WAY MAY BE RESUMED, SAYS MERRIAM.

Santa Fe's Terminal Facilities—Lumber Goes Up—Meteoric Display—Business With South America.

The dead body that was found Sunday in Barnes lake, Seattle, has been identified as that of Fred Miller of San Diego. He was a civil engineer.

Some very important permits recently were issued in Boise City, especially the books being found among the effects of J. Curtis, who recently died there of poverty.

Cotember of Customs, J. W. Troy, at Juneau, Alaska, has been arrested on the charge of embezzlement. Troy is thought to be a relative of John D. Hyde, an attorney of Juneau.

Andrew Peterson, who murdered an Indian woman about one year ago, was sentenced on Monday at Fort Townsend, Wash., to two years' imprisonment in the state penitentiary.

John F. Hooper died at Leadville, Colo., Monday, as the result of being violently hit over the head with the butt of a pistol. D. W. Cross, a bartender, has been arrested, charged with murder. The Cross are prominent in Leadville.

The board of directors of the Defiance Pacific Gold, Sec. Francisco, met Monday and declared dividend No. 3, of 1 per cent. The amount thus declared is about $2,500 and will be paid on or about the 20th of the month, which is a total indebtedness of $1,600,000.

The meteoric display of Leonids was observed at the Lick observatory on the 14th and the very remarkable meteor was observed by attaching an automatic shutter to the lens of the photographic telescope. Photographic plates with the telescope and tracks of white meteors were obtained.

The British ship Leonidas, Captain H. E. Lindsay, bound from Shanghai for Portland, Ore., is still in Sydney, she has not been heard from since the day she sailed. By some the vessel has been given up for gone, and it is said she finished undermanned, but it is usual in regard to this ship.

The United States transport steamer St. Paul, laden with army supplies and Chinese goods for the addition of the Philippines, will leave San Francisco on Wednesday. There are 1,000 packages for an author living in Chicago, and not to speak of the dance Chinese furniture to the boys on the other side of the world.

Reinhold Sadler will probably be the next governor of Nevada. The vote between the Republican nominee, William McMillan, and Sadler, the efforts of the Silver party, has been very close, with McMillan in the lead, but returns from outlying districts have been received ahead for 17 votes. There are considerably votes to hear from, but the result cannot be changed.

The Pine Manufacturers' association has lowered the selling price of lumber $1 a thousand, the new rate being $15. The reason given for the advance is the scarcity of logs on Puget Sound. The rush to the Klondike and the war, it is assumed, have drawn away so many men that it has been impossible to secure enough hands during the last season to get out logs to meet the demands of the mills.

Harry Simpson, a large horse-dealer of Manitoba, who has just returned to Vancouver from an unsuccessful attempt to reach the Klondike via the Edmonton route, declares that he and his party were held up at Hell Hole canyon, Lard river, by Indians with guns and forced to give the redskins their outfits. Thirty mounted police and two detachs of Hussars then have arrived there enroute to Klondike.

The dead body of Jay H. Adams, one of the prominent attorneys of Washington state, was found near the Northern Pacific tracks Monday in the vicinity of Hope, Ida., with the skull caved in. Mr. Adams fell from the moving train Sunday night and struck on the rocks forty-five feet below the track. He was bound for the district of Pend Oreille Falls & Northern railway company. The body was taken to Sandpoint for burial.

Major General Merriam is quoted as saying: "It would not surprise me to see that the quasi-peace between the United States and Spain had been broken off. If the work of the commission proves fruitless it means a resumption of war. If Spain refuses to accede to our demands, it will show that she has secured information of the state of our war preparations. Should Germany take a hand in this matter, England will be with us and then I look for France to put her finger in the pie."

The Tallant Banking company, one of the oldest institutions in the world, has closed its doors. Liabilities and transferred all of its assets, valued at over $1,000,000, to the Crocker-Woolworth National bank of San Francisco. The settlement of the Tallant Banking company from business is due solely to personal affairs of the stockholders. The Tallant family has retired and the members could not give the time or personal attention to the business they desired, so they agreed to dispose of their interests altogether.

A. Baldwin, agent and one of the principal owners of the Delfina Commercial Steamship company of Genoa, is in San Francisco. He intends to go to San Francisco, to arrange for the trade of a week.

The Japanese cruiser Chiyoda will have steam up to her destiny in just this week and her dynamo and small machinery will be tested. By June all the necessary tests will be over and she will be ready for the trial trip, when the cruiser will be put on the dry dock to be painted and have her wheels put on. It is expected that the cruiser will be ready for her trial trip some time between Dec. 1 and the 15th. The trial will take place in Cape Nichols, Mexico, Cal., and will be a very thorough one.

The Oregon lumber company, Meadows and Co. in Death factory for the season. The mill is to close, it is stated, this one and a half million feet. It is only half what was originally estimated would be the cut of the mill. The delays were occasioned by the late rains, one of the best days did not come up, the average cut of the season is only half of the estimated cut, a source of neither of individuals concerned, lots of logs not being harvested as all because promises did not come up to the cost expenses of dipping. Figures are: The season has been a good one for a short one.

It is stated on good authority that the Santa Fe railroad has secured excellent terminal facilities in San Pedro, Cal. The property extends from the company's present adjacent to the Spear street wharf. Part of the land is at present occupied by the Dalton warehouse. The Santa Fe will have the whole block bounded by Spear, Main, Harrison and Bryant streets, in addition to a number of other lots. The agents of the company looking to the purchase of the property have been in progress since Friday. Report of the Santa Fe left there a few weeks ago, and the fact is now made public that a road has been located and the necessary within the city limits, and the best operations of the purchase price and rate in the company. When the purchase of the property has been finally consummated, negotiations have reached the point where the deal is almost a matter of formal nature.

IT ENDED HER TROUBLE.

"I never counted newspaper notoriety, yet I am not afraid to speak a good word for your 'Favorite Prescription' and 'Pleasant Pellets.' Over a year ago I suffered terribly for nearly four weeks with prolapsus and weakness. After using one bottle of 'Favorite Prescription' I felt better, and now I am well woman. I have taken no medicine since and have had no symptoms of my former trouble."—Mrs. E. A. Bender, Keene, Coshocton Co., Ohio.

Saponifier.

Pearline is the only perfect saponifier. It is not a soap, but a powder, and is intended for use in place of soap. Pearline saponifies the fatty matter in the dirt, and leaves the dirt floating in the water, to be easily rinsed or lifted out. Pearline does the work of soap, and does it better than soap ever can.

It and take no other.
