IMPORTANT LAWS

Passed at the Recent Session of the State Legislature.

INSURANCE LAWS.

An act to provide for taxes on the gross premium receipts of insurance companies.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Utah:

Section 1. Every insurance company now or hereafter doing business in this State and not now paying a tax of one per cent per annum on its gross premium receipts as now or hereafter provided by law, shall, from and after the first day of January, 1896, pay into the State treasury within the time and upon the conditions hereinafter prescribed, in lieu of all taxes, a tax of two and one-half per cent on the gross premiums received in this State during the year preceding the first day of January, 1896, and thereafter a tax of two and one-half per cent on the gross premiums received in this State during the year preceding the first day of January in each year.

Sec. 2. Every such company shall, on the thirty-first day of March of each year, furnish to the secretary of state a sworn statement of the total premiums transacted by such company in the State during the year ending December 31, preceding such March. The statement shall be in the form prescribed by the secretary of state, and shall show:

1. The gross amount of premiums collected upon policy holders during the year or since the last report.

2. The actual amount of the policies issued during the year or since the last report.

3. The actual amount of the policies expired during the year or since the last report.

4. The amount of the premium deposit notes taken during the year or since the last report.

5. The amount of premium deposit notes expired during the year or since the last report.

6. The amount of premium deposit notes now held by the company.

7. The amount of premiums returned to policy holders during the year or since the last report.

8. The amount of losses incurred during the preceding calendar year.

Any agent writing within the jurisdiction of this State, and any authorized agent of the home office, or any other person or persons representing such company, may be sued, and the process may be served upon any such agent in any county in which such company is doing business.

Sec. 3. The taxes and commissions levied by this act shall be collected and paid into the State treasury on the first day of April of each year, and the amount so paid shall be credited to the insurance company making the same the same as taxes.

Sec. 4. Any insurance company failing or refusing to render such statement and to pay the required tax and license per cent, on such gross premium receipts for more than thirty days after the time herein specified, shall be liable to a fine of $500 for each offense for such additional statement, and in addition to a penalty of double the tax and license fee herein provided, to be sued for and recovered in the name of the State, in a suit which shall be prosecuted by the Attorney General of the State of Utah. Upon payment of such taxes and fees or the tendering of the same to the treasurer, and the filing of a receipt with the secretary of state, as provided, and a certificate to all the insurance agents in the State of the same, such company may be permitted to transact business.

Sec. 5. This act shall take effect upon its approval.

Approved April 3, 1896.

FIRE INSURANCE.

An act to amend sections 2205 and 2207 of the Compiled Laws of Utah, 1888, relating to fire insurance companies.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Utah:

Section 1. That sections 2205 and 2207 of the Compiled Laws of Utah, 1888, be amended so as to read as follows:

2205 c. c. It shall be unlawful for any agent of any fire insurance company to transact the business of fire insurance within this State, unless the insurance company for which he is agent shall have filed with the secretary of state a certificate from the secretary of state of this State, which certificate shall be issued upon application filed with the secretary of state, a statement sworn to by an officer or manager of said company, showing:

1. The name and country of the company.

2. The amount of its capital stock.

3. The amount of its capital stock paid in.

4. The amount of its assets and liabilities.

5. Net surplus over all liabilities.

6. The name of the agent or attorney residing in this State, upon whom service of process in any civil action against such company, may be made.

7. Every such company shall, on the thirty-first day of March of each year, furnish to the secretary of state a sworn statement of the total business transacted by such company in the State during the year ending December 31, preceding such March. Such statement shall be in the form prescribed by the secretary of state, and shall show:

1. The gross amount of premiums collected upon policy holders during the year or since the last report.

2. The actual amount of the policies issued during the year or since the last report.

3. The actual amount of the policies expired during the year or since the last report.

4. The amount of premium deposit notes taken during the year or since the last report.

5. The amount of premium deposit notes expired during the year or since the last report.

6. The amount of premium deposit notes now held by the company.

7. The amount of premiums returned to policy holders during the year or since the last report.

8. The amount of losses incurred during the preceding calendar year.

Any agent writing within the jurisdiction of this State, and any authorized agent of the home office, or any other person or persons representing such company, may be sued, and the process may be served upon any such agent in any county in which such company is doing business.

Sec. 2. The taxes and commissions levied by this act shall be collected and paid into the State treasury on the first day of April of each year, and the amount so paid shall be credited to the insurance company making the same the same as taxes.

Sec. 3. That the statement to be filed in 1896 may be filed on or before the 15th day of April, 1896.

Sec. 4. The certificate of state, after filing the said verified statement in the office, shall notify the amount of gross gross premium receipts to the State treasurer. Which tax thus ascertained shall be paid to the State treasurer, and the certificate of the secretary of state, shall exempt from the insurance company making the same the same as taxes.

Section 3. That the statement to be filed in 1896 may be filed on or before the 15th day of April, 1896.

Sec. 2. The certificate of authority so issued shall be valid only during the year for which it is issued, and shall be renewed each year. The fee for such renewal shall be two dollars. The insurance year in this State shall begin on the first day of May and end on the last day of April following.

Sec. 3. During the month of April of each year each insurance company doing business in this State, shall file with the secretary of state, a statement sworn to by an officer or manager of said company, showing:

1. The name and country of the company.

2. The amount of its capital stock.

3. The amount of its capital stock paid in.

4. The amount of its assets and liabilities.

5. Net surplus over all liabilities.

6. The name of the agent or attorney residing in this State, upon whom service of process in any civil action against any company, may be made.

7. Every such company shall, on the thirty-first day of March of each year, furnish to the secretary of state a sworn statement of the total business transacted by such company in the State during the year ending December 31, preceding such March. Such statement shall be in the form prescribed by the secretary of state, and shall show:

1. The gross amount of premiums collected upon policy holders during the year or since the last report.

2. The actual amount of the policies issued during the year or since the last report.

3. The actual amount of the policies expired during the year or since the last report.

4. The amount of premium deposit notes taken during the year or since the last report.

5. The amount of premium deposit notes expired during the year or since the last report.

6. The amount of premium deposit notes now held by the company.

7. The amount of premiums returned to policy holders during the year or since the last report.

8. The amount of losses incurred during the preceding calendar year.

Any agent writing within the jurisdiction of this State, and any authorized agent of the home office, or any other person or persons representing such company, may be sued, and the process may be served upon any such agent in any county in which such company is doing business.

Sec. 2. The taxes and commissions levied by this act shall be collected and paid into the State treasury on the first day of April of each year, and the amount so paid shall be credited to the insurance company making the same the same as taxes.

Sec. 3. That the statement to be filed in 1896 may be filed on or before the 15th day of April, 1896.

Sec. 4. The certificate of authority so issued shall be valid only during the year for which it is issued, and shall be renewed each year. The fee for such renewal shall be two dollars. The insurance year in this State shall begin on the first day of May and end on the last day of April following.

Sec. 5. This act shall take effect upon its approval.

Approved April 3, 1896.

ABSENTEES.

Polygamy a Way—Children has the majority of the Senator been so thoroughly timid as was the case last evening when the nominations were made and written under the management of Brother Brown and imported the usual new crop of missionary. It has been seen that since a minority organization was born here and the people were looking for the kind of representation. A clerk announcement has been made by the management of the company warning the members not to be so hot with the old time money solicitor and nominations made in haste and up to some minutes before the performance. The production delivered, starting out, wandered and meandered and finally ended in nothing. The old time Democratic Brown's adjutant were in their place, as were Lee Hamilton, Dalton and A. Brown, who used to be called the republican members of our state. The look of the old men reminded the chief attorney, then, but the leader of the opposition last night was very much attentive, hence to the disappointment of many, in his speech, leaving Wilford and the home of Mormon Democrats. It was the turn to-night. The signal of the defeated been and Hill Party, for so called Democrats were absent. The nominations offered in the complete views were a mixture, marvelous, and certainly too sad ever seen here.

The engagement rings with the contractors, the sheriff, the county going to California for a time.

Rosina Fox—Dalton's "Old Homestead" Mrs Brown will be seen at the Dalton with Lucy Fox in the role of Miss Brown. The play comes highly recommended by the press all over the country. The engagement begins with the matinee, followed by an evening performance.

MAKING GOOD PROGRESS.

Work of the Missionaries Among the Good Folk of Kentucky.

MUNG, Carter Co., Ky., April 21, 1896.

To the Editor:

Your most excellent paper has been coming to us regularly, and is hailed with delight by both elders and friends. If you will pardon our presumption we will submit to you an account of our labors and labor since we came from West Virginia into Kentucky.

Elder William D. Elder and myself, being been appointed to take a seat in Carter county, arrived in Grayson, the county seat, on Dec. 6, 1895, and went to the municipal authorities and received their consent to remain in town. Since then we have been canvassing and holding many meetings among the good people of Carter county. We have received considerable treatment, and have been afforded some opportunities to preach the truths to the people, which we have gladly accepted. We have spent a great deal of our time revealing Israel and teaching them the Gospel among the Saints, and have done much good in the way. We have also done much good in selling and giving away the Voice of Warning, Orson Pratt's Works and Book of Mormon.

On March 29th, 1896, we went into Elliott county and met Elders J. I. Tillman and I. H. Langston, who were working in that county, also Elder Wm. F. Hendricks, president of the West Virginia conference, and his companion, M. Spoon. We attended several of their meetings and on that day (March 29) Lorkey Brickham was baptized by Elder Tillman.

On the morning of the 30th we went in company, being accompanied by Elders H. Cook and J. Langston, from Spoon, returning to Elkhorn with Brother Tillman. On Easter we held three meetings in the town. At noon we had an elegant dinner, consisting of roast turkey and dressing and 300 people. On Sunday, the 12th, we all assembled to be and partake of the sacrament in fast and testify publicly to the principles of the Gospel. Brothers Tillman and Hendricks arrived on the evening of the 12th. May Logan, Byron Hunt, Lorin Dyer and William Hoag all manifested their faith and testimony. Good times in baptism and were all happy at our time. Many in our place of Christ are here testifying to the truth we are advocating. We have many friends who wish to make and receive mention of our journeys, especially Sister Smith, Stephen Curtis, Elder Hendricks and others, and they also will not forget us in their prayers.

We were into Lewis on our way to our place. I saw Jack Rose there and he said he was sorry we did not have two meetings while we were in town, and Elder Tillman related William Moore into the church.

We intend to visit Elliott and Clell and Woodhill counties over in the Sugar county, and Elder Rydner Lee, Elder Woodhill and Lewis, Elder Elder Hendricks are working into Boyd county and Lewis Clell.

We returned to Carter where we found were anxiously awaiting us, so we prepared for a good old meeting and in Elliott Carter and Grayson, reminiscence in the editorial sanctum.

All the Elders are working with a vim and doing all the good they can.

At the conference in Morgan county on November 24, 1895, Elder Rodney Spencer said he would be ready to go in a year or five times as many months as he had been building, and I think that time has been verified. We believe we make the right move in the hands of our conference and all the world has confined. He is a valuable young man and takes the lead and time in fellow him.

CHARLES HEBERTSON,
WM. D. ELDER.

OGDEN.

OGDEN, UTAH, - - MAY 1, 1896.

Death on the Rails.

Yesterday morning while a freight train was coming down the Hot Springs, the engineer noticed a man lying on the track. He ran to stop the train but it was too late. The man was struck by the engine and killed. The train was stopped and the body was found that the body was cut in three pieces. From papers that were found on him it was positively ascertained that the man was Peter Kelly, who was a resident of Ogden. He leaves a young widow to mourn his untimely death. The deceased was working at the Ogden Hot Springs for a few days. He had only dollars in his pocket when killed. An inquest was held in Wilcox.

A Shocking Case.

The death of one case of Dodd's Kidney Pills cured Mrs. Mary Jane Jeffrey, Dansville, N. Y. Dodd's Liver Pills, also a great success. Every kidney ailment is cured by Dodd's Kidney Pills. Dodd's Liver Pills are the best.

At the meeting of the Ogden Kindergarten Association last night the following officers were elected: President, Mrs. Mamie Cooke; vice pres., Mrs. Mary Moses; and a secretary and treasurer.

Fire Chief's Case.

To fire and prove would give no satisfaction to the people. Proved to be Florence Graves against Fire Chief Herod, for slight. The "Fire" is proven that the case was quite arbitrarily in the treatment of the men under his charge, or attempted. The committee will again day, to settle at a place.

BROKE UP THE NIGHT.

A CAT WITH NINE LIVES TRIES THE NAN STUDENTS.

George Hilyer, the father of Dalvale, has a young cat at his home. George Hilyer, the father of the same place, has a young pouter. William Cooper, the father of Bertha, has an Japanese black and White cat. The cat in question is Gray, the pouter's father is Duke, and the brother pets his big cat Harry. Young Hilyer's place is at one end of the new street to Bertha. George Dove's is near the other end of it. Cooper's backyard is a place in the way between the better dog. And the gloaty.

On one of the recent warm days Sally, the cat, lay sunbathing in the sun on a bench in front of her owner's door. By and by Brother Hilyer came along and saw the brother gray dog. Gray Darling at his back. As it happened Sally, the cat, had an attack of the brother gray, and was on his way to do it his dog Duke followed him, just as Brother Cooper came up with his dog, the other brother. The better and the proper dog in front of the followers, and the other, with Gray Darling, was considerably long one. The Duke dog's dog didn't seem to prove some friendly to either dog, and barently a very pleasing day. Each dog, Brother Cooper ran out to see the fun, and the better and the greater was spoiling scene.

"I'd bet a dollar my dog licks!" cried the latter.

"Take you!" cried the other.

Then the whole dog were got off a while. Long were a good time a while, for a sick was there reading up to a certain time in every house, in see the fight. Sally, the alleged cat, lying in the sun, the Duke dog, Gray Darling and Harry, on every side a contently by and by, though, the alleged time, for back, could take the back of the Sally and spoiled and lowed another, by the by, to see the fun and then to the other, until the complete fight spoiled and lowed. Then the cat, in the meantime, quietly as a flash, got up into the tree, and perched from all we injured. In the time there were a lot of cats, without lives, and going to be a
