THE DISTRICT COURT.

An Army of Defendants Arraigned in Judge Boreh's Division Today.

ANDREW SWENSON CONVICTED.

Ex-Fireman Gilbert and Clerke New Mate for a Writ of Certiorari—Other Legal Business.

Judge Bartch had a busy morning in dealing with the criminal calendar, the work being of a miscellaneous character. A number of defendants, awaiting trial, were arraigned, and when the dock had been cleared of three a motion for arrest of judgment was argued. This was the last matter on hand prior to the noon recess. Chief Justice Merritt sat in the other division and dealt with a variety of civil cases.

SWENSON CONVICTED.

The jury before whom was tried the case of Andrew Peter Swenson, charged with assaulting his wife's uncle, Carl Anderson, with intent to murder, near Murray, came into court at 10 o'clock this morning, having been under lock and key all night. The verdict was not arrived at until nearly 6 o'clock this morning. The defendant is found guilty of assault with intent to do bodily harm.

The defendant's attorney, J. W. Corey, gave notice of his intention to move for a new trial and was given until Wednesday next to prepare statement. Sentence was set for the same date.

MOTHER KILLER.

The trial of Madame Kirber, the young Austrian indicted for the willful murder of Guiseppi Marano, in Parley's canyon, has been set for Monday next, but Attorney Frank H. Stephens, whom the court has appointed to conduct the defense, has notified presiding counsel affidavits in support of a motion for a continuance. The main ground on which the application is based is the absence of two most important witnesses whom it is intended to call on behalf of the defendant, namely Dieter and Kearns, and whom it has been found impossible to reach at this time. Counsel said he was most anxious that the accused should have a fair trial, as he sincerely believed that Mrs. Kirber had a good defense, and assured the court that while he was not appointed to defend until Monday afternoon last, he had since exercised the utmost diligence in the matter.

There was a good deal of argument upon the motion, and ultimately Judge Bartch took the application under advisement till 2 p. m. Instead, however, of announcing his decision today, he held it over until Monday, in order to see what prospects there are by that time of bringing up the witnesses.

At the request of Mr. Stephens, Attorney Benner X. Smith was appointed as associate counsel in the case.

ARRAIGNMENTS.

Next in order was the arraignment of a number of defendants against whom the grand jury have found indictments within the past week.

A HORRIBLE CASE.

Walter Walker, a laboring man about 30 years of age, plead not guilty to a charge of incest. He is accused of the terrible crime of assaulting his own daughter, Laura, a girl of fifteen summers. Being without means to engage counsel, the court appointed Attorney Reilly to defend him. Later the accused plead not guilty, and his bond was fixed at $1,000.

FORNICATION.

Hugh McKernan is charged with fornication. Judge Anderson is his attorney, and at his request the defendant was given till Monday morning to plead.

Wm. Latham, indicted for fornication, will also plead on Monday morning, as will Louis Carter, on a like charge. Attorney Morris is counsel for the latter.

A CHINAMAN SCORED.

Hugh McKernan and William Latham, above mentioned, were further arraigned on a charge of robbery, viz., stealing from a Chinaman named Wah Lee the sum of $4.95, on October 22nd. After the thefts had been committed officers went in search of the defendants and came across them at a certain lodging house in the city, in bed with the girl Carter (aged about 20) a daughter of "General" Carter of Industrial army renown. This discovery led to the charge of fornication against the trio.

THE FESTIVE "DR."

"Dr." Louis Siegel, the alleged bogus specialist, who a few months ago set up at the Knutsford hotel, where he literally call at the Templeton, lived in high style during his brief sojourn in the city, and "took in" various confiding acquaintances, was next promoted. He is charged with getting a check for the sum of $12.50, of the intent to defraud John Dolan, the Deseret National bank, the Union National bank of Denver, and divers other persons to the grand jury unknown. He pleaded not guilty, Morris Pompeys is his attorney.

THE "MADAME" COMES FORWARD.

Theresa J. Carson, alias "Madame" Kistner, whose case was mentioned in yesterday's NEWS, was arraigned and plead not guilty to two indictments charging her with using the United States mails for an unlawful and immoral purpose. W. H. Hotchkiss is her attorney. The defendant's bond was now reduced to $500 in each case.

A GUN WAS TAKEN AWAY.

J. C. Williams was arraigned on a charge of larceny at the store room of Morris B. Evans, further with stealing a gun therefrom, the property of Mr. Evans, on September 7th. Attorney J. H. Hard will defend and the defendant will plead on Monday.

AT THE TEMPLETON.

Willis Cochrane, a youth about 23 years of age, waived the reading of the indictment charging him with burglarizing the baggage room of the Templeton hotel on September 17th, with intent to steal. J. H. Murphy is his attorney and the defendant will plead Monday.

WALDEN'S HOUSE BURGLARIZED.

W. M. Henderson, another youth, will plead on Monday to a charge of burglary at the residence of J. S. Walden, on Sept. 21st. The court appointed Attorney E. E. Winters to defend.

BILLIE'S ALLEGED TRANSGRESSION.

Nellie Davis, a young woman of color, took till Monday to plead to an indictment charging her with stealing $51, the money of Mark Tonks.

A TRIO OF DEFENDANTS.

George Cook, James Kelly and Frank Clinton, three young men of respectable exterior, were arraigned on an indictment charging them with having come from Idaho March 9, on September 14, 1894, one watch valued at $35 and $1 in money. They all plead not guilty.

MR. BOYER WILL OBJECT.

John Regan, Joe Brown (no bail), charged with larceny, has been notified to come up next Monday to plead.

THE LUNDBERG FRUIT CASE.

Motion in arrest of judgment in the case of Fred C. Lundberg, who was recently convicted by a jury of having stolen fruit in his possession, was argued by Attorneys S. H. Lewis and C. De Knife on behalf of the defendant, the ground being taken that the law bearing upon the case is unconstitutional. Judge Howat argued for the prosecution.

Judge Bartch took the matter under advisement and ordered the defendant to appear in court on Monday morning.

JUDGMENT.

Judge Bartch had a short session this afternoon and disposed of several minor matters.

James Gerrard, an Englishman, now a resident of Taylorville, was admitted to all the privileges of citizenship.

Judge Merritt's Branch.

In the case of the State Bank of Utah vs O. A. Woolley et al, the motion to strike out answers and for judgment on the pleadings was now overruled, an exception entered and the defendant given five days in which to file amended answer to amended complaint.

MOTION DENIED.

Warren Barnhart vs Cassie Foley. Motion to discharge and dissolve attachment denied.

CONTINUED.

In the divorce suit of Josephine C. Jackson vs Gustave E. Jackson, the hearing in order to enable counsel to a temporary attorney, etc., was continued till Saturday, November 3rd.

ADMITTED TO THE BAR.

On motion of Judge Marshall, Messrs. Harry K. Harrows and Daniel Cherrington were admitted to practice at the bar of Summit.

JUDGMENT BY DEFAULT.

Charles M. Smith vs T. J. Caldwell. Judgment, as prayed, by default. $50 attorney's fee allowed.

BILL DEMURRER SUS.

Matilda Compton vs Jas. A. Compton, divorce. Hearing on order to show cause for contempt continued till November 3rd.

A CERTIORARI MATTER.

The cases of Wm. Gilbert and J. J. Clarke vs the board of fire and police commissioners of Salt Lake City, occupied most of the afternoon. Applications were made for a writ of certiorari, the same being argued by Judge Powers and Attorney D. N. Bishop for the plaintiff and by City Attorney Hoge for the defendants. The complaints of the petitioners are nearly identical and have already appeared in extenso in these columns. They claim that the board had no right to suspend them, as did certainly, by a mental examination, this power applying only to incoming firemen. Further, they allege that the charges preferred against them as to certain physical disabilities by the board were made in good faith; and whereas petitioners introduced the testimony of medical witnesses and others in their behalf, the board did not call a single witness, but in the face of everything discharged their men without argument. Judge Hoge argued that this court had no jurisdiction in the matter.

After the arguments had concluded, Judge Merritt gave counsel until Saturday next to submit authorities. Meantime he will have the matter under advisement.

A DIVORCE.

Ross Christy was granted a divorce from Hyrum Christy on the ground of failure to provide. Alimony in the sum of $5.00 was granted.

THE VERDICT.

The case of William F. Hanson vs Thomas W. Jennings and wife and Adam Paul, in which plaintiff sued to recover $1,317 alleged to be due for work and labor performed by plaintiff and others on the Third Term mine, in Tooele county, was given to the jury in Judge Merritt's court yesterday afternoon. They returned a verdict in favor of Jennings and wife, but against Paul for the full amount sued for.

"MOTHERS' CLASSES."

Admirable Definition of the Aim and Plan of Work.

According to the disposition she makes of her opportunities in the midst of a growing family and the duties of life, it is within the possibilities of a mother to make of herself either a drudge or a queen. In pursuance of the idea that mothers can set a one another in this respect, the design was put into execution in a small way during the past summer of bringing the ladies together for this purpose, and the services of Mrs. Alice Chaplin were secured as conductor of such a class. The experiment was an unquestioned success. The general committee appointed for the purpose are now arranging for other classes of the kind of which Mrs. Chaplin, by request, has kindly set out herewith her views on the "Mothers' Class." Early in the coming week notice will be published of the time and place of meeting for the ensuing year.

"You ask my plan for the coming year with my mothers' class. Connected with every authorized kindergarten normal school are mothers' classes engaged in adapting the new education to the home life. The success of his becomes each year more difficult and absorbing. Closely connected with the survival of the fittest, the struggle for existence, the throwing out of our lives so much we would gladly have, is the question, how shall my child develop the power of the will, the energy to carry him through life sane from the temptations, valor to do battle, that shall make a whole man, a complete woman of the finest sort? Mothers are anxiously questioning how their daughters shall be trained to womanhood and motherhood. Mothers' clubs are good things, very good things, but those where fathers and mothers work together are better. And it is better still if thoughtful girls and boys add the truth to their point of view.

"By through 1 and nine "Mothers' classes" fathers always come and sons and daughters are very welcome and are good help.

"There is too much vital thought waiting for us to spend time in nonsensical repetitions. The interest must be kept up by new thought and earnest work of the time is wasted. Three things are the material: knowledge, experience, faith. The knowledge we get best by reading and discussing such books as Mrs. Hopkins's "How Shall My Child be Taught?" Froebel's "Education of Man," and others. I will give a list later. The experience of any circle of mothers is valuable in proportion as they know how to observe and record, as the intuitive power is developed and as they really love their children. The ideal experience of the world is found in the best and highest conceptions of motherhood and fatherhood, earthly or heavenly, and the ideal family, the home, is found as imagination and aspiration gradually evolve it as the outcome of the will. The actual realization of this ideal family, if only a little here and a little there, will give faith to move mountains—a spade full at a time. The realization of this with in the ideal family, the making it actual, will at last give woman her kingdom—the home—whatever outside provinces she may.

"Twice this session of the home the mothers' classes will meet. The needs are so diverse that I shall have two mothers' classes one to take up all that pertains to the baby, home's kingdom, following the outline, which is not a new one.

1, Unity of aim; 2, Women's—how and why it is degrade; 3, Motherhood; 4, The Little Child; 5, Order of development—the senses, body and mind; 6, Habit; 7, Character building; 8, Play as a factor in education; 9, Amusement and amusements; 10, Work and how it is dignified—the home; 11, The ideal home; 12, The Mothers' Club; 13, Institutes—local and proper relatives, philanthropy, charities; 14, Market and religious interests; 15, What shall we do with our girls? 16, Little Helpers; 17, Adolescence; and so on—this is only to give an idea of the work.

"I usually give a talk which is informal, or followed by a full discussion. Of course, we have lots of books for reference and as much reading planned as any have time for, while some only take what they get in the class.

"The other class will take up the study of the new education and its value to the family, kindergarten and school. This class will study Froebel's Wednesday songs, Johnson's of Mind and Morals and Nursery songs. I do not know which class is the more original, Froebel's work gives interest and deeper the more wearing it. One sees so many possibilities in one's own life and for helping others.

"Monday, October 29, I shall open a normal kindergarten training school. The training lasts seven or ten the best months to fit girls for women and mothers we have yet. It is desirable to study child nature to understand one's own and for the broad views it gives, as well as to have a business by which one can support herself. The first session is free to all. It is at the Senate in Paymon Church, on Main street, at 1 p. m., Oct. 29."

World's Fair Club.

President E. B. Shipp, of the Utah Woman's Press club, writes from Paris: "I have announcing that there will be a meeting of that society at her office in this city on Wednesday evening next.

LATTER-DAY SAINTS' COLLEGE NOTES.

The College Colors—Theology Ends Prominent—Recitations, etc.

The Latter-day Saints' College colors, blue and gold, with their symbolism, "Truth and Worth," have proved both beautiful and appropriate. The main hall is decorated with them, and many of the students have provided themselves with tasteful badges. The colors are equally appropriate for decoration and for personal wear.

The writing of a college poem is being agitated.

Theology is being made the most prominent feature of the college curriculum. Regular courses are conducted in Book of Mormon history by Instructor Maycock, in the Testament history by Instructor Hogg, in Roberts' Outlines of Ecclesiastical History, by Instructor Nelson, and in Doctrinal Theology by Principal Dean. The first of these classes drills from 9:15 to 10 a.m., and the last from 12:30 to 1:15 p.m.

In addition to these courses, special lectures on "Bible Evidences" are being delivered each Thursday, 9:10 a.m., by Elder Orson Smith, and on "New Testament History" each day, 1:15 to 2 p.m., by Dr. J. M. Tanner.

The class in general science will next week complete the survey of Greek and Roman governments. The study of Teutonic polity and government during the middle ages will be taken up.

The defendants have entered plea of not guilty.

A Boy Rest.

A boy named Monroe jumped on the rear platform of an eastbound car on Washington avenue and was hanging to the lower step when he fell from it to collide with a post and he was thrown to the ground unconscious.

PROVO.

PROVO, UTAH, - OCT. 27, 1894.

First District Court.

A jury was called in the case of Alice Butterworth vs John Butterworth et al to recover $5,170 on account of wrongful conversion of 2,300 head of sheep in 1892. Mrs. Butterworth is the assignee of Robert Young and Martha A. Young, and was also behalf as owner of about 1,100 head of sheep. The sheep had been placed in the hands of one Stewart, and he turned them over to Rosenhill and the other defendants, who were also interested in the flock. Plaintiff made a demand for her sheep but failed to get them or any remuneration for them, and hence brings suit.

The case of Martha J. Pemberton vs Tabitha Fridley et al was set for November 8th.

The case of W. J. Pace vs James Van Tassell was continued to October 29th.

S. A. King, E. A. Wilson and M. M. Kelly were appointed to examine A. D. Hullinger of Vernal as to his qualifications for a license to the bar.

Notes and Personal.

Joseph H. Householder, aged 24, and Isabel Adams, aged 24, both of American Fork, have taken out a marriage license.

Martin & Sweeny, bankers, are preparing to move into their present lodgings on Seventh street to J street across from the federal court house. Their new quarters are being fitted up with vaults.

Bartlett and Murray the Colorado horsethieves have been regularly guarded every night in the county jail, since their standing in criminal circles became known. The Denver detectives are expected down from Salt Lake this afternoon, and it is supposed they will take the prisoners east this evening. Sheriff Brown of this county, who caused the arrest of Bartlett and Murray in Salt Lake City on the charge of committing burglaries in Provo, will receive the $100 reward.

J. D. Hale has returned from a short visit to the Ashley country. He was out there on legal business and incidentally did a little political work. Both parties held their county convention while he was there. For Constitutional delegate the Republicans nominated R. K. Bennion and the Democrats nominated Lycurgus Johnson.

Jas. C. Nuttall, of this city, and Mary A. Williams, of Lake View, were married at the residence of the bride's parents Thursday evening. A reception was given the happy couple last evening by Mr. and Mrs. Williams.

Dynamite Curtius was brought before United States commissioner Dudley Tuesday, on a charge of assault committed on B. F. Minner. The evidence was to the effect that Minner had gone into a tunnel on the Rio Grande Western railway, near Pleasant Valley junction, where defendant was at work as a section hand. Minner asked for the section boss, and Curtius struck him with a shovel. The defendant, through an interpreter, explained that he had only been in the country a few months, and did not understand Minner, who, he was afraid intended to run him, and that was the reason he struck at him. Commissioner Dudley imposed a fine of $1 and costs, in all about $65.

NEWS FROM THE NORTH.

Mr. E. O. Sachen, who has been in the north on a business trip for two months returned home Sunday morning. During his trip he visited all the important towns and mining camps in Southern Idaho and that part of Montana about Helena, and reports everything in a much improved condition everywhere. Although the agricultural country along Snake river in Southeastern Idaho the land is being taken up and cultivated and towns growing rapidly, and Banks St. Anthony the greatest place along the whole line of his travels and the Gold camps of Virginia City, Sheridan, Salmon River, Silver City and DeLamar all in a booming condition, and Hailey is again taking on its old time thrift. Mr Sachen is highly pleased with our new location, but not at all surprised at our large increase in trade, as he says there could scarcely follow with the increase of stock and enterprising facilities. He thinks our new fall goods the most desirable selection and at the lowest prices he ever saw offered. His sale sales were five times as much as on his last trip over the same territory last spring. This he thinks is partially due to the better financial feeling, but more largely due to the greater inducements we are offering this fall.

Call and look over our goods, see and handle, then compare the prices. Then, and then only will you appreciate our offerings.
