A CHURCH MATTER.

Motion to Dismiss Made by District Attorney Varian.

IN JUDGE ZANE'S COURT.

The Howard Case.—Bail on a Chinese Gambling Den.—Other Items of Interest.

Shortly after the Assembling of the Third District Court this morning United States District Attorney Varian applied to Judge Zane for leave to file the following document, which was granted:

File number 2128. United States of America vs. certain real estate known as all of block 31; all of lot 1 in block 55; part of lot 7, block 88, and part of lot 1, block 86, all in plat "A" Salt Lake City survey.

Now comes the Attorney General of the said United States and the District Attorney for the said District of Utah, and in behalf of the said United States suggest to the court:

That it has been made sufficiently to appear to the said Attorney General that when the property of the defendants was turned over to the Receiver appointed by the Supreme Court of the United States, the agreed statements of facts made and filed upon which the decree of said Court was rendered, that the defendants understood that the property mentioned in said decree was to be considered as all the property belonging to the said corporation, and that the said property should be considered as a finality and no other property should ever be claimed or seized or in any way pursued by the United States as belonging to, or having belonged to said corporation at the time of the dissolution thereof and that said statement and decree should be an end to all litigation in the premises, except in the prosecution of the informations for the escheat and forfeiture of the real estate mentioned in said decree; and that, but for such understanding on the part of the defendants the delivery of the property aforesaid would not have been made, nor said stipulation agreed to by them.

Now, therefore, it appearing to the said Attorney General that it is manifestly just and equitable that the understanding of the said defendants should be recognized, the said United States, by its Attorney General and district attorney move the court to dismiss this action and proceeding.

(Signed) W. H. H. MILLER,
Attorney General.
CHAS. S. VARIAN,
District Attorney.

JUDGMENT RENDERED.

In the case of Henry C. Heartfield, plaintiff, vs. Moylan C. Fox, executor of the estate of Sarah McClellan, deceased, defendant, tried and submitted to the court yesterday, Judge Zane this morning, after a careful review of the whole circumstances, found for the plaintiff, and assessed the damages at $15,483. The action arose out of the sale of certain shares of capital stock of a corporation known as the St. Louis and Mississippi Transportation Co., organized under the laws of Missouri.

Attorney Dickson, on behalf of the defendant, obtained 30 days' stay, to enable him to file notice of statement.

POSTPONED TILL SATURDAY.

The hearing of a motion for a new trial in the case of John H. Howard, plaintiff, vs. Mary Howard, defendant, was set for this morning, but Attorney Hamilton informed the court that he had a further medical certificate from Dr. W. F. Anderson, stating that although the defendant's condition had somewhat improved, exposure at the present time might bring a relapse, which would certainly be dangerous. There was an inclination at this time, however, toward delirium. Counsel asked therefore that the case might go over until Saturday morning next, and Judge Zane acceded to the request.

ALL OVER $1.50.

A man named Hope Hitchcock, in the employ of Hindley & Co., wine merchants, of Main street, appeared before Commissioner Norrell this morning on a charge of intoxication. He had in his possession a check for $1.85, the money to be paid to the defendant. The defendant has been employed for some time by Messrs. Hewlett in the delivering of goods, and it seems that on Friday that some mistake arose with respect to the receipt of the money for a demijohn, brought in with a number of others. The offense was not proved to the satisfaction of the commissioner, who ordered the defendant's discharge.

NAUGHTY CHINAMEN.

For some time past the deputies in Marshal Parsons' office have been on the watch for a "gambling party" in the dwelling of a Chinaman on Commercial street, and last night Deputy Marshal Bowman Cannon and three of his colleagues made a raid upon the establishment. Peeping through the blinds they espied quite a number of Celestials playing at the game known as "tan-tan," and suddenly entered the room. The Chinamen were prepared, however, for an emergency. That went the lights instantly, and in the darkness all but three of the players made good their escape. When the trio were taken to the office of Commissioner Norrell that functionary was in bed, but was soon aroused. After hearing a brief recital of the circumstances he released the offenders on their giving a bond of $25 each to appear before him this afternoon to answer the charge.

MISCELLANEOUS.

In the matter of John A. Bryant vs. M. Shaughnessy judgment was set aside on the motion of plaintiff.

O. J. Hollister vs. J. G. Williams et al. Leave was granted to file supplemental answer by consent in the case.

In the matter of Johnson vs. L. J. Stephens, the appeal was dismissed.

In the case of Mahonlin Thomas vs. Lorenzo W. Williams et al., Jenkyn Thomas was appointed guardian ad litem for the plaintiff.

J. N. Dye vs. J. H. Hardman. This appeal was dismissed for want of prosecution. Attorney Hoffman subsequently moved to vacate the order, a stay of proceedings being granted for this purpose.

AN APPEAL.

John F. Connor vs. John Chappell. This case came on for trial, being an appeal from a justice's court in Park City, in which the plaintiff sued defendant to recover the sum of $100 on account of a loan. Mr. Critchlow was for the plaintiff, and Mr. Thomas represented the defendant. It was tried before a jury, to whom the case went just before the noon recess.

ADMITTED TO CITIZENSHIP.

John C. O'Harra, a Canadian, now residing in Summit county, was admitted to citizenship.

SUPREME COURT DECISIONS.

The case of Fred. J. Tilt vs. Nancy J. Rose has occupied Judge Anderson the whole of today. It is an action involving a question of commission on the sale of certain real estate, and is full of small details.

COURT NOTES.

Before Judge Anderson yesterday afternoon in the case of G. E. Powers vs. Frank S. Gilson, et al., attorney W. H. Dickson was appointed guardian ad litem.

The case of Fred Tilt et al. vs. Nancy J. Rose, involving a claim for commission on a real estate transaction, was taken up, and after some evidence had been taken was continued until today.

Yesterday afternoon, before Judge Zane in the case of Theodore A. Davis vs. Caroline Taylor, was commenced, the plaintiff accepting a tender of $100 and costs.

Yesterday afternoon an Englishman named John Edward Butler, now residing in Salt Lake County, was admitted to citizenship by Judge Zane.

In the United District Court yesterday afternoon, Wm. Boyer brought suit against Wm. Tolley and Nagel Schlosser to recover $15,555 for merchandise delivered by the plaintiff to the defendants.

Transcripts on appeal to the following cases have been forwarded to the United States Supreme Court at Washington by Clerk Backe of the Territorial Supreme Court: Victoria Copper Mining Company vs. William Jones, appellant, and D.C. Dodge vs. Denver and Rio Grande Western Railway Company, appellant.

The plaintiffs of the Troy Steam Laundry are the defendants in a suit brought in the Third District Court by Mary A. Hamilton, who claims damages in the amount of $10,000, on account of injuries alleged to have been received by her when thrown from a buggy on the 17th inst., the horse attached to the conveyance having taken some affrightened by the noise of the steam whistle at the laundry establishment, and run away.

ALLEGED CHURCH PROPERTY

The District Attorney Moves to Dismiss Suits to Escheat.

OGDEN AND SALT LAKE PROPERTIES RELEASED.

The End of Vexed and Complicated Litigation.

In the Supreme Court of the Territory of Utah.

The United States of America vs. the Corporation of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, et al.

Now comes the attorney-general of the said United States, and the district attorney for the Territory of Utah, and, in behalf of the said United States, suggest to the court:

That it has been made sufficiently to appear to the said attorney-general that, when the property of the defendants was turned over to the Receiver herein, and the agreed statements of facts made and filed, upon which the decree of the court was rendered, that the defendants understood that the property mentioned in said decree was to be considered as all the property belonging to the said corporation, and that the said decree should be considered as a finality, and no other property should ever be claimed or seized or in any way pursued by the United States as belonging to, or having belonged to, said corporation at the time of the dissolution thereof and that said statement and decree should be an end to all litigation in the premises, except in the prosecution of the informations for the escheat and forfeiture of the real estate mentioned in said decree; and that, but for such understanding on the part of the defendants the delivery of the property aforesaid would not have been made, nor said stipulation agreed to by them.

Now, therefore, it appearing to the said Attorney-General that it is manifestly just and equitable that the understanding of the said defendants should be recognized, the said United States, by its Attorney-General and district attorney move the court to dismiss this action and proceeding.

District Attorney.

JUDGMENT RENDERED.

The United States of America vs. the Corporation of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, et al.

Now comes the attorney-general of the said United States, and the district attorney for the Territory of Utah, and, in behalf of the said United States, suggest to the court:

That it has been made sufficiently to appear to the said attorney-general that, when the property of the defendants was turned over to the Receiver herein, and the agreed statements of facts made and filed, upon which the decree of the court was rendered, that the defendants understood that the property mentioned in said decree was to be considered as all the property belonging to the said corporation, and that the said decree should be considered as a finality, and no other property should ever be claimed or seized or in any way pursued by the United States as belonging to, or having belonged to, said corporation at the time of the dissolution thereof and that said statement and decree should be an end to all litigation in the premises, except in the prosecution of the informations for the escheat and forfeiture of the real estate mentioned in said decree; and that, but for such understanding on the part of the defendants the delivery of the property aforesaid would not have been made, nor said stipulation agreed to by them.

Now, therefore, it appearing to the said Attorney-General that it is manifestly just and equitable that the understanding of the said defendants should be recognized, the said United States, by its attorney-general and district attorney, move the court to direct the Receiver to dismiss the following suits:

In the First District court, Ogden, Frank H. Dyer, Receiver of the late corporation of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, plaintiff, vs. David M. Stuart, Rob. McPearie, Joseph Scowcroft and the Weber Stake of Zion, a so-called corporation, and Ogden City, a corporation, defendants.

Frank H. Dyer, Receiver of the late corporation of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, plaintiff, vs. Rob. McPearie and the Church of Christ of the Weber Stake of Zion, a so-called corporation, defendants.

Frank H. Dyer, Receiver of the late corporation of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, plaintiff, vs. Richard J. Taylor and Lewis W. Shurtliff, defendants.

In the Third District Court, Salt Lake City.

Henry W. Lawrence, Receiver of the late corporation of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, vs.

Plaintiff,

Defendants.

W. H. H. MILLER,
Attorney General.
C. S. VARIAN,
District Attorney.

A Safe Blown Open.

A gang of cracksmen entered the office of the Utah Steam Laundry, on West Temple street, at an early hour yesterday morning, and forced a hole into the safe. The cavity was filled with dynamite and the combination destroyed, and the door blown from its hinges. The safe contained valuable but papers and books which were left undisturbed. The thieves obtained nothing whatever and left no clue that is likely to lead to their apprehension.

DAMAGING INSINUATIONS

Against Marshal Young in the Salt Lake "Tribune."

MR. YOUNG DENIES THE ALLEGATION.

He Says He Has Never Received a Dollar of "Privilege Money."

The following sensational article appeared in this morning's issue of the Salt Lake Tribune:

"Very rumors to the effect that Chinese gamblers have paid the head of the police department for the privilege of running their games have been in circulation for the past two weeks, and the Tribune has been informed that there are those who have been induced to believe that the rumors are confirmed on more facts than on fiction. Certain parties have been accused to the government officials in Chinatown who claim to be in the Dollar and proprietor of the Tribune, and it is on information which he will be called upon to repeat to the grand jury. He has stated that he has been in the habit of paying Marshal Young $25 on the 15th of each and every month for the privilege of running his gambling games, and that he is ready and willing to make such affidavit when it is called for. The Tribune has been informed that it has been in the habit of paying for protection, as he called it, and declared that nine Chinese houses contributed to the fund. He said that on some 15th day in July or August, Young and Ellis to the gamblers, Jim Long, whose place of business was opposite the railway end, would be paid to the marshals if they would agree to keep their place off. The money was paid, he said, and the Chinese repeated his story, and his witnesses consisted of Judge Zane, Commissioner Norrell, the grand jury, Marshal Parsons and others.

Since then other well-known citizens have taken up the cudgels in behalf of Chinatown, who claim to have paid John M. Young for favors received.

A News reporter called on Marshal Young and showed him if he had read the foregoing article. He replied in the affirmative.

"Can you afford to remain silent in the face of such statements?" asked the reporter.

"I cannot see where there would be any advantage in either affirming or denying them. They are now before the public and will only be accepted for what they are worth."

"It will say this, however," he continued, "that I have had more or less business with the Chinamen of this city, but none of the character mentioned. I have never received a dollar from them. Some of them I have known since my boyhood. I have recently had occasion to visit them in their place, as business, and I was with the Custom House officials of San Francisco. I have known for some time that they were being closely questioned by the grand jury myself, and I do not doubt that false evidence has been secured, neither do I doubt that certain Chinamen will give testimony against me, but I do not believe their accusations will bear the sunlight of truth. The grand jury have left no stone unturned. They have descended to the depths of the sewer in search of whatever information would have a tendency to bring me into disrepute before the public.

"What do you consider has prompted them to resort to such methods, if they have done so, you ask?

"The motive is purely political," was the reply.

"Do you appear before the grand jury?"

"No, sir, I did not. A subpœna was issued telling me to appear before that body but was not served on me, as I think it is the intention of the grand jury to do. One of my men called upon Mr. Devine and informed him that I was willing to appear and testify, and that I could that would. Mr. Devine in searching out witnesses. Word was sent me that I could appear and defend myself if I chose. I want the public to pin this to my memory—that I do not deny having been approached by gamblers and those who have alleged me to be their money, but I do deny emphatically ever having received a cent from any one in any illegal manner."

Amusements.

Manager Barton yesterday arranged with Mr. Pitt for the two grand concerts on Thursday and Friday next at the Salt Lake Theatre, by the famous trombone soloist and his great military band of over sixty-five of the world's best musicians. This band is just from Madison Square gardens, New York, where it played two grand concerts in the world. Dunn in person is admirably suited to be the great leader and director of such a band. His magnetic personality, his great skill and influence in the control of this great body of musicians, and his acknowledged ability as one of the world's greatest musicians and artists—being the greatest trombone player in the world—coupled with his great executive ability in marshaling the work of the band to such a perfect system justly entitles him to the name and fame of the great leader and director that he is. Those who fail to see and hear Innwood great band will miss the opportunity of a life-time. The band is made up of great players, who have in their individual capacities made themselves famous as soloists the world over.

The sale of reserved seats begins tomorrow morning at the box office, at popular prices, from 25 cents to $1.

The Choral Society and Tabernacle Choir had a rehearsal last night at the Tabernacle. Seventy-five new members joined the Society during the past few weeks.

Gilmore, with his famous band of fifty musicians, sixteen soloists, four vocalists, and the grand chorus of "Ten voices," appears at the Tabernacle on November 4th and 5th, and a matinee on the 5th. See the advertisement in another part of this issue.

BADLY WOUNDED.

A. R. Kelly Has a Thrilling Experience with Holdups.

Shortly before last midnight, A. R. Kelly, of Kelly & Company, printers and stationers, of this city, was held up and badly wounded by a brace of burly footpads on Fourth South between West Temple and First West streets.

On starting home Mr. Kelly observed a couple of suspicious looking characters on West Temple street, lurking under the trees which line the sidewalk. Later he noticed that he was being followed by them. As he was returning he took to the middle of the street, and for a time stepped lighter and breathed easier. At the intersection of West Temple and Fourth South streets he turned west. He walked rapidly, but was headed off by the footpads, who, with an oath, ordered him to throw up his hands. Instead of doing so he struck one of the fellows a blow in the face which felled him to the ground. Instantly the highwaymen drew a revolver and fired two shots at Mr. Kelly. Fortunately the bullets went wide of his mark. Fire and smoke were now come to the assistance of his confederate and, taking aim, fired. The shot took effect in one of Mr. Kelly's legs and knocked him down.

The disturbance had by this time attracted several persons to the street and the highwaymen took to their heels and made good their escape. Mr. Kelly was carried to the residence of Dr. Sanders, where the latter and Dr. Fairbanks were called, which proves to be a thirty-two caliber. The wounded man was subsequently removed to his residence, where he will be confined for a few days. He believes that he could identify the robbers. The police were notified but the thugs are still at large.

LATEST TELEGRAMS.

IN RUSSIA.

The Minister of the Interior is Afraid of Societies.

LONDON, Oct. 27.—In the Daily News this morning was a dispatch from St. Petersburg, stating that Count Dmitry, the Interior, in declining the proposition of a deputation of rich Moscow merchants to form a society for the relief of the victims of the famine-stricken districts, declared that anybody attempting to visit the districts would be arrested. Dmitry said that the only object so that described would be arrested.

The emigration society has prohibited the organization of relief societies in certain parts. This is supposed to be due to the fact that the reliance upon government relief will have the moral effect on the peasants who would otherwise to work on the relief railways, roads, etc., and spend the money they received in drink. Famine was too large to saw corn while the rusty cash of the famine fund is procurable.

A Terrible Cyclone.

CONNELLY, O., Oct. 27.—At 5:30 last evening a terrible cyclone swept over the town, destroying about thirty houses. The cyclone uprooted all the trees and debris from demolished buildings. A large tanker full belonging to the U. S. Oil Company was wrecked, and a thousand dollars' worth of stock completely destroyed. Bennett's hotel is about $10,000. The planing mill of Hall, Bennett and Hindley Bros. was greatly damaged. Its lumber yards were strewn all over town and two smokestacks were blown down. Many fine residences suffered heavily, the roofs being torn off and the windows broken. The telegraph poles are down and the Nickel Plate railways are down. Two telegraph poles were driven through a roof of the Lake Shore depot and the baggage room was completely destroyed. The debris from the buildings were strewn along the track, rendering it impassable for morning trains. The total loss is about $100,000.

WISSMAN IN AFRICA.

It is Said He Has Resigned His Post.

BERLIN, Oct. 27.—It is reported that Major Wissman has resigned his position in East Africa, because Baron von Soden has ordered the steamer to Victoria Nyanza. The balance of the fleet of the East Africa Company makes a very unfavorable showing. A loss of 100,000 marks arose from the Zanzibar agreement with England. There is a total working deficit of 200,000 marks.

Anti-Jewish Riots.

VIENNA, Oct. 27.—Dispatches from Russia tell of anti-Jewish riots at various places. In Tuerolgoff, fifty Jews have been killed and hundreds wounded. The forests are full of Jewish refugees dying of starvation. The Czar has sent a commission to inquire into the facts.

Exchange of Money Orders.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 27.—An agreement has been signed by the postmaster-general, for the establishment of exchange money orders between the United States and the British colony of Trinidad and Tobago, which is to go into operation on the 1st of January next.

The President of Brazil has asked from Congress that the republic appropriate $200,000 to pay the expense of its representation at the Chicago exposition.

The "Teutonic" is Ahead.

LONDON, Oct. 27.—The White Star line steamer "Teutonic," which sailed from New York for Liverpool, was signaled off Browhead at 9:30 this morning, having beaten the fastest previous record from New York.

The Tilden Will Valid.

ALBANY, N. Y., Oct. 27.—The court of appeals has decided the Tilden will valid.

The court of appeals rendered a decision this morning in the case of Samuel J. Tilden vs. Andrew H. Green and others, as executors, etc., appellants, and Laura B. Hazard et al., respondents, affirming the judgment with costs payable to all parties out of the estate. This renders the Tilden trust valid and is in favor of the heirs.

A CREW MASSACRED.

Seven Those Night if Reports are True.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 27.—Louis Duffy, a fireman on board the steam whaler "Grampus" arrived here from Onalaska on the "Holiday" and brings confirmation of the news that the "Grampus" crew was massacred by the natives. Duffy says he deserted the "Grampus" at Port Clarence last July on account of ill treatment. Duffy spent nine months among the natives at Cape Prince of Wales and says three natives from point Barrow related how the crew of "Grampus" had almost native women. While the ship was fast in the ice at the mouth of Mackenzie river, the Indians and friends of the women attacked the ship killing all but a few in camp and took complete possession of the vessel.

Prescriptions Dispensed, Yet Safely.

From a letter written by Mrs. Ada E. Hurd, of Groton, S. D., we quote: "Was taken with a bad cold, which settled in my lungs, cough set in and finally terminated in Consumption. Four doctors gave me up, saying I could not live but a short time. I gave myself up to my mother, determined if I could not stay with my friends on earth, I would meet my absent ones above. My husband was advised to get Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. I gave it a trial, took in all, eight bottles; it has cured me, and I thank God I am now well and healthy woman." Trial bottles free at A. C. Smith & Co's Drug Store, regular size 50c. and $1.00. 4
