PROVO.

PROVO, UTAH, - - JULY 19, 1896.

Stake Conference.

The quarterly Stake conference held Saturday and Sunday was well attended, both days. Elder Brigham Y. Card, Junius Romney Smith and F. M. Lyman of the quorum of Apostles were present, and addressed the Saints, giving some valuable instructions in connection with the work of the priesthood. The sacrament was administered by the Bishops and the Deacons gave interesting reports of the condition of the members of the Church. A meeting of saints was addressed by the aforementioned gentlemen yesterday morning, but Elder A. H. Cannon has been called home by the death of his father, and only was informed by telegraph that the Patriarch died at Provo well.

Fourth District Court.

The following cases were disposed of before Judge Rolfe Saturday:

In the matter of the estate of Mary Pratt, deceased, petition for order of sale of real estate set for hearing September 10th.

A. H. Rudolph vs. A. J. Stirling et al; demurrer to complaint sustained in part, and amended complaint filed.

Wilson M. Arthur & Company, a copartnership, one year in the penitentiary for burglary committed at American Fork; hearing of motion for new trial by W. W. Richards, sentencing defendant to be stayed.

Thursday, July 16: Chamblin vs. W. A. Hooper; Geo. Gordon in favor of plaintiff; case, as well as second, at 2:30 and Gordon's was adjudged the true owner; costs to be paid by defendant.

After hearing evidence and argument in the case of John Sorensen & Bros. Co. vs. J. G. Williams, the court took the case under advisement until today.

The criminal proceedings against Hyrum Sterling, charged by Roscoe Park and one other Orthodox Sunday party, resulted in Mr. Sterling being found guilty and fined $20. He threatened to bring water from Spanish Fork canal south, made May 7, 1896.

Notes and Personals.

The Provo Dramatic company is rehearsing Under the Gaslight which will be played in the Opera house so soon as they can do so well performances to J. B. Walker, a member of the company, who will leave on a mission to England in a short time. The veteran actor, John C. Graham, will assume a leading role.

W. C. Sims and family, who have been visiting relatives in Waltham, Massachusetts, for about nine months, returned Saturday. Mr. Sims reports that the silver sentiment is growing rapidly in the Bay State and throughout the East.

James A. Bean, a large wool grower of this city, has received the unwelcome information that 14,000 pounds of wool, which he had shipped east by way of Galveston, Texas, has been destroyed by fire, through the burning of a railway car.

Forepaugh & Sells Bros.' circus and menagerie from of 800, fourteen in number, in this city Saturday advertising their show.

Dr. W. C. Hohenstrack was over from Eureka yesterday, visiting his family and friends.

LOGAN.

LOGAN, UTAH, - - JULY 19, 1896.

Cache County Notes.

The sad news of Brother Abraham H. Cannon's death was telephoned to Logan very shortly after it occurred, and caused general mourning. Ever since the first operation was performed the outcome has been anxiously awaited, and since the end had the sunshine of hope has been intensified and the bulletins reporting his condition at frequent intervals, posted in the windows of the Journal office, have been surrounded by scores of people eager to learn of some improvement in his condition. While grave fears were entertained ever since Friday morning, hope must have predominated, or the extinguishment would not have caused such a general shock. While in the heat of political strife other prominent churchmen have been spoken lightly of, Brother Abraham H. Cannon was always mentioned with the greatest respect. "None knew him but to love him, or named him but to praise."

Waldemar Hutchelm, Joseph Andrews and George and Oliver Carlson were brought before Justice Smith for catching trout on the day before it was permissible by law. Hutchelm became a witness for the prosecution and the evidence being conclusive, the other offenders were assessed each $5 and an equal proportion of the costs. County Warden Lewis and the Sportsman's club have been especially vigorous this season, and have made it very uncomfortable for violators of the fish and game laws. Their efforts are now being directed toward the preservation of the young pheasants, grouse, ducks and other game birds, at the same time keeping a vigilant eye on the public waters to prevent or detect the depredation of fish, which at one time was so frequent occurrence.

Sheriff A. H. Dixon of Rich county visited Logan on Friday on official business. He came through the mountains from Woodruff, trying to find the trail of some horse thieves who have been committing depredations in the northwestern part of the State, and in the adjacent states of Wyoming and Idaho. He thinks an organized band exists, and believes that about five hundred head recently stolen in Wyoming were brought through this way on the road to southern Utah or Arizona.

Justice E. W. Smith decided last Friday afternoon that Johnson, the man at whom the marshal of Hyrum shot twice while endeavoring to arrest him, was not guilty of resisting an officer in escaping, as it was the officer's duty to arrest the officer and read the warrant when he speaked. Johnson was, however, arrested on Saturday evening, and had to answer a charge of assault with a deadly weapon. This is the outcome of the trouble which caused the presence of the first marshal of Hyrum, and will most likely be heard today.

The family of William Brown of Hyrum received a bad scare last Tuesday, when lightning invaded their home. It made its entrance by the chimney, which is followed so far as an opening into one of the rooms, which it entered, setting fire to the carpet and curtains. It then made its exit through a window, shattering sash and frame.

Jesse C. Johnson's little son was thrown from a buggy a few weeks ago and had his left arm broken between the elbow and shoulder. He has settled it in a splint and it is doing nicely, and it had not fully recovered from Lower epsetts when, on Friday, he fell down and broke it again in the same place.

One of the most industrious students of the B. Y. College during the past school year, was born in Tokyo, Kanagawa, Japan. The other day he renounced allegiance to the emperor of Japan and became a citizen of the United States.

A Brewerville boy named Bell, of Ft. Lemon, had the misfortune to get his right hand badly crushed and mangled in the cogs of a machine, and

Geo. E. Bird and family of Salt Lake are guests of Bros. Geo. W. Toronto and Wm. Bird.
