DESERET EVENING NEWS

ANNIVERSARY NUMBER.

Thursday, April 6, 1899, being the 69th anniversary of the organization of the Church, the "News" will on that date publish a special edition enclosed in heavy paper covers, as the most fitting in which will be memorialized of the 69 Temple that be established by the Church. In addition to the full topographical and home news of the day, editorials, State news, etc., the number will contain the following specially prepared articles:

AN ESSAY ON THE UNITED NATIONS, by Bishop H. P. Whitney, a continued history of the Church, illustrated with portraits of Joseph Smith, the Prophet, and Presidents Brigham Young, John Taylor, Wilford Woodruff and Lorenzo Snow.

AN ANSWER TO INGERSOLL, by Chas. W. Penrose.

THE RISE OF BABYLON, by M. J. Spohski.

APOSTLE GRANT'S RECENT VISIT TO KIRTLAND, O.

THE TEMPLES OF THE CHURCH.

A NEW INDUSTRY, OLD TIMES IN SALT LAKE, PROMINENT VISITORS INTERVIEWED, and

THE SALT PALACE (Illustrated).

Its advertisements will be received for the issue later than Tuesday evening, April 4, 1899.

TODAY'S WEATHER REPORT.

Weather report showing observations at 6 a. m. today:

Salt Lake Barometer, 30.90; temperature, 50; sunset, 27; wind, north; light; clear.
Forecast for Utah made at Salt Lake for 36 hours ending 6 p. m. Saturday:
Partly cloudy tonight and Thursday; warmer tonight.
Local forecast for Salt Lake City and vicinity for 36 hours ending tomorrow:
Partly cloudy tonight and Thursday; warmer tonight.
			L. H. MURDOCH,
			Section Director, Weather Bureau.

To-day's Metals.

SILVER, Bar, 70 3-4
LEAD, $4.15
CASTING COPPER, 15 1-2 cents c & f.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

Today is rainy at the fire and police departments.

Bishop Cowdin, organist in tabernacle, is ill with rheumatism.

Bishop Cowdin, organist in tabernacle, is ill with rheumatism.

Dr. A. C. Ewing has been appointed by Governor Wade to be a member of the State board of medical examiners, to serve for the ensuing two years.

The regular meeting of the State board of education will be held in the office of Superintendent Park, on Saturday at 10 a.m., when the board will prepare and organize a plan of work.

Paul Maurer, the 11-year-old son of L. C. Maurer of Provo, was run over, or his hands severely bruised, while working in the factory. A doctor's services were obtained and the young man is now improving.

Next Friday evening, April 7th, a grand ball will be given at Christensen's new Opera House, Ogden. The Scandinavian music building fund is arranging the affair. Executive committee: J. E. Jensen, P. H. Madsen and John Hagman. Reception: Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Jensen, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Christensen, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Jensen. Grand march at 9 o'clock sharp.

Since the report appeared in a morning paper to the effect that Sol. Kindt had was open for the position of chief of police the police box has been inundated with applications from aspiring patrolmen. Two young men in particular made it a point to call at Mr. Kindt's residence and assure him that they would do what they should be allowed "a crack at the taxpayer's expense."

C. F. Martin, secretary of the National Live Stock association, and Fred P. Schenck, editor of the Denver Daily Rockman, are in the city. They are here for the purpose of attending the meeting of the Utah Live Stock association, which will be held tomorrow and Friday. Both of these associations are members of the National association and Mr. Martin feels confident to assert in what way they can assist Utah.

A rumor was circulated this morning to the effect that there was some suppressed excitement in the part of the friends of Mr. Joel H. Ellis, the family and friends of Mr. Joel H. Ellis, the family and friends of Mr. Joel H. Ellis, the family and