LOCAL BRIEFS.

Meetings End Tonight-The series of religious meetings held for the last two weeks in the Central Christian church will close this evening.

T. J. Taffey Dead-Word was received in this city yesterday, an-nouncing the death at Portland of T. J. Taffey from appendicitis. His wife formerly stenographer at the Knutsford and Wilson hotels.

Heavy Wind Yesterday-There wa a 42 miles an hour wind yesterday afternoon, that made things uncomfortable for pedestrians while it last-ed, and filled the air with clouds of dust. The temperature was lowered considerably for the time being.

Anxious to Find Woods-J. w Annious to Find Woods. J. W. Woods, who recently got out a little book entitled "Utah-Investments and Banking" for a prominent local bank. ing concern, can not be located, and the Century Printing company, one of his creditors, would be delighted to know where he is.

Disease Among Cattle-The secre-Disease Among Cattle—The secre-tary of the state board of health re-ceived word last evening, of the pre-valence of a peculiar disease among cattale in the vicinity of Richfield, and it is feared that it is pleuro-pneu-monia. As a number of cattle have already died, Dr. Frederick of Lo-gan has been sent to the scene to In-vostionate vestigate.

Transfers Good—The notice is post-ed in the street car barns that high school transfers punched for the O. S. L. depot, North Temple street or Warm Springs will be good on any of these lines between 8 and 9:30 a. m., on such days as the school is in session. Another notice calls attention of conductors to the need of greater care in punching transfers, and that it is absolutely necessary to see that all bell ringing mechanisms are free Invitation Accepted—The Utah Art Institute has accepted the invitation of the State Fair directors to display an art exhibit in the Chamber of Com-merce. This will include valuable paintings belonging to members of the institute, and to the Alice collection and which are at present decorating the walls of the state university. The State Fair association will place sha dow boxes for the paintings and make other arrangements for the judicious placing of this class of exhibits.

Fred Croxford Dead-Frederick Croxford, who formerly lived in Salt Lake, and who is a brother to Arthur Croxford, of 867 east Eighth South street, is dead at Seattle, Wash., whither he removed about two years The cause of death was appenago. dicitis dicitis. Arthur Croxford has gone to sittend his brother's funeral. Croxford Brothers were large contractors and builders up to the time that Fred left this city. He is survived by a wife and three chilldren.

Inspection Trip-The board of public works last night decided to take a trip of inspection to the southwestern part of the city this afternoon to see how the sidewalk work is progress-ing. It is the intention of the board ing. to put things in shape so that other sidewalk extensions may be pushed along and completed before bad weather arrives. The work on the Scanlon-His Remarks Listened to With Marked Appreciation.

At the funeral yesterday afternoon, of Judge Thomas Marshall, Bishop Scanlan paid a tribute to the deceased that was listened to with marked appreclation by the large attendance of mourners present. The bishop said in part

"Almost his last words were, 'Bishop, I want you to conduct my funeral' said Bishop Scanlan, ""I want you to preach my funeral sermon.' 'This last wish pleased me, yet pained me. If he had not made this request I would have permitted his remains to go quietly to the grave. The great Master had no funeral sermon preached at His burial. He preached His own sermon by His great works and beautiful life. When St. John the Baptist sent a disciple to ask Christ, who art Thou? the Lord did not say with an air of bravado, 'I am the long looked for Redcemer of the world.' 'Go back to St. John the the world.' 'Go back to St. John the Baptist,' was His answer to the disci-ple, 'Tell him what you have seen and heard while with me-the blind made to see, the deaf to hear, the lame blind to walk, the lepers cleansed, and the dead to walk from their graves. That will tell who and what I am. That's my answer.' The sermon on the mount was made more than mortal philosophy by the grand and beautiful life of by the grand and beautiful the of its Orator, Every man shall preach his own funeral sermon by a clean, noble and spotless life. I have very often tried to picture what the life of Mr. Marshall was like, and came to the conclusion that this was precisely what he did-he preached his own funeral ser-

AN IDEAL MAN.

"For forty years he has been con-spicuous on the streets of Salt Lake both in appearance and by his life. Life sermons are greater than eloquence. I have tried to picture an ideal man, a rational man leading such a life as his rational man leading such a life as his reason approves. This is what distin-guishes the civilized man from the barbarian-leading a life satisfactory to the reason. I have met few men who came so near my ideal man as the de-ceased. If he were on the streets of Athens when Diogenes went about in broad daylight with his lantern in search of an hones, man. Mr. Marshall would have been discovered towering, physically, mentally and morally, above all others. Diogenes would have seen in my now silent friend the object of in my now silent friend the object of his search. The deceased was tall, his search. The deceased was tall, physically, noble and erect and as noble and straight in his dealings with his fellow man.

"I remember one time when I was "I remember one time when I was asked to request Mr. Marshall to take a case to which some scandal was at-tached. 'Will you take it, Mr. Mar-shall?' I asked. 'I will not.' he said decisively. I explained to him that his client had plenty of money and would pay well for legal assistance. Mr. Marshall answered that he would not take it if there were thousands of dol-lars in it for him. lars in it for him. "I never took such cases and will never begin to take them,' he answered. I tell this little story to show how strictly the deceased obeyed the dic-tates of his reason. Money was no attraction to him in any to his ideas of nobility. anything contrary week péople, but by the sugar company, with which he has been associated since its organization. Prior to that he was with the Utah Sugar company of Lehi for many years, Mr. Gaddie was the first counselor in the bishopric of Sugar City, and was a most active and en-terprising spirit in all that pertained to the welfare of the people of the com-munity. He was associated in several business enterprises here, aside from business enterprises here, aside from his connection with the sugar company. He leaves a widow and several children.

WOUNDS, BRUISES AND BURNS.

WOUNDS, BRUISES AND BURNS. By applying an antiseptic dressing to wounds, bruises, burns and like injuries before inflammation sets in, they may be healed without maturation and in about one-third the time required by the old treatment. This is the greatest discovery and triumph of modern surgery. Cham-berlain's Pain Balm acts on this same principle. It is antiseptic and when applied to such injuries, causes them to heal very quickly. It also allays the pain and sorcess and prevents any danger of blood poisoning. Keep a bottle of Pain Balm in your homes and it will save you time and money, not to mention the in-convenience and suffering such injuries ertail. For sale by all druggists.

DAY IN STATE PRISON.

Reports Reached Sheriff's Office of an Impending Lynching.

For a time yesterday afternoon it looked as though Salt Lake would be the scene of a lynching, that the victim would be Day, the slaver of Voss, and that the avengers would be people of his own color. Crowds of colored folks gathered on Franklin avenue, the folks gathered on Franklin avenue, the street where Voss lived and where he met his death, and the animated con-versations and extreme activity mani-fest were taken as evidence that an attempt would be made to storm the county jail and make an end of the murderer murderer. It is said that such a move had been under contemplation since the day of the killing, and that many colored men had made purchases of revolvers, in or-der to be armed for the affray. So der to be armed for the affray. So well founded seemed the reports that reached the sheriff's office of impend-ing throuble, that it was deemed ad-visable to secretly convey the pris-oner to the state prison. According-ly, Day was placed in a carriage and driven rapidly to the institution that is active walls and padriven rapidly to the institution that is within impregnable walls and pa-troited day and night by armed guards. Day seemed to realize why he was being removed, and during the pro-gress of the journey he was nervous and fil at ease. When the state prison had been reached he felt much re-lieved. Seldom has the colored popu-lation been so thoroughly wrought up lieved. Seidom has the colored popu-lation been so thoroughly wrought up to a state boardering on frenzy as on the killing of Voss. He was popular with his people, and many of them were too impatient to let the law take its course with regard to the man who class him slew him.

TO BE SENTENCED FRIDAY.

He Stole More Than $9,000-About to Leave the City When Arrested By Capt. Burbidge.

After deliberating on the case for eight hours, the jury last night returned a verdict finding Arthur Brown guilty of forgery by uttering a forged instrument but recommended the defendant to the mercy of the court. The case was on trial in the district court for nearly two days and was submitted to the jury just before noon yesterday and the verdict was returned about 8 o'clock last night. Brown will be sentenced by Judge Armstrong on Friday morning at 10 o'clock. The defendant is a young man who has held may positions of trust in this city. He was a teller in the Bank of Commerce and when that was absorb-ed by the Commercial National bank he became connected with the latter Institution. He left the employ of the bank and accepted a position with A. J. Orem & Co., as bookkeeper and purchasing agent for the Utah-Apex Mining company. While thus em-ployed he forged the names of his employers to checks amounting in all to more than $9,000. When the for-geries were discovered he made pre-parations to leave the city and was arrested by Capt. Burbidge at the Short Line depot just as he was about to board the train and leave the state

Salt Lake Ahead—The Denver Times recently stated that "Denver has more telephones than any other city of its size," as that city has 20,000 phones in a population of 209,000, or one phone for every 10 people. However, in Salt Lake there is one phone for every 4.5 people, as in a population of 70,000, the Rocky Mountain Bell company re-norts 10,500 phones, and the Indeports 10,500 phones, and the Inde-pendent company 5,000 phones, or 15,-500 phones in all. New York has 250,-600 telephones, in a population of 4,000,000, or one phone to every 16 people. So it will be seen that as compared with Denver and New York, Salt Lake leads.

SUGAR CITY IN GLOOM FROM YESTERDAY'S ACCIDENT

(Special to the "News.") Sugar City, Ida., Oct. 17 .- This city is plunged into gloom as a result of the terrible accident at the sugar factory yesterday by which Chief Engineer J. B. Gaddle lost his life. The accident occurred about 2 o'clock. Mr. Gaddie was partaking of his lunch, when word reached him that the electric generator was becoming unmanageable. He at once went to the room to see where the trouble lay, and was directly in front of it when it burst or blew out, several pieces of steel striking him and inflicting almost immediate death. He breathed only 15 or 29 minutes, and was entirely unconsicous till the end came, He was struck in three places, but the New way which caused his dealt was in-flicted by a piece of steel which struck him in the head. Two other mes, Han-sen and Jenking, who stood near by were only slightly injured. The flying pieces of steel cut one of the steam pipes, and the factory was filled with escaping steam, but after a short time this was remedied, and the plant was lighted by switching on to the wires of the Teton valley plant.

General Manager Cutler arrived from Salt Lake this morning and gave orders for all work to be suspended for a time out of respect to Mr. Gaddle. The deceased was most highly esteemed in this community and his loss will be severely felt, not only by the

Coroner's Jury Investigating Cause of Death of James Reilly.

The inquest conducted by Acting Coroner Dana T. Smith to inquire into the particulars attending the death of James Reilly, who died under suspicious circumstances a few weeks ago, was not concluded yesterday, but sufficient evidence was brought out to warrant the setting at liberty of Charles A. the setting at liberty of Charles A. Hager and John Friedrichs, who have been held as witnesses in the case. Mrs. Amelia Dudler went back to the city jail, and will doubtless be kept in custody until the investigation is over. Mrs. Dudler yesterday reiterated her former statements that she adminis-tered at least two doses of cocaine to Relly. She said that the man claimed to be a habitual user of the drug, and it was at his urgent request that she wrote a note, whereby he was able to procure the cocaine, and that she after-wards gave him injections of the poison. Other witnesses who testified yesterwards gave him infections of the polson. Other witnesses who testified yester-day were Dr. E. W. Whitney, Chemist Harmes, C. C. Knowles, E. S. Jenkins, Brigham H. West, J. H. McHugh, Da-vid B. Harmon, and Officers Seager and Pierce. None of them knew anything of the affair, except as to the condi-tion in which Reilly was found shortly before his death and the treatment he received at the emergency hospital at the city jail after being conveyed there. James O Boyle, who was with Reilly all James O Boyle, who was with Reilly all day on the date of the latter's death, and who is now in Schofield, is wanted as a witness in the case, and the in-quest went over until Friday.
