LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

THERMOMETER 66° in the shade at one o'clock to-day.

THEATRE.—Last evening the interesting melo-drama of "The Writing on the Wall," was played in a lively manner. It was pleasant to see an old favorite, Mr. H. Maiben, upon the stage once more.

For this evening Morton's popular drama of "The Muleteer of Toledo, or King, Queen, and Knave," will be presented, with Miss Walters as "Elvira" and Miss Voeller as "Donna Carmen." The former of these ladies is an established favorite, and the latter is a lady of excellent ability, with a well cultivated and modulated voice of good range. If she has any fault, it is that of slightly overdoing her part at times. But then who can complain of having too much for his money?

The performance concludes with the farce of "Pitcher and Tosser."

For Saturday evening the ever attractive play of the "Octoroon" will be put on the boards, with Mr. D. McKenzie as "Jake McCloskey," one of his best characters, and that is saying a good deal.

We also perceive that Tuesday evening is set down for the benefit of Mr. W. T. Harris, a gentleman who assumes a variety of humorous characters in a spirited and able manner.

NIPPED. — The frost has nipped and scrimped up the leaves of vines and other tender vegetation. But it is capital working weather for humans and other animals.

THE EMIGRANTS are expected in this evening, soon after dark. This is the largest company of the season, and the last but one from Europe.

PROGRESSING.—The fine brick building being erected on the Winder corner, East Temple Street, is now up to the second story. When completed we understand the building will be devoted to hotel purposes.

GOT BACK. — Hon. Wm. Jennings returned from California this morning. He states that the wheat crop of the "Golden State" is positively immense. He thinks it will take the farmers the whole of the coming winter to gather it.

Honorables Geo. A. Smith, Wilford Woodruff and Geo. Q. Cannon are expected to arrive to-morrow morning.

SECOND BLOSSOMS.—A gentleman who lives in the 20th Ward, showed us, this morning, a blossom which he plucked from a pear tree in his orchard. The tree had borne this season and was stripped of its fruit several weeks ago.

VIRGINIA.—Bro. O. C. Cleveland writes from Staunton, Augusta Co., Va., Sept. 18. He had been bearing his testimony to the work and he had baptized two persons during the summer. Others were manifesting a desire to learn the truth.

PROGRESSING.—The fine brick building being erected on the Winder corner, East Temple street, is now up to the second storey. When completed we understand the building will be devoted to hotel purposes.

THE STOVEPIPES. — The "stovepipe" innovation has not only established itself pretty generally, but it is elongating itself remarkably and there is no telling to what length it will go. If it continues much further, seven feet door-ways will not be high enough to insure safety to masculine headgear.

HORRIBLE, MOST HORRIBLE. — Sensations thicken. The San Francisco Chronicle says—

"Another revelation of a terrible crime in Utah is promised in a few days."

Angels and ministers of grace defend us! Are not the sensationalists buckling down to their dirty work!

BEE MEETING.—There will be an important Bee meeting preceding the State Fair. The members of the Deseret Bee Association are requested to meet at the Historian's Office, at 10 a.m., on Saturday, Sept. 28th. All interested in this important culture are invited. A full house is desired. By order of the board,

R. V. MORRIS, Secretary.

DECEASED.—It will be seen by an obituary notice, in another part of the paper, that Elder Hezekiah Mitchell departed this life last night, after a fluctuating illness which lasted the greater part of the summer. He was a man generally respected for his quiet and unassuming manners.

THE OGDEN JUNCTION, semi-weekly, is out in an enlarged and improved form, with a unique engraved heading. The semi-weekly is an eight page paper, neat and spicy, a credit to Ogden, and deserves to be well received and supported by the people of the north especially.

A RECEPTION. — The Scandinavian brethren and sisters of this city have appointed a committee, of which A. W. Winberg is chairman, whose duty it is to prepare a hearty reception in the shape of a bounteous collation, at Bello's Hall, for the emigrants who are expected to arrive to-night.

On the arrival of the company at the depot they will be conducted, by members of the committee, to the hall where the entertainment will be spread. During the progress of the demolishment of the viands, a band, we are informed, will be present, and will assist in the digestion of the guests by discoursing sweet music.

The Scandinavian residents of the City took a similar course with the previous emigrant company, and the latter seemed to enjoy and fully appreciate the hearty hospitality of their hosts. The committee, we are informed, purpose providing supper for six hundred persons. We think their estimate of the number of emigrants is a little too high, as a proportion of the company, whose original number was 600, remained in the States.

COOL.—Last night H. Wilkinson, accompanied by a young lady, was driving in a buggy, a short distance beyond the Warm Springs, when two men rushed up, with six-shooters cocked, and demanded a halt. Mr. Wilkinson accordingly halted and was robbed by the two highwaymen of $12.00 and his watch. Not content with this portion of their exploit, the two fellows compelled Mr. W. and the lady to get out of the buggy and they themselves got in and drove to town. The team and vehicle were afterwards found hitched to a fence in the Nineteenth Ward. Two men were arrested to-day on suspicion of being the robbers, but were immediately discharged on the discovery being made that the suspicions were incorrect. The perpetrators of the robbery are still at large. They may meet somebody with a double-barrelled shot gun, muzzle outwards, in their next exploit.

THE D. A. AND M. SOCIETY.—By desire we publish the substance of a recent meeting of the Board of Directors of the D. A. and M. Society at the Historian's office. The following gentlemen were present—J. R. Winder, John Pack, R. L. Campbell, A. M. Musser, and A. P. Rockwood, the last named presiding. Some revisory business pertaining to premium lists was done. Directors G. S. Wallace and A. M. Musser, and Geo. Goddard, Esq., were appointed to attend the Bishops' meeting and present the interests of the Society before the bishops, requesting their influence in their respective wards in making the forthcoming Fair a success. The entrance fee for the first and third days of the Fair it was decided should be 25 cents for adults and 10 cents for juveniles, and on the second day 50 cents for adults and 25 for juveniles. Directors Rockwood, Pack, and Musser were appointed delegates to visit the Fair at Ogden, Sept. 27 and 28.

ROBBERY.—Last night an old man, a Scandinavian, giving his name as Carl Edler, called at the City Hall and informed the police authorities that he had been knocked down and robbed of about $100 currency and some kind of an order or check, in the Fourteenth Ward, near Bello's Hall. He stated that the person who committed the robbery approached him and asked to be directed to a certain hotel. Edler proffered to pilot him to the place and as they walked along together the man hit him a heavy blow in the face, knocked him down, took his pocket book and decamped. Edler's face bore evidence that the blow dealt him was a severe one. Some margin may be allowed with regard to his statements in point of detail, however, as he was "considerably drunk."

MORE INDIAN OUTRAGES.—By courtesy of Hon. D. H. Wells we are enabled to publish the following dispatch:

SPRING CITY, Sept. 26, 1872.

President D. H. Wells:

The Indians are upon us. Several horses were stolen last night. This morning a man was shot off from a load of lumber, and his little boy was wounded in the hip and wrist, near Snow's mill, in this place. The murdered man is said to be Miller, from Salt Creek. O. HYDE.

UTAH WHEAT. — Mr. William Marsh brought to us yesterday a sample of splendid wheat, raised in the vicinity of Salt Lake City, by Mr. D. H. Peery. The berry is very large and full, and the mass is perfectly clean. We understand that the Orchard City mills have purchased a carload of it. We advise our farmers to procure some of it if possible for seed, as it is certainly the finest wheat which has been seen in Burlington for many a day.—Burlington (Iowa) Hawk Eye.

OGDEN ITEMS.—From the Junction of last evening—

Social Party at Childs' Hall.

The Junction Dining Rooms strike was not for wages, but about another key to the wine cellar.

T. Jeff. Weaver, of Cincinnati, died of consumption, in a car on the U. P. at Ogden. Coroner's verdict accordingly.

Some night rowdyism at Ogden. Go slower, young men.

Preparations forward for the fair on Friday and Saturday.

"Ogden lively to-day." Of course it is.

J. B. Maiben, Esq., busy insuring everybody.

CRICKET MATCH.—A match was played yesterday, commencing at 3 o'clock, between Mr. W. Cushing, of this city, and Mr. E. Orme, of Hot Springs. The following was the result:

First innings, Cushing 9, bowled out; Second, 2, run out; total 11. Orme, first innings, 9, caught out. Second, 3 and not out.

THIRD DISTRICT COURT THIS MORNING.—Walter H. Hulbert vs. Horatio Jeffards et al, action for damages sustained through being run over by defendants' team, on the night of January 8th, 1872. Damages laid at $5,000. Several witnesses were examined, to prove the recklessness of the driving, and the nature of the injuries sustained. Jury found a verdict for plaintiff for the sum of $1,500

Wm. Rawlings vs. Salt Lake Mining Company, case referred to a Master in Chancery.

Morris J. Snedaker vs. Samuel Green. Judgment pro confesso.

Court adjourned till Saturday.

Latest by Telegraph.

COPENHAGEN.—The Danish authorities prohibit the importation of English cattle on account of the rinderpest.

PARIS, 26.—Gambetta, in a speech at Albertville, in the Department of Upper Savory, last night, demanded a dissolution of the National Assembly.

LONDON, 26.—Aberdeen, Scotland, and vicinity were visited by a terrible rain storm yesterday. The railway station was submerged, streets were impassibly flooded and the crops were ruined.

SAN FRANCISCO, 26.—Nearly twenty-four millions of treasure has been shipped hence since January 1st. Three and a half million centals of wheat have been received here since July 1st, and two and a quarter millions exported.

A principal of one of the public schools, Noah Flood, has been served with a notice, by a parent of a colored child, that application will be made to the supreme court for a mandamus compelling said teacher to admit the child to his school.

A telegram has been received stating that the treasure on board the steamer America, burned at Yokohama, has all been recovered, but all was smashed and run together in such a manner as to prevent identification.

As the doctors disagree as to the insanity of Mrs. Fair, the jurors will be compelled to decide the point themselves. The evidence for and against her temporary insanity is about equally divided.

BALTIMORE.—The grand jury yesterday indicted Joseph E. Chapman, Joseph Crandall, and S. A. Mead, for burglariously entering the Third National Bank at Baltimore, in August last, and Henry V. Clinton, as accessory. The latter is under arrest and the others are being pursued.

NEW YORK.—The investigation into the loss of the Benville, by inspectors Boole, Meishon and Hall, commenced to day. Engineer Best was examined.

There were fourteen bids for gold to-day, amounting to over six millions at thirteen and fourteen and seven tenths. Of the amount advertised, one million was sold at 14.05 to 14.07. Four million were bid for at over fourteen.
