LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

THEATRICAL.—There is a big bill for to-[illegible] "The Robbers of the Pyrenees" and [illegible] Bill and Me." Lots of sentiment [illegible] an immensity of fun. Remember the benefit of Mr. W. H. Power, to-morrow [illegible]

THE SOUTHERN RAILROAD.—The cere-[illegible] of breaking ground for this line [illegible] place at 10:50 a.m. to-day, at the north [illegible] corner of the Old Fort Block, 6th [illegible]. Among those present were Presidents Brigham Young, George A. Smith and Daniel H. Wells and Elder George Q. Cannon, also of the officers of the road. F. [illegible], General Superintendent, William [illegible], Director, Jesse W. Fox, Chief Engineer, George Swan, Secretary, and a number of the leading private citizens. A dedicatory prayer was offered by Elder George Q. Cannon, and ground was broken by President Young, followed by D. H. Wells, Wm. Jennings and F. Little.

Contractors and operatives are ready to commence work on the road immediately. Four miles of the road are already contracted for.

OUR DELEGATE.—A special train left this afternoon for Ogden, on which were Presidents Brigham Young, George A. Smith and Daniel H. Wells, a number of the Twelve Apostles, a party of leading citizens and a [illegible] and string band to welcome home our honorable delegate, William H. Hooper.

ESCAPED PRISONERS.—We were informed on Saturday, by an orderly from Camp Douglas, that the garrison was suddenly alarmed on Friday night by the [illegible] of the "long roll" which means for everyman to turn out under arms. The cause of this was soon made apparent; half a dozen prisoners, who had been under confinement at Camp, had broke jail and escaped, the sentry who was on guard going with them. On making this discovery Major Ingrow at once dispatched a mounted Marshal Patrick, who with his deputies, assisted by Captain Hurt and the police, made an effort to discover the whereabouts of the runaways. The General also sent a company in pursuit. We have not heard that any of the men have been recaptured. Among the six were [illegible] the mail robber, and a man named Harrington, accused of murder.

DEAD BODY FOUND.—The dead body of a man was found on the military reservation, on the bench east of the 10th Ward, on Saturday, in an advanced state of decomposition. The following is the description of the remains given by officer Hampton, who was sent to the spot as soon as information reached the City Hall of the discovery of the body:

The man appeared to be about fifty years of age, hair partly mixed with gray. He had a white, high-crowned hat, rather old and with stiff brim; light pilot cloth coat, with large plaid linings; dark pants, of Kentucky jeans, light blouse of jeans; new "home-made" shoes; gray socks; gray knit undershirt; light woolen overshirt; "home-made" vest, sheep's gray, lined with blue jeans, and with brass buttons having a red dot in them; and black silk neck-tie. In his pockets were a rubber pocket-comb, part of a fine-comb, two tailor's thimbles, a pair of spectacles with brass bows, and two pieces of pink calico made into handkerchiefs. No marks of violence were visible on the person.

SEXTON'S REPORT FOR APRIL.—Males 11, females 8. Of these, adults 6, children 13. Causes of death as reported: Lung disease, fevers 3; inflammation bowels 3; child-bed 2; marasmus 2; heart disease 1; old age 1. Total interments 19.

JOSEPH E. TAYLOR, Sexton.

DAVIS COUNTY CO-OPERATIVE FINE WOOL ASSOCIATION.—Arthur Stayner, Esq., has furnished us with the following concerning the above association: Stock has been taken to the amount of $2,773.50 which was paid for in live stock, horses and cattle. A splendid herd-ground, situated at the north end of Cache Valley, has been selected. It comprises 100 square miles of excellent feed, with a good piece of farming land, 400 acres, adjoining. From 500 to 1000 tons of hay can be cut every season in the vicinity of the herd ground. Besides the stock subscribed for, the association has taken 124 animals to herd at $3 per annum, per head. Ten head of choice thoroughbreds, bought by Mr. John Pack, in Kentucky, have lately been received. The owners are much satisfied with the purchase.

This association has been inaugurated under very favorable circumstances and, without doubt, will be eminently successful.

GENERAL STOCK DRIVE.—See notice of General Stock Drive in another column.

BRIGHAM CITY.—Our correspondent, A. C., writing from that place, April 29th, says: "The fields and orchards here are now looking promising for good crops. We have discovered no grasshoppers yet in this county. It will be remembered that, four years ago last fall, these pests came in clouds from the north and reached Cache and a part of Box Elder Counties before winter set in. I think only a few spots of them can be found in the north, whereas Southern Utah, a part of California and Arizona have received the main body of them. They seem southwardly bound.

We are at work—establishing a co-operative dairy, and a sheep herd. We are favored with health and peace. Our mining prospects are yet indecisive."

HORSE TRAINING.—Prof. W. E. Wallace, on Saturday afternoon, gave an exhibition of his power over the horse, at McKimmon's stable, when he clearly manifested the superiority of his system and his ability to impart the art to others. It will be seen, by an advertisement in another column, that he purposes giving exhibitions of his skill next Thursday at two, and Saturday hour p.m., in the yard of the General Stock Office. He intends on these occasions to take in hand a number of wild, untamed animals which will be brought in by the general stock drive. A gentleman, who was present at the exhibition on Saturday last, offered to bet with Prof. Wallace that he had a wild horse that he, the Professor, could not subdue. Prof. Wallace wishes it understood that he is not a betting man; he does not believe in making money by chance, but says that if the gentleman will bring along his horse on Thursday or Saturday he will, aside from all betting, undertake to subdue and make it completely tractable. The Professor's usual price for lessons in his system is $25; but in consideration of having the use of the Tithing Office yard, and of the fact that the imparting of his system to a large number of the people here will be of great benefit to this community, in which horses are so extensively used, he has concluded to reduce the price one half. He traveled with the famous Professor Rarey and claims that his system is an improvement on Rarey's.

AMERICUS CLUB.—A party of gentlemen belonging to the Americus Club, of New York, arrived in town last night. The party left New York, by Hudson River R. R., on Tuesday, April 25th, at 10 a.m., remained at the Sherman House, Chicago, over night on Wednesday and left that place for Ogden at half past ten on Thursday morning. The party came along in one of Wagner's special cars.

ADDRESS OF EMIGRATION AGENT.—William C. Staines, Esq., Box 3057, New York.

NOTICE TO GROCERS.—An unprincipled firm have recently been copying our advertisements entire, with the single exception of substituting their name in place of ours. The imposition, although well calculated to deceive your customers, can be easily avoided by a little care on your part to see that Dooley's Yeast Powder is the one they are searching for. While the action of the party only adds further testimony to the popularity of our Yeast Powder, we deem this caution necessary, not only for your protection, but that of the customer. Dooley & Brother, 69 New Street, New York. d133 3eod w13 1
