We did not get the news of the death of Gen. Grant in time for us to show our respect for the illustrious dead on We have a daily man, which leaves Wanship, where the railway connection is, at 8 a. m., and the mail arrives there at 12 m., giving us a two days' daily instead of one, or, in other words, it takes two days for a letter to come from Coalville to this place, a distance of 23 miles. We have petitioned the Postoffice Department for a change so that the mail would leave Wanship soon after its arrival there, which would give us mail matter through from Sait Lake City and intervening places in one day. The Post-master-General will not grant the change unless the contractor will sign the petition, which he refuses to do, thereby leaving the southern portion of the county in the same situation that

The people living in Woodland Ward on either side of Provo river, according to previous arrangements, turned out on the 23c inst., to search for the body of Sister Elizabeth Almond, who was drowned on the 25th of June, near Moon's saw mill, about twelve miles southeast of Kamas, but they failed to find it. It was, however found by a disherman on the 24th about two miles below where she fell in, her body having caught in the forks of a tree in the Au finquest was held on Saturday, the 25th, by the Summit County Coroner, James McCormick, Esq., of this place. In accordance with the testimony aduced, the verdict of the jury is that the drowning was accidential, without any blame being attached to any one Though decomposition had commenced she was placed in a nice coffin and buried the same day with respect to the dead and sympathy for the living who mourn her loss. There is a general time of good health and a fair prospect of good crops this season and a considerable improvement going on considering the dull

"O, Lor' Hit 'Im Again!"

In the early days of Methodism in Scotland, a certain congregation, where there was but one rich man, desired to build a new chapel. A church meeting was held. The old rich Scotchman rose and said: "Brethren, we dinna need a new chapel: I'll give £5 for re-Just then a bit of plaster falling from the ceiling hit him on the head.

Looking up and seeing how bad it was, he said: "Brethren, its worse than I-thought: I'll mak it 50 pun'."
"Ob, Lord," exclaimed a devoted brother on a back seat, "hit 'im again!" There are many human tabernacles which are in sore need of a radical building over, but we putter and fuse from the reflection of other light, and who are left in darkness when that rethat we act independently, and do the right thing. Then it is that we most keenly regret because we did not sooner use our jadgment, follow the advice born of the experience of others and jump away from our perils.
