AMUSEMENTS.

THE EMPIRE STOCK COMPANY.

The sale of seats for Chas. Frohman's Empire Stock company's engagement at the Theater, commencing Thursday night next, opened at the box office this morning and a large advance sale is secured.

Clyde Fitch's comedy, Bohemia, is to be presented on Thursday and Saturday evenings, bringing upon the stage a novelist, an artist and a violinist. Curiously enough, William Faversham, who appears in the character of the first named, was a literary man before he went on the stage; Robert Edeson, who represents the artist, has had several oil paintings on exhibition in New York and Boston galleries, and J. E. Dodson, who in the character of Schaunard enters upon the scene with a violin in hand immediately after violin music has been heard outside, is one of the best amateur violinists in England, and owns, furthermore, one of the few genuine Amati violins of which there is a record.

THE LYCEUM.

Man and Master was the attraction at the Lyceum last evening. It is one of the old time comedy-dramas calculated to thrill and fire an audience with enthusiasm, particularly the gallery part of it. The presentation showed evidences of hasty preparation, though the work done by Miss Abbott as Chloe, the mountain waif, was of a first class order, as was that of Mr. Adams in the part of the fisherman Jerry. Miss Atwood also deserves mention for good work done. The non-appearance of Mr. Hampton's name in the cast elicited the information that his engagement with the company had terminated and that he had joined the stock company at the Grand.

Man and Master goes for the balance of the week with the usual Saturday matinee.

Last Fishing Excursion.

On September 5th, you can take advantage of the Rio Grande Western's cheap excursion to all the well-known streams in Central, Eastern and Southern Utah. Why not spend Saturday, Sunday and Monday (three holidays,) in the mountains. Extra low rates. Inquire ticket office, No. 15 West Second South.
