Parowan Stake Sunday Schools.

PAROWAN, Iron County, Sept. 22.—Minutes of the Sunday school conference of Parowan Stake held at Parowan, Sept. 14 and 15, 1895. Present on the stand were Assistant General Superintendent George Goddard, Elder Thomas C. Griggs of the Union board, and Stake Supt. J. H. Armstrong. Meeting was called to order by J. H. Armstrong.

The Sunday school choir officiated in the singing. Prayer by Brother L. D. Watson.

After singing, Superintendent Geo. Goddard said he was pleased to meet with the Sunday school. His interest was with these institutions. The speaker had visited twenty-two Sunday school conferences and had traveled 22,000 miles in doing the same.

Elder Thomas C. Griggs said that in Brother Goddard we have a sermon. His labors were of such a nature that we should be stimulated. Hoped we would not shrink from our duty when we saw such an example. Also the experience of others was profitable for us to study. The Gospel points out to us each, according to age and conditions, that which will be good for us in life and in eternity. He advised the keeping of individual journals, and related incidents of the Deaf and Dumb Sunday schools in Salt Lake City.

Superintendent Armstrong regretted that more were not present to enjoy the good spirit and speaking.

After singing Elder Morgan Richards dismissed the meeting.

Afternoon session—The choir sang. Prayer by Elder S. P. Horsley. Singing.

S. P. Horsley reported the Paragonah Sunday school as doing a good work. The attendance of teachers and pupils was good.

Next was an exercise by the second intermediate class of Parowan school, conducted by Miss Annie Connell, after which a song by two primary girls.

Elder Griggs felt encouraged with the exercises of the pupils. Reported the number enrolled in Sunday schools as being over 100,000.

Brother Goddard stated he had been a secretary for thirty years. Referred to the qualifications necessary to labor as God's servants. Sang a song, "Have You Spent a Pleasant Day?"

After singing Superintendent Armstrong pronounced the benediction.

Saturday evening—After singing and prayer by Elder Thomas Durham, Superintendent Goddard spoke upon the necessity of reverence for Deity, honesty, concert singing, and the various methods of raising Sunday school purposes.

Elder T. C. Griggs spoke on the necessity and benefit of each one keeping a journal of our lives, as it serves as a mirror of our lives and a stimulus to do better. Also of the mission of music.

Singing.

Benediction by Simon Mathesen.

Sunday morning—Meeting called to order by J. H. Armstrong at 10 a. m. Choir sang a hymn. Hans Mortensen offered prayer. Choir sang.

Supt. Wm. H. Holyoak reported the school of Parowan as carrying out as nearly as possible the mode of teaching as given by the Sunday school normal class at Provo.

Class exercises by the Parowan school conducted by Miss Bell Connell. It was very interesting and creditable.

Supt. John S. Woolbury reported the school of Cedar City as improving and doing a good work.

As many wards as were reported nearly all complained of a lack of teachers, and their slackness in being punctual, as the pupils follow their example. Also of the lack of interest parents take as to what and by whom their children are being taught.

Supt. Geo. Goddard had been pleased with the reports and also with the class exercises he had witnessed. The children of today will be the fathers and mothers of tomorrow, therefore they should be taught righteous principles. Spoke on the subject of the Sacrament. Said that no superintendent had any right to interfere with the same unless instructed to do so by the bishopric. A census should be taken of all children between the ages of 4 and 20 years, and have them visited by Sunday school teachers; laid great stress on the benefits of keeping the Word of Wisdom and the evil effects of round dancing.

Elder Griggs said few young men refused to respect the authority of the Priesthood. He spoke on the benefits of teachers' meetings. Singing. Benediction by Bishop Adams.

At a meeting of the stake presidency and Sunday school officers and workers, Brother Goddard spoke of the purposes for which Nickel Day was instituted.

Question by J. H. Armstrong. How should minutes be approved?

Answer—They should be approved by the uplifted hand. Said where children of faithless Latter-day Saints desire baptism the parents should be visited and find out whether they are willing for their children to receive baptism.

Elder Griggs talked about Nickel Day and said it was the earnest desire that nothing should interfere with the Sabbath school. Benediction by J. H. Armstrong.

Sunday afternoon—Choir sang. Prayer by Elder Francis Webster. After singing the Sacrament was then administered to the congregation.

Superintendent Armstrong rose to report the schools of the Stake. Said they were all graded according to the design of the general superintendency.

Next was a song by the Misses Ida and Mamie Durham.

The general and Stake officers were presented and unanimously sustained.

President U. T. Jones felt that the parents did not give the school the support they should.

Brother T. C. Griggs gave good instructions to parents. Spoke upon subjects of prayer, fasting, baptism and the faculties of the mind.

Brother George Goddard said the two greatest blessings a person can enjoy are good health and the Spirit of God to guide them. Concluded as usual by singing a song.

The visiting brethren were full of instruction and good to the people.

Conference adjourned. Choir sang an anthem, Oh, how lovely is Zion.

Benediction by U. T. Jones.
