DESERET EVENING NEWS.

FRAGMENTS

THERE will be a session of the Third district court on Saturday next.

BUSINESS in the courts this morning was practically at a standstill.

COMMISSIONER NORRIS has been on a visit to Payette, Idaho, where he owns considerable land.

A PUBLIC debate will be held in the Social Hall tomorrow night. The question is High Licenses vs. Prohibition.

ELDER C. W. PENROSE will address the Twenty-first quorum of Elders in the Nineteenth ward meeting house tomorrow evening at 7:30 o'clock.

R. K. THOMAS, the well known Salt Lake dry goods merchant, has returned from the East whither he has been during the last five weeks buying a big stock of spring goods.

THE following order was made in the Probate court this morning by Judge Blair: Estate of Haring Warner, deceased. Petition of B. T. Pettegill (and respect of widow) for his appointment as administrator set for hearing on April 13th.

THE Students' society of the Latter-day Saints' college will hold its regular session Friday evening, March 31st, at 7:30 p. m. Dr. James E. Talmage will deliver a lecture on the subject, "The Sick in Blessing." The public are invited. Philip Maycock, Chairman.

THE entertainment in the Tenth ward meeting house last night was a complete success, and reflected credit on all taking part. Tonight will be presented the three act military drama After Taps. As the proceeds are for the benefit of the ward Sabbath School, it should be liberally patronized.

Relief Society.

The regular semi-monthly meeting of the Relief Society will be held in the Fourteenth ward meeting house, Saturday, April 1st, at 2 o'clock. A good attendance requested.

M. I. HOWNE, Prest.

THE FATE OF ENOCH DAVIS.

Judge Blackburn Will Again Pronounce the Death Sentence Upon Him, Next Week.

Enoch Davis, the Vernal wife murderer, whose appeal was dismissed by the Supreme court yesterday, will be re-sentenced to death by Judge Blackburn some time next week. The execution will not take place, as many persons suppose, in the penitentiary grounds, but at some place within the limits of the First judicial district to be hereafter decided upon.

The Stanton Investigation.

The charges against Chief Stanton were again being probed by the special committee this afternoon. They say they will be able to meet the chief's attorneys with a stack of evidence as high as Mt. Nebo.

Visitor—And how did you discover that the deceased was married?

Coroner—Humph! His suspenders are fastened with safety pins.—Clothiers' and Haberdashers' Weekly.

DEDICATION SERVICES.

Something in Relation to the First Session.

In addition to the general authorities of the Church and others, the following officers of the Priesthood of the Stakes of Zion will be admitted to the first session of the dedication services of the Salt Lake Temple, to be held on the morning of April 6th, 1893:

Presidents of Stakes and their counselors; regular members of High Councils; Patriarchs; presidents and counselors of High Priests' quorums; presidents of Seventies, (as designated by the presiding council of Seventies); Bishops and their counselors.

The classes named above will be admitted at the south gate, which will be open at 8:30 a. m. on the morning of April 6th. All must present recommends, or they will not be admitted.

WILFORD WOODRUFF,
GEORGE Q. CANNON,
JOSEPH F. SMITH,
First Presidency.

Rules to be Observed.

Notwithstanding the fact that instructions have been given to the effect that only members of the Church who obtain recommends will be admitted to the dedication services of the Salt Lake Temple, numerous inquiries are made as to whether small children will be permitted to pass in. The regulations do not allow the admission of children who have not been baptized. Parents and guardians should not attempt to break over this rule, as those who will be in charge of the entrances ought not to be compelled to turn away the little ones as well as those having them in their care.

The times for opening the south and west gates for all sessions exclusive of the first (that of the morning of the 6th) are 8 a. m. and 12:30 p. m.

No person will, under any circumstances, be admitted at the gates later than 9:30 a. m. or 2 p. m. respectively. In all probability the gates will be closed before those hours.

The egress from the Temple after each service will be by the northwest and northeast doors, respectively, and from the Block by the north and east gates.

WILFORD WOODRUFF,
GEORGE Q. CANNON,
JOSEPH F. SMITH,
First Presidency.

Y. L. M. I. A. Meeting.

The Y. L. M. I. A. meeting will be held in the Fourteenth ward Relief Society hall on next Saturday, April 1st, at 11 a. m. It is desired that each association in the Stake be represented. All who are interested in the cause are invited to attend.

MARY A. FREEZE,
Stake President.

DIVORCE PROCEEDINGS.

Williams vs. Williams.—The Thurgood Hearing Comes to an End.

In the Third District court last evening was filed the divorce suit brought by Martha Williams against her husband, John C. Eight years ago the parties intermarried in this city, and plaintiff alleges that her husband committed adultery with one Edith O. Tapp in Salt Lake in April, 1892, and at various times thereafter. It may be remembered that Williams was arrested upon the same charges as are made in the complaint about a year ago. At that time he had simply left his wife temporarily and was living with Tapp at the Warm Springs. He was tried in Commissioner Norrell's court and held to the grand jury, but released on bonds and was subsequently indicted by that body. His hearing was called in the Third District court on February 22nd of the present year and being absent his bond was declared forfeited.

Yesterday afternoon the case of Attorney F. E. Barker vs. Elias J. and Samuel R. Smith came before Commissioner Greenman for hearing. The action was brought to collect $50, alleged to be due for services rendered Mrs. Smith in securing a divorce from her husband before Judge Anderson, referee. She obtained the decree, but Judge Zane never passed on the referee's report, and in the meantime the couple kissed and made it up. The Commissioner found in favor of the defendants.

Attorney W. R. Tallock, as referee, has finished his task in the hearing of the Charlotte E. Thurgood vs. George Thurgood suit. It has been settled and dismissed.

THE MATHEMATICAL SOCIETY.

An Excellent Program for Next Saturday Evening.

The regular monthly meeting of the Utah Mathematical Society will take place next Saturday evening at 7:30 p. m. The attendance heretofore has not been very large, but it is evident that the interest in it is increasing daily. Prof. Kerr has received letters from several persons in the city inquiring when the next meeting will be held, and what is the object of its organization and its scope. The society was formed for the purpose of fostering an interest in the higher mathematics, to give a person an idea of its immense field, to give a history of the origin and development of the different branches of this science and their practical application—something which every educated man should know. Mathematics as taught in our district schools will also be discussed, and questions pertaining to this subject will be answered from teachers in the various schools. The next meeting promises to be an exceedingly interesting one. Prof. D. H. Allen will lecture on the "Origin and Development of Algebra." He will be followed by Mr. W. L. Emery, who speaks upon "Quaternions." Professor Stewart will then answer the question, "Can any term in arithmetic be construed to have two meanings?" a question upon which there are different views and plenty of room for discussion. Mr. J. W. Hoopes will speak upon the question, "Why is it necessary that the language in mathematics be exact and definite?" The musical part of the program will be a feature of the evening. There is some talk of giving a banquet at the end of the year.—University Chronicle.

AMUSEMENTS.

LETTERBLAIR closed its Salt Lake season to a light audience last evening. Strong as Sothern is here he overstaid the limit just one night, and he could readily have done in two all that he did in three.

WARDE AND JAMES sale opens tomorrow morning. Prices have been advanced, but the Theater is making preparations for a big rush.

THE HOME DRAMATIC hold a rehearsal of both the Magistrate and the World at the Theater from six till twelve tonight. The new scene painted for the Magistrate will be set up for the first time this evening.

In order that visitors to Salt Lake City during the conference and dedication exercises may learn of the various attractions which will be furnished in the city, at that time, the News has prepared the following schedule:

MONDAY, APRIL 3RD: The tragedians Warde and James in Julius Caesar at the Theater.

TUESDAY, APRIL 4TH: Warde and James in Francesca da Rimini.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 5TH: Warde and James in Othello.

THURSDAY, APRIL 6TH: Juvenile concert under the direction of Professor Stephens at the Tabernacle and at the Theater first performance by the Home Dramatic club of the comedy of the Magistrate, Messrs. FRIDAY, APRIL 7TH: Same bills at both the Tabernacle and Theater.

SATURDAY, APRIL 8TH: Revival of the sensational melodramatic spectacle The World, by the Home club at the Theater. Concert at the Tabernacle.

WITHIN OUR GATES.

J. F. Maynard, of the firm of J. F. Draper & Co., manufacturers of sleeves, also G. H. West and H. F. Smith, of Springville, are registered at the Cullen.

Dr. George H. Fitzsimore, who conducts more than one branch of business at the bustling town of Beaver and does it successfully and well, is in our midst again for a season.

The ex-mayor of the city of Beaver in the county thereof and Territory of Utah, is looking down upon the dying air streets of the metropolis once more. He will stay for a spell. His name is Henry Emerson.

J. A. Monroe, general freight agent of the Union Pacific railway, is here and has been pulling in some of his time looking into matters and things pertaining to his company.

R. K. Thomas, one of our heavy merchants who went east in time to "take in" the inauguration, but didn't go for that purpose altogether, if at all, has returned looking as well as though he had a commission boating the realskin signature of the "big chief" at Washington.

Judge H. W. (Kentucky) Smith, who sticks to Ogden like a Columbian stamp to a letter saw it (the stamp) has been thoroughly licked, came down yesterday as quietly, was as quiet while here and went away as quietly that we never knew he was here till he had gone.
