NEW WAR RUMOR.

The Government Asks for Information of Railroads

RUSHING TO THE GULF PORTS.

What Are the Facilities for Moving Troops and Military Equipments?

CHICAGO, Nov. 12.—A special dispatch to the Inter-Ocean from Washington says:

The war department has called on the leading trunk line roads running to Key West, New Orleans and the other Gulf ports for an immediate account of their capacity to move troops, supplies and heavy war material. The information demanded is complete to the most minute detail, and embraces such questions as, "If you are required to move 500 troops per hour how many equipment cars and engines, how long after notification will you require to perform so serious a task?"

Secrecy is to be strictly enjoined on all roads called on for information.

RUSSIA AND CHINA.

Troops are Ordered Toward the Direction of Vladivostock.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 12.—The Bulletin says: A letter containing a outline of small advices sent by the regular correspondent of the Hong Kong press at Vladivostock was received by the last China steamer and was issued over to the Bulletin today. The correspondent shows that the war is moving troops in the Vladivostock district and has a large number of naval vessels concentrated in northern waters. The principal details of the situation are contained in the following paragraphs:

"Although the English government declares that the moving of troops in northern and eastern Siberia is due to exchange of army divisions, it is noticed that in all divisions of Vladivostock there are not less than 112,000 non-alarms, which monster army is noted as a menace to the peace of Asia."

The correspondent, further commenting on the situation, states that "people it is evidenced that Russia is anxious to wine outlet to the Pacific, its enormous and warlike preparations are anything but reassuring.

"The frequent presence of Russia's regiments at Port Arthur and their operations in Manchuria, with the not understanding of China, are highly significant indications of the tension between Russia and China, and point unmistakably to the ominous object of Russia's warlike preparations.

"It believes the British government to thoroughly investigate this very important matter."

Bismarck's Disclosures.

PARIS, Nov. 12.—The Figaro today publishes a letter from the Berlin court to the effect that Prince Bismarck's dispatch is due to the ex-Empress Frederick, who, acting upon revelations communicated to her by the princess of Wales, convinced the emperor of France Bismarck's fatal policy in relation to Bulgaria, and of the part he played toward the rebellion, culminating in the Russo-German rupture. The letter says Prince Bismarck swore vengeance, and hence the disclosures in regard to the secret Russo-German treaty.

The Race War.

EL DORADO, ARK., Nov. 12.—The white and colored laborers employed at the Hawkins mills, twelve miles southwest of here, have been raging a race war since last Monday. The whites, who are largely outnumbered by the negroes, declare that the colored men should not be permitted to work in the mills and warned them to leave. The negroes did not go and a number of white men whipped a negro. Tuesday night a car and several tents in which the negroes were sleeping were surrounded by armed white men and over 100 shots were fired into the car and tents. How many negroes were hurt cannot be ascertained, but it is known that a woman was fatally wounded. Yesterday there was further rioting.

After special inquiry among the leading officials, it appears that the Venezuelan government is disposed to settle the question on the lines indicated in the agreement between the United States and Great Britain without engaging over minor points. The agreement that the shall be determined on the ownership of territory for fifty years is regarded by prominent Venezuelans as a happy solution of the question. Some disinclined to oppose it, but the people at large will offer no opposition to this basis of settlement.

Railroad in China.

PEKIN, Nov. 12.—The Tsung Li Yamen has issued a secret edict appointing Chang Tachi, director general of railways, and granting him permission to consult the Hankow-Canton-Szechow lines. Altogether 40,000,000 taels will be spent for the construction of the lines. Native material must be employed as far as possible on the Hankow line, and foreign engineers may be engaged.

It is rumored that the American syndicate remains for this work have not been accepted.

Chang Tachi is the head of the telegraph administration in China, and was lately Taotai of Tien Tsin.

Confidence in the French Government.

PARIS, Nov. 12.—In the Chamber of Deputies today M. Mirant, radical socialist deputy for Bouches, attacked the government for forbidding the congress of socialist teachers, while showing weakness regarding the clerical anti-republican crusade, as shown in the proceedings of the clerical conference at Reims.

M. Rambaud, minister of education, promises a liberal bill increasing the privileges of the teachers and permitting the meeting of the congress. M. Cerpes, the late premier, denounced the conduct of the bishops, which he said was the more reprehensible as they were state officials. The Catholic congress, he said, had a political aim and was directed against civil society.

M. Mellne, the premier, then demanded a vote of confidence in the government, which was voted by 324 to 225 nays.

ADDRESS TO SOLDIERS.

Emperor William Has Some Ideas in a State of Confusion.

LONDON, Nov. 12.—The Times Berlin dispatch says: The ceremony of swearing in the recruits for the garrisons of Berlin, Spandau, Charlottenburg and Gross-Lichterfelde this afternoon took place in front of the royal palace. Emperor William delivered an address in the course of which he said:

"You have just taken an oath on the crucifix and the standard to me, your war-lord, and to your Fatherland. Just as the crown is bought without the altar and the crucifix, so the army is nothing without the Christian religion. You are called as soldiers in my keeping to serve me in single-minded allegiance. Ever remember you have received your weapons to protect the crown and altar. In view of the general mistrust now prevailing, it is especially your duty by obedience always to be a good example.

"You are entering the army in the year we celebrate as the centenary of the birth of the great Emperor William. Never forget what he accomplished. We are only called to maintain what he created. His eye rests upon the whole army. And great that with the call of heaven we may appear worthily before him."

The Daily State Rifle dispatch says: The following words, said to indicate his personal feelings on the recent Bismarck incident at Gallstein, concerning Emperor William's speech: "Hold your uniform in honor. The man who insults your coat, insults your king, who answers the king's coat insults your chief warlord."

The Bismarck incident, it will be remembered was that of a German army officer who was thrown the body a workman who had insultingly remarked against him in a cafe and who refused to apologize on the ground that an insult was intended.

MONROEISM PREVAILS.

But England Will Go Submit to the Inevitable.

LONDON, Nov. 12.—The Speaker today publishes an article by a leading publicist, in which the writer, after recalling Lord Salisbury's reply to Secretary Olney in regard to Monroeism, says:

"An entirely new order of things has been established by the Anglo-American understanding. Mr. Olney's extension of the Monroe power has now rendered Great Britain's condition. But it would be profitless as well as non-what patriotic to touch upon this delicate ground. What had to be done, had to be done, and that is the long and short of it. We may not like it, it is true, ought to be no difficulty in choosing between the security of complaining over the inevitable and dignity of smiling acquiescence. The British government is perfectly right now, without being wrong six or ten months ago. It is exactly a case of our policy of staying off as long as possible the humiliation of Russia, now so complete. To continue that policy when the game is up would be merely to cling to antiquated superstitions and antiquated dignity."

A FRENCH VIEW.

PARIS, Nov. 12.—The Temps today explained itself as being greatly surprised at the enormous extension of Monroeism inferred in the Anglo-American entente, adding: "If Russia upon America the right to settle any difference between an American state and a European power, without the authority of the American state interested. This is a big innovation in international law and endows the United States with absolute supremacy in their hemisphere. We must be a bitter pill to British pride to consent to this."

In conclusion the Temps expresses a doubt as to whether Russia will accept this agreement as a precedent.

NEW YORK, Nov. 12.—The draft of the charter for Greater New York will be handed over to the commission by December 1. The tentative draft, as prepared by former corporation counsel, William C. De Witt of Brooklyn is still under consideration, seven chapters remaining to be disposed of.

It was expected the draft would be ready to submit to the entire consolidation commission by October 15.

Mr. De Witt said in an interview:

"There has been no delay except such as has been necessary to give the commissions enough time to carefully consider in whole and in part so vast and complicated a subject.

"The report will, I think, be ready by December 1 if not before. The committee has been working during the entire afternoon, three days of each week since September 23."

You Can Buy Your Clothes

Wherever you like. It is none of our business, but don't you hate to see a man deliberately throw away $20 or $25? Can you really sit still and see a man do that? We've tried to but it won't work.

Some men go to custom tailors, pay $35 to $40 for a very ordinary, ill-fitting suit. Now those suits cannot commence to compare with our $12 to $20 suits.

If you are a tailor-made man we would like to show you some of our suits or overcoats. It would cure you of the high-priced tailor fad.
