EVENTS IN THE WEST.

A Record of Occurrences in Neighboring States and Territories.

ATE RAW BIRDS FOR NINETEEN DAYS.

Tidings from Skagway and Vicinity—Mysterious Death at Butte—Notes for Homebids.

A Butte Cook, Cal., powder company has just received a contract for blasting powder, which will be used in blasting operations in connection with the construction of a railroad in Oregon.

The roofing mill of E. B. Eno'smith of Bakersfield, Cal., was shut down last week because of the fact that the mill has a capacity of seventy-five barrels daily. The loss is not heavy.

Governor Adams Wednesday commuted Dr. H. v. Thomas, an experimenter of Los Angeles, who was sentenced to six years since pending a full investigation of his action in the killing of a man at the request of Dr. Thomas.

Ann Montgomery, an engineer, had his skull crushed in an accident at Bakersfield, Cal., Wednesday night. Uncle Crick carried it a point near Crimes Creek. Prominent John Kohl, who lives near Lerdo, Kern County, N. E. Mann suffered a similar fate.

The San Angelos (Cal.) Herald the morning date: Positive assurance has been received that the Chinese have unanimously decided to have no dealings with all its accessories and connections are cured immediately. Chinese will not handle the company's goods. The object of the company is to place on the market a medicine that will cure the Chinese forever, so that the food of a consumer in California will be a rarity.

Sherry Harris and children in Butte, and well-known characters, died suddenly. Right of years in the Montana building home in Butte on early Sunday morning, and was some time later found dead. It is said he died of heart disease. He is said to be a nephew of Father John Durbin of San Francisco. It is not known definitely what is their cause—death resulted.

Jack Sennis, a miner just grubstake who started from Skagway on November 14th for Juneau, in a flimsy boat, was washed ashore on Chilkoot Inlet during the storm that sank the Bertha, and reached Skagway on the morning of Thanksgiving. Four others are reported drowned.

Mining men who have come in from the Klondike say that the Klondike is the best country in the world for those who are able to stand the climate. Many