MINING, BUSINESS AND STOCKS

ACTIVITY AT STOCKTON CAMP

Mines Practically Idle During the Late Summer and Fall to Start Up.

NEW STOCKTON FIRST TO MOVE

Honerine Connection Nearly Completed —Galena King and Black Diamond.

Stockton is about to awaken from a period of comparative inactivity. With the completion of the ore bins at the Stockton mine, which was accomplished yesterday, sorting of ore will be undertaken, and the sulphides from the lower levels of the mine will be hoisted, sorted and milled. Not only will this add to the grade of the concentrates made, but will also add to the output of the mine, as constant shipments of high grade will find their way to the market. The Black Diamond is also preparing for greater shipments and more men will be put on at once.

It is understood that the Galena King is again to open up, and work be done aside from that which is underway by leasers. The Murbrook is also under way and Maj. Mitchell is preparing for a vigorous campaign on the Katherine. Greatest of all, the connection between the Honorine Tunnel, and the mine will soon be completed and that big producer start on its way to earn dividends. Taken all in all the camp promises to be very active during the coming winter.

ON MINING EXCHANGE.

Business Brisk and Stocks in General Strong.

Business still keeps brisk on the mining exchange. At this morning's call 10,200 shares changed hands selling for $4,862.50. Lower Mammoth was again somewhat of a feature, selling 2,400 shares at figures around 35 cents per share. While Columbus Con. on the open board passed out 800 share at from $2.20 to $2.25. New York was another heavy trader, reaching 13½. All the mines at Park City lying contiguous to the Ontario showed strength in the morning's quotations. Daly, its nearest neighbor scoring a sale at 1.22½, being many points over the last transaction. Daly-Judge is strong at $7.00 asked and Daly-West is held at $15.50. The call closed to the following quotations:

Ontario Draining Fast.

Since 5 o'clock yesterday morning the water has receded in the Ontario mine from a point between the 1,000 and 1,100 levels to below the 1,300 level. Everything seems to be going right in the drain tunnel since the water began to flow through it and there is no question but that in a short time the mine will be drained to the 1,500 level. Manager Rood left this morning for the mine.

TO START FORTUNA MILL.

Will Handle 100 Tons Daily of Low Grade Lead Ores.

At the Fortuna directors' meeting yesterday afternoon it was decided to begin at once the treating of the mine's low grade ores. Aside from the big ledges of copper ore which have been developing and which are capable of producing a large tonnage. There is also a considerable amount of lead ores in the mine which have not been worked on account of water. Recently prospecting for the fluid has been done and a good flow has been developed. This makes the concentrating of the mine's low grade ores possible and profitable. The Fortuna mill will be added to in the form of tables, etc., and 100 tons of the low grade will be daily treated before the close of the year. This, added to the shipping ores will bring the Fortuna up with some of the bonanzas of its neighbors in Bingham.

ARE NOT UNEASY.

Raise of Water in the Ontario is Accounted For.

Water is raising in the Ontario, but this gives no uneasiness to the management. Those conversant with the unwatering of mines say that this is sure to happen as the water is let loose in the stopes and rushes down, causing a temporary raise in the shaft. This morning's report from Park City states that the drain tunnel is as full as it can be and that there is nothing to indicate a stoppage in the tunnel.

Already the Daly and the Daly-West are preparing to begin work in the levels which have been flooded for the past months, and the employment of many more hands than possible at present is sure to follow.

READS LIKE A ROMANCE.

Life Story of John McKean of Tonopah Camp, Nevada.

John McKane, was one of the first to reach the scene of excitement and mining activity in Nevada four years ago. He was then a poor man. The Mizpah was the only mine that had been opened up, and mining men had not enthused over it. One of the first men whom McKane met was Tom Lockhart, and old Colorado prospector who arrived in Tonopah on a "grub-stake. He had located the property that is now the Tonopah Extension mine. The whole camp regarded him as a "wildcatter,' a man who promotes a company and sells stock in a hole in the ground. Lockhart stuck to his mine, putting down unaided a shaft to the depth of over 60 feet. He was a man of remarkable nerve. Every morning he went down a ladder, drilled without aid a round of holes for blasting, lighted a fuse, and then hurried up out of the shaft to beat the explosion. Again and again he would descend into the shaft following each explosion with a bucket with which to carry out the waste rock. There was nothing in sight to encourage the industrious miner, but he had a theory; it was that the Mizpah ledge continued below the surface overflow of porphyry. Finally Lockhart went flat broke, and then McKane secured an option on the property, went to Pittsburg, introduced himself to Schwab and induced the latter to invest $150,000 in the mine. It is now a big dividend-payer, and its stock is seling in the open market at a valuation of six millions for the property. McKane is now Schwab's western representative, and he has extended operations until their combined holding includes some of the most valuable properties in southern Nevada. Out of his original investment of $150,000 Schwab has secured properties worth ten millions.—N. Y. Mining Profits.

WESTERN MARKET LETTER

Special Correspondence.

Kansas City, Mo., Monday, Nov. 6.—Cattle receipts here last week were 71,000 head, including 9,000 calves, a decrease of 15,000 head from the week previous. Prices on range killing steers held steady for the week, cows gaind 10 to 20 cents, stockers and feeders advanced the first half of the week, but lost the gain before the end, light veals were firm, heavy veals lost 25 cents, and stock calves closed the week 50 to 75 cents lower. The run today is 17,000 head, and the same trend of the market is in effect today as last week, killing steers barely steady, cows firm and active, stockers and feeders steady. A good many short fed steers are coming now, but buyers are neglecting them when they can get anything else to substitute for them, such as good Colorado or Southwestern grass steers. The situation just now is one of weakness in dressed beef steers, and strength in butcher stuff, stockers and feeders firm. Quality of range steers has been better than usual lately, ranging in price from $3.15 to $3.70 for bulk, cows and canners $2.00 to $2.80, with good heavy cows up to $3.05, veals up to $6.00, stock calves $2.50 to $3.75.

The range season in sheep and lambs is about ended, although Colorado, Utah, New Mexico and Arizona were represented in the receipts last week. Colorado had the best stuff, lambs at $7.50, yearlings $6.00, wethers $5.75, ewes $5.25, Arizona lambs at $7.20, Utah lambs at $7.00 and New Mexico kids at $5.40. Some Colorado lambs, at $6.75, comprise the range offerings today. The market declined 15 to 25 cents first of last week, but sheep regained the loss, lambs closed the week 10 to 15 lower. Run today 2,500, market firm. Fed stuff is being well received, prime stuff selling last week 10 to 15 cents higher than prices given above. Receipts seldom come up to expectations any day, and strength is the main element of the market just now.

LOCAL MARKETS.

The local markets for the week are lively and well supplied as a general thing. There is medium duck in the market now at 60 cents, prices hitherto having been 40 and 75 cents, and the supply is reported as plentiful. Butter is on the climb, owing to scarcity of feed and scarcity of cream, and the price for top notch butter is 40 cents. Persimmons are on hand at 15 cents a pound, also smoked halibut at 20 cents. Corn is off 5 cents. Dates will be here next week from Smyrna. Californians have been experimenting with date raising, and there are indications that later on dates can be raised in southern California, as well as in Asia Minor. New figs from California are in the market, and a success has been made with fig raising there. A car of sweet potatoes were received today, and a car of bananas is due tomorrow. The first car of this season's Naval oranges is due to arrive next Saturday. A car of lemons is also on hand, at prices tending downward.

There have been no cranberries this week from the east, and prices are still stiff. Cabbages continue high also, and potatoes now at 90 cents per cwt. promise to be $1.50 by spring. Fine celery is arriving regularly. Hens are scarce, but there is a plethora of spring chickens, and a big drop is expected. There is a scarcity in domestic duck and geese, as farmers are not bringing them to market. The fish market is full of all kinds of fish. California vegetables are in increasing demand. GREAT FLURRY IN CALL MONEY.

It Went to Fifteen Per Cent, and Precipitated Heavy Selling.

MOVEMENT NOT AGGRESSIVE

Losses of a Point Became Numerous—Earlier Advances generally Cancelled.

New York, Nov. 9.—Selling orders at the opening carried prices in the stock market today lower all around. Improved prices were registered after the opening selling orders had been cleared up, but the rallies were not of much consequence outside of Metropolitan Street Railway, which recovered half of its 2 point decline. Reading kept pace with the tendency and shot up to 41¾. Vigorous selling was resumed again and prices relapsed sharply all around. Northern Pacific was driven 3½ below yesterday's close. Delaware & Hudson and Minneapolis, St. Paul and Sault Ste Marie 2. Third Avenue 1⅛ and Atchison, Northwestern, Kansas City, Southern preferred, Atlantic Coast Line, American Car, Pressed Steel Car and Locomotive 1 to 1¼. Reading rebounded a point, great Northern preferred sold at 272¼ and at 270 ex-rights compared with 310 yesterday's closing. Havana Electric rose 2. Speculation then became very feverish, prices rallying a fraction and going off frequently. Reading rebounded to 142⅝.

A general recovery from yesterday's prices occurred during the second hour. Reading sold at 142¾ yesterday's record level. Other gains established were Atlantic Coast Line 1, Smelting 2⅜, United Railway Investment 2½ and Tennessee Coal and Havana Electric preferred 1½. American Tobacco preferred 1⅛, Chicago Union Tractiond ropped 2¼, Hocking Valley preferred 2, U. S. Rubber second preferred 1⅝, D. & R. G preferred, Manhattan Kansas & Texas preferred and U. S. Realty preferred a point or more. Bonds were heavy at noon.

A flurry in call money which sent the rate soaring to 15 per cent precipitated heavy selling and prices were forced lower than in the morning. Average reactions ran to a point, but reached 2 in Smelting and 3 in Reading. When money eased off stocks became firmer.

Gradually lower prices were made during the later afternon, although the selling lacked the aggressiveness that distinguished it during the period of the money flurry. Over night losses of a point became more numerous and there was a pretty thorough cancellation of the earlier advances in selected stocks. Northern Pacific yielded 5½ points and Delaware & Hudson yielded 2, Northwestern 2, Chicago Terminal 1½, Illinois Central 1½ and St. Paul, Union Pacific, Canadian Pacific and Pensylvania declined 1. Metropolitan Street Railway declined to 118¾ and Reading to 140⅝.

PRODUCE.

CHICAGO.

Chicago Nov. 9.—Increased receipts in the northwest had a depressing effect today on the wheat market here. Weather throughout the greater portion of the spring wheat section was more favorable for the movement of the crop. This tended to increase bearish sentiment. Commission houses and pit traders were moderate sellers. Buying was scattered. May opened ⅛ to ¼ lower at 90¼ to 90⅜. After selling at 90½ the price settled back to 90¼.

Minneapolis, Duluth and Chicago reported receipts of 971 cars against 613 a year ago.

The feature of trading in the corn pit was profit taking in the December option by several prominent longs. As a result of this selling the market in general was a trifle easier. May opened unchanged to ⅛@¼ lower at 47@47¼ to 47⅛, sold at 47¼@47⅜ and then reacted to 47⅛.
