Death Penalty.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 23.—The House spent most of the day considering the Curtis bill to abolish the death penalty in all cases where it is prescribed in the Federal statutes (sixty in number), save in cases of murder and rape under sections 5339 and 5345 of the revised statutes, where the jury might qualify the verdict "without capital punishment." The bill makes no change in the penalties that can be inflicted by military and naval courts-martial. Among the crimes now punishable by death, abolished by the bill, are murder and robbery on the high seas, accessory before the fact to murder, piracy, etc., on the high seas, destruction of vessels of war, etc. The bill failed to pass for want of a quorum.

Not Entitled to Relief.

MILWAUKEE, March 23.—Judge Jenkins today refused a petition of the Clybourne Park company of Chicago, in the Wisconsin Central receivership, holding that the company was not entitled to equitable relief because it permitted gambling on its premises in opposition to the laws of Illinois. The Central company repudiated a contract to run trains from Chicago to Clybourne Park at the rate of $17 per car and demanded $35 per car. The receivers held that the contract was burdensome.

ITALY'S WAR.

Peace Not Likely Owing to Menelik's Excessive Demands.

NEW YORK, March 24.—A dispatch from the Herald's correspondent at Rome says that on account of the excessive pecuniary demands made by Menelik it is not probable that peace will be concluded. Signors Ricotti and Rudini, who are in accord with the king, will refuse the payment of any money indemnity.

The German emperor will have a most enthusiastic reception at Genoa. Naples, too, is preparing to receive his majesty in magnificent style. King Humbert will be on board the royal yacht Hohenzollern to meet his distinguished guest.

The diplomatic corps is extremely well satisfied with the speech made by Signor Rudini in the Chamber on Saturday. He caused an especially strong effect in Berlin and Vienna and has done much to strengthen the ministry. The premier said last night: "I am the firm friend of England and the triple alliance and reports to the contrary are simply absurd. We continue to remain on good terms with France. The interviews with me published by the Figaro and the Matin are pure inventions."

Horsethief or Insane.

SPRINGFIELD, Ills., March 24.—Harry Cummings, an alleged horsethief, who is connected with the old and wealthy Cummings family of St. Louis, has been released from jail here at the request of ex-Governor Searcy of Alabama, a relative, and taken to an Alabama insane asylum. He had been in Kansas and southern Illinois penitentiaries and Jacksonville insane asylum twice, and escaped from the latter.

Since then I have kept a bottle in my house and use it whenever my nerves become unstrung, with always the same good results. My son ... also has been taking ...
