CONDEMNATION OF WATER RIGHTS

House Passes Eminent Domain Bill After Considerable Strenuous Opposition.

MERRILL WANTED TO ADJOURN

Tried This to Prevent Action on the Educational Bills—Measures Go Through.

There was fun in the house yesterday afternoon when Kinney moved a reconsideration of S. B. 20, known as the eminent domain bill. The measure was killed several days ago, but it was evident that many had voted upon it under a misapprehension and they desired to set themselves right by taking it up again. The motion was vigorously opposed, but after much discussion it prevailed and the bill was read and placed upon its final passage. Joseph was much opposed to the measure, and offered a number of amendments, one of which, exempting mining water rights from condemnation, was adopted. As amended the bill passed with Dailey, Fishburn, Hone, Hopes, Maughan, Merrill, Panter and Roberts voting against it.

WANTED TO ADJOURN.

Following this feature of the session, Merrill surprised his colleagues by moving that the house adjourn sine die. This was caused by the action of the senate in passing two bills prescribing the courses of study at the Agricultural college and University of Utah. Speaker Hull explained that if the motion prevailed it would necessitate an extra session for the passage of the appropriation bill, which would cost the state in the neighborhood of $10,000. The motion being insisted upon, it was put to a vote and was overwhelmingly defeated.

The bills referred to were numbered 151 and 152, the former pertaining to the work to be done at the Agricultural college, and the latter defining the courses at the University of Utah. Roberts made a desperate effort to commit the measures, but on the point being raised that the house had decided to place all senate bills directly on the calendar, the motion was lost on a vote of 14 to 27.

MEASURE WINS.

Then Roberts moved to strike out the enacting clause of S. B. 151. This failed on a vote of 13 to 27, after which the roll was called, and the bill passed on the following vote:

Ayes—Allen, Anderson (A. V.), Carroll, Christensen, Cottam, Cromar, Edward, Hawley, Hopes, Johnson, Jones, Kinney, Lyman, Marks, McCrea, Pace, Panter, Peterson, Richards, Stookey, Stringham, Thompson, Tolton, Wilson, Hull—25.

Nays—Austin, Dailey, Fishburn, Gundry, Hone, Joseph, Luther, Maughan, Merrill, Pancake, Roberts, Simons, Spencer, Stewart, Wootton—15.

Similar action was taken on the University bill, the vote being exactly as on the one preceding it.

APPROVED BY GOVERNOR.

During the session the governor reported having approved the following:

H. B. No. 67—Amending law relating to fees of district and county clerks.

H. J. R. No. 1—Providing for submission of amendment to Constitution exempting mortgages from taxation.

H. B. No. 144—Amending law relating to school elections to conform to the new manner of electing county superintendents.

H. B. No. 146—Making it the duty of county superintendents to file with state board of education reports on the qualifications of teachers.

H. B. No. 145—Providing for revocation of teachers' certificates by state board of education.

H. B. No. 165—Making the possession of stolen goods prima facie evidence of larceny.

H. B. No. 155—Allowing justices of the peace $3 for taking charge of dead bodies when no inquest is held.

H. B. No. 4—Abolishing the silk commission.

H. B. No. 166—Relating to the settlement of estates.

H. B. 190—Appropriating $2,500 for the relief of Zezulon Jacobs.

H. B. No. 186—Appropriating $2,500 for the relief of David Wilcken.

COMMITTEE REPORTS.

The committee on elections recommended the passage of S. B. 24, abolishing the new registration every four years. Adopted.

The committee on banks and banking recommended the non-passage of S. B. 123, relating to negotiable instruments. Adopted.

Herbine is a boon for sufferers from anæmia. By its use the blood is quickly regenerated and the color becomes normal. The drooping strength is revived. The langor is diminished. Health, vigor and tone predominate. New life and happy activity results. Mrs. Belle H. I have wished that I had known of it in my husband's lifetime." 50c. Sold by Z. C. M. I. Drug Dept. B

WONDERS OF SCIENCE.

Prof. Wm. J. Clarke Demonstrates Them at Barratt Hall.

"The Wonders of Modern Science" was the subject of an interesting illustrated talk by Prof. William J. Clarke in Barratt Hall last night.

The entertainment, which closed the regular season of the M. I. A. Lecture bureau, was attended by an audience which comfortably filled the large hall, and which enjoyed the instructive demonstrations of radium, wireless telegraphy, the X-ray, and electricity in its latest discovered antics. Perhaps the topic which the audience followed with most interest was the experiment in wireless telegraphy, during which a battery was carried out of the room and from a point on the street was able to operate an instrument on the stage. From different portions of the room the battery touched off a phonograph by means of a wireless wave, and gave the audience a portion of President McKinley's last speech.

Among the first sterioptiocn views shown were pictures of Roentgen, Edison, Morse, Marconi, Hertz, Franklin, Tesla, Moore, Farraday, and others whose names are inseparably linked with electricity.

A demontration with the Moore light, a luminant much brighter than electricity anl one that can be manufactured twice as cheap, was viewed with great interest.

Tonight in Barratt Hall, Prof. S. H. Clark of the University of Chicago opens a series of five readings and dramatic interpretations, mostly in the field of standard classics. Tonight "King Lear" will be given, followed by Hawthorne's "Scarlet Letter" tomorrow afternoon and "Richard III" tomorrow evening.

Champion Liniment for Rheumatism.

Chas. Drake, a mail carrier at Chapinville, Conn., says: "Chamberlain's Pain Balm is the champion of all liniments. The past year I was troubled a great deal with rheumatism in my shoulder. After trying several cures the storekeeper here recommended this remedy and it completely cured me." There is no use of anyone suffering from that painful ailment when this liniment can be obtained for a small sum. One application gives prompt relief and its continued use for a short time will produce a permanent cure. For sale by all druggists.

THE PELLETIER CASE.

Postoffice Inspector F. C. Sharp Returns From Texas Without His Man.

J. C. Pelletier, the man who, it is alleged, passed himself off as a postoffice inspector and who secured sums of money from various people in this city and Provo, is still in custody at El Paso, Texas, where he is held pending a hearing before a United States commissioner on March 21. Postoffice Inspector F. C. Sharp, who went to bring Pelletier back to Salt Lake, returned without his man. Mr. Sharp brought with him a likeness of the prisoner, which when shown to Chief Bywater, L. A. Doles and Fred Wey, was pronounced to be the picture of the man who secured sums of money from them under false pretense. Should Pelletier be bound over to the United States court in the Texas city, he will be brought to Salt Lake.

It is said that Pelletier attempted to pose as an inspector before Postmaster Clove at Provo, but when his credentials were demanded he claimed that he had left them at the residence of Senator Smoot. He did not again appear at the postoffice.

Cured Consumption.

Mrs. B. W. Evans, Charwater, Kan., writes: "My husband lay sick for three months. The doctors said he had quick consumption. We procured a bottle of Ballard's Horehound Syrup, and it cured him. That was six years ago and since then we have always kept a bottle in the house. We cannot do without it. For coughs and colds it has no equal." 25c. 50c and $1.00. Sold by Z. C. M. I. Drug Dept. B

AXTON ON "MORMONS."

Former Salt Laker Lectures on Utah At Leavenworth, Kan.

The Leavenworth Times of recent date has the following paragraphs which will be of interest in this city:

"Tuesday night Union hall was crowded to the doors with men to hear the illustrated lecture 'Utah and the Monrmons,' as given by Chaplain Axton. Those who expected anything sensational about the Mormons were disappointed but those who enjoy beautiful scenery, a clever description of the country, and a knowledge of the peculiarities of the belief of the Mormons were delighted. The chaplain has a fine collection of pictures and puts enough life and humor into his lecture to give it a good edge."

The Times also says:

"In making his plans for service at the Post chapel Chaplain Axton has arranged for a popular Thursday night service and has elicited the support of the young peoples' societies of Leavenworth for it. This evening the Y. P. S. C. E. of the Congregational church will have the 'Popular Thursday night,' in charge and a goodly number of the members are going out to assist in the music."

SENATORS SWELL APPROPRIATIONS

They Increase General Expense Bill by Nearly Forty Thousand Dollars.

HAD BEEN TRIMMED TOO MUCH

Accordingly Amounts Were Added Here and There for Various Items—Then Went to the House.

The appropriation bill came sauntering into the senate with a smile yesterday at 4 o'clock, overladen with an excess of $300,000 above the revenues. Every senators had been figuring for hours how he could knock a few dollars off and conservative figures had planned a decrease to within $18,000 of the $100,000 excess allowed by Governor Cutler. But to the surprise of everybody the bill emerged from the rough handling of the senate $39,200 greater than it came in. The trouble was with the "Alfalfa Club," who were strongly organized for the last battle and who made their hard fight on roads and bridges. The friends of the Agricultural college went down to defeat in an attempt to raise the appropriation, taking with them the nominal sum of $5,000 for repairs. President Love vacated the chair to fight for an additional $15,000 for a University gymnasium, and won on the contention. The movement against the bounties resulted in knocking out $12,000 from the $22,000 appropriated for wild animals and $3,500 from the grasshopper bounty.

Johnson succeeded in tacking on $7,500 to pay the outstanding obligation of the St. Louis fair commission, and Gardner, too, got $5,000 for mental hospital improvements.

When the clerk had read the bill clear through to the last pages where each county was lined up for its portion of road and bridge money, despite its needs and demands, there was the main trouble of the day.

Lawrence protested against this effort to force Salt Lake county to take and expend money for which she had no need, and couldn't possibly use even if the Legislature did compel her to take it.

"I move to strike out the appropriation for Salt Lake county," put in Bamberger. But the country members would not allow Salt Lake to side-step the money, for some one found a law compelling appropriations for each county to be equal to be illegal.

Lawrence tried to slice the appropriation in two, and lost. Hollingsworth attempted to nip off a fourth, but there was no quarter from the farmers. Then Bamberger tried one more. He assaulted the Salt Lake county appropriation, and tried to force the state to keep half of it, but he fell on the skirmish line by a solid "Alfalfa vote."

So far the outlying county forces had been on the defensive, but now in a sudden and successful raid on the city camp they carried back an additional $1,075.90 for Summit, and $1,000 for Juab.

The roll was then called, after the statement had been made that the bill had gained $39,200 on the floor.

A heavy vote against it was the result—Bamberger, Lawrence, Park, and Williams voting nay.

GOVERNOR'S SECOND VETO.

A communication from Governor Cutler accompanied S. B. 107, on the sale of liquor in counties outside of incorporated cities. The communication called attention to certain paragraphs of the bill capable of such insurruction as would bring law suits to decide them. It went back to the judiciary committee for consideration.

Two meritorious bills were killed, for the reason, as explained by senators, that the state had no funds to undertake the proposed work. The first was H. B. 177 by Marks creating a capitol fund, and the other S. B. 56, by Lawrence, providing for a monument for deceased soldiers and sailors.

PASSED BY THE SENATE.

Senate resolution No. 6, by Bamberger, relating to the regulation of elections.

H. B. No. 226, by Kinney, relating to service of summons.

S. B. No. 153, by committee on public institutions, relating to state board of corrections.

S. B. No. 151, by joint comittee, relating to courses in Agricultural college.

S. B. No. 152, by joint committee, relating to courses in University of Utah.

H. B. No. 227, by Kinney, relating to reports from local health officers.

The senate concurred in house amendments to the following:

S. B. No. 24, by Walton, relating to the registration of voters.

S. B. No. 72, by Hollingsworth, relating to time of assessments.

APPROVED BY THE GOVERNOR.

Governor Cutler notified the senate that he had approved the following bills:

S. B. No. 98, by Walton, relating to sanitation on school grounds.

S. B. No. 43, by Walton, relating to reservoir land grant funds.

S. B. No. 64, by Park, relating to staff organizations of national guard.

S. B. No. 120, by Gardner, repealing arid land reclamation commission law.

S. B. No. 131, by judiciary committee, relating to corporate s[illegible]tyship on bonds.

S. B. No. 106, by Hollingsworth, relating to real estate held by counties under tax deeds.

S. B. No. 62, by Lawrence, relating to issuance of scrip by cities.

S. B. No. 63, by Lawrence, relating to special taxes in cities.
