SECOND EDITION.

Saturday, October 3, 1891.

DESERET EVENING NEWS.

Due to advertisements which are reported to appear in the Deseret News on the day when received it should be stated in its business department and now may be so.

Rates of Advertising furnished upon application.

☞ Copy for advertisements must be in before noon.

FRAGMENTS.

CONVENTION begins in the Tabernacle tomorrow (Sunday) at 10 a. m.

HOLY COMMUNION tonight at half past seven o'clock.

THE famine for fruit pies continues, and as a consequence fruit has become a thing on the market.

THE chamber of Commerce officials are engaging with a Parisian firm for the importation of an artistic portrayal of Salt Lake City.

LARGE quantities of the fruit imported from California the last few days have been wholly sold for cash. Some shipments have been consigned to other towns.

REVERENCE the grand concert to be given in the Tabernacle, on Monday evening, October 5th, for the benefit of the Deseret Sunday School Union.

AT 9 a. m. today George Newton was arraigned for disorderly and assaulting an officer. He was bound up in the city jail.

THE drive wells on the site of the proposed Union Stock yards are said to be a complete success, recent good showers of water having been obtained.

INSPECTOR HUGH GRAHAM has returned from Portland, Oregon, this morning with Contraba, the accused, against whom Hamilton is charged in Chicago.

THE rate of postage on letters to Australia, New Zealand, North Wales, Victoria, Queensland, Tasmania, British North Borneo and the Fiji Islands is now 5 cents instead of 10 cents as formerly.

A MAN supposed will be held at Bancroftine and Carrier, Second South street, this city, tomorrow, for the purpose of meeting Elders Rudolph Dalton and Stevenson to be held Saturday, October 10th.

MR. JAMES A. CUNNINGHAM, of Pittsburg, representative of the Mutual Life Insurance company, who has been visiting city of the Dalton Hotel, in this city, left for northwestern. He will return in his home shortly.

THEODORE WILLIAM CAMPBELL, sentenced at Provo to four years' imprisonment for housebreaking and robbery, committed at Provo, was brought to this city last evening by Deputy Marshal Tarbet, and thence later on to the penitentiary.

YIN another vicious. Yesterday afternoon a officer of Marysvale, named Charles Lancaster, went to jump off a Moran car while in motion, struck against one of the posts and received a bad scalp wound, in addition to an injury to his shoulder blade.

THE 5:30 which passenger train over the Union Pacific, brought into nothing to this city, from the South, one hundred and forty Conference and Fair visitors, while the special train from the North was also heavily loaded with passengers, as were all of the regular trains during the day.

THE board of directors of the Odd Fellows' Building Association have decided to lay the cornerstone of the edifice, Monday, October 12, at 2 o'clock p. m., at the temple building in course of erection on Second South street. The cost of the structure will be $12,000, and is to be completed by February 1st, 1892.

THE Union Pacific will, beginning on the 15th inst., run an excursion to Colorado points. To Denver, Colorado Springs and Pueblo the rate will be $20; to Salida, Leadville and other points in the Western Colorado the rate will be $25. Stop over privileges will be allowed and tickets will be good for return over the Rio Grande Western.

THE revenue of the Salt Lake postoffice for the quarter ending June 30, 1891, was $21,108.44, an increase of $1,108.44 over the quarter ending June 30, 1890, and $2,108.44 over the quarter ending June 30, 1889, an increase of $1,108.44. The increase for the quarter ending September 30, 1891, over the same period last year was $1,108.44.

A CONVENTION has been called to meet at Lincoln, Nebraska, on the 8th inst., by the governor of the "Sage Hen State," for the purpose of adopting measures for the protection of the interests of Nebraska by the Congress of the United States. It is also contemplated that the action to be taken by the convention will be of a nature of securing proper representation from Congress will also be discussed.

THERE was a crowded congregation in the new Hebrew synagogue, on South East, last evening, to take part in the services held to welcome the Jewish new year, which which began at sunset yesterday and closes at sunset today. The services were conducted by Rabbi H. Y. Jackson, who took as his text an hour and a half long. "Upon each which he lingered very long. "Upon each one of you is to be imprinted a copy of the law." The sermon was in the usual form of a sermon, and was listened to with great attention by an overflowing audience.

THE Fire Department was called out at 8:30 a. m. today in response to an alarm from box 34, corner of Second South and Second South streets. The alarm was the explosion of a can of kerosene in A. A. Wilson's house, 34 Second South. The occupants had unfortunately poured a quantity of the oil into the stove to make a fire, and the result was that the house was in a blaze when the firemen arrived on the spot. Fortunately, the fire was soon extinguished. A large hole was burned in the floor, and some of the wall damage done. The flames were extinguished before the Department removed the scene of the fire.

Kennel Club News.

A meeting of the Kennel Club was held last night. Mr. Levy was elected chairman and S. H. Molloy secretary. The committee on entering judges reported as follows: We have selected Fred. Trimmer, Dr. Nunn, Mr. Andrews and Mr. Newcomb as assistants. Report adopted.

Resolved, That rule be entered as follows, viz.: Any dog not entered in the catalogue shall not be allowed to enter the kennel, provided they return their money, or if it be not returned, it shall be understood that the owner forfeits benefits of a dog, or return money, and shall be ineligible to enter Club dogs or exhibit on the Tabernacle would not be allowed, and so entry slight.

It was decided that dogs be judged by the rules of the American Kennel Club.

Resolution the question that the Registrar of the Kennel Club be instructed to be members of the Kennel Club, be tabled.

Resolved, That we thank Mr. Lee, jeweler, and engraved Club, as a memory member of the future pensioner and Kennel Club, and this a copy of the resolution be presented to Mr. Lee.

(Continued from Page 5.)

THE STATISTICIAN'S REPORT.

VEGETABLES.

In certainly 13 counties raised grapes, of these the total area was 25 acres. The yield was 60,000 pounds and the value of the yield $60,000. The leading grape county is Washington, the yield there being 50,000. Utah certainly raised 15,000, and Weber 20,000. The average yield per acre for the Territory was 2,324 pounds. Weber's average was 2,000, Washington's 2,000 and Utah county's 2,500.

MISCELLANEOUS PRODUCTS.

Under this head is included all the agricultural products not already named. The figures refer principally to hops, peas, beans, onions, carrots, parsnips, cabbage, radish and beets. The total acreage devoted to these products is reported as 2,027, the total yield 18,000,000 pounds and the value $900,000.

Do the county tests frequently, with 9,453,720 pounds. Utah county yielded 2,792,000, Weber 140,000 and Cache 924,000.

The average yield throughout the Territory was 8,888 pounds per acre. Davis county reports 13,000, Cache 12,000, Juab 9,000 and Box Elder 7,000 pounds per acre.

WINE AND SPIRITS.

In 1890 the Territory produced 41,000 gallons of wine valued at $38,000. Washington leads with 25,000 gallons. Utah county is next, with 10,000 gallons. Weber county produced 1,000 gallons.

The thirteen cider producing counties in 1890 yield 1,000 gallons, valued at $1,000. The president states and was producing counties are Washington, Utah, Juab, Cache, Summit, Weber, Salt Lake, Box Elder, Davis and Sanpete.

BUTTER AND CHEESE.

In 1890 the Territory produced 1,847,447 pounds of butter valued at $369,489.71. The total cheese product was 247,878 pounds, valued at $24,787.80. The principal butter and cheese counties are Cache, Weber, Garfield, Utah, Piute, San Juan, Sanpete, Davis and Box Elder. Of these Weber leads in butter and Garfield in cheese.

BEES AND HONEY.

The total product of honey for 1890 in Utah was 84,267 pounds, valued at $10,104.65. The average yield per hive was 42 pounds. This county leads in this product and Cache is second.

SILKS FRUITS.

In 1890 the Territory produced of dried apples 107,167 pounds, valued at $11,833.62. Of this amount Utah county produced 68,822 pounds, Cache county produced 20,931 pounds, and Weber 21,414 pounds.

Of dried peaches the Territory produced 179,309 pounds, values at $19,[illegible]. Washington produced of this amount 156,284 pounds.

Six counties raised 11,802 pounds of apricots, valued at $1,416.06. Fourteen counties produced 6,[illegible] pounds of dried prunes valued at $[illegible]. Eight counties produced 9,[illegible] pounds of dried pears, valued at $992.16. Washington leads in apricots, Weber in plums and Garfield in pears.

WOOL.

Utah's wool product in 1890 was 7,401,282 pounds, valued at $1,229,[illegible]. In this product Sanpete leads the counties with an output of 1,[illegible] pounds. Iron county produced 931,000 and Salt Lake 889,917. Juab reports 664,722.

LIVE STOCK.

The total number of mules owns in the Territory in 1890 was 52,000, valued at $1,[illegible]. Cache County stood in the lead with 8,276, with Salt Lake and Utah following with almost the same amount.

In 1890 the Territory possessed 227,[illegible] of cattle, valued at $5,[illegible]. Of this number Washington leads with 25,417, San Juan follows with 22,[illegible].

The horses of the Territory numbered 89,000, valued at $4,000,000. Cache is the leading horse county, reporting 7,813 head; Salt Lake follows, Box Elder, Utah, San Pete and Weber fall but a little behind them.

Of mules a total of 2,271 head was reported, valued at $[illegible]. Salt Lake County leads with 1,[illegible] head. Weber reports 124 and Utah 105.

The number of asses reported is 215, valued at $1,[illegible].

SHEEP AND GOATS.

The number of sheep in Utah in 1890 was 1,[illegible], valued at $2,847,447.35. The average yield throughout the Territory was 5.[illegible] pounds per head.

SWINE AND HOGS.

Of the Utah swine the report says: The mining industry of Utah during this season a greater output and a larger product of the precious metal than in any previous year. This was due partly to the higher price of lead and partly to the more successful working of the old chlorids.

The value of the several products was as follows: Copper $[illegible], silver $[illegible], gold $[illegible], lead $[illegible], silver $[illegible], gold $[illegible], silver $[illegible], lead $[illegible], silver $[illegible], gold $[illegible], lead $[illegible], silver $[illegible], gold $[illegible], lead $[illegible], silver $[illegible], gold